cording to law, on oath says that Nancy Guyton widow of Moses Guyton is his sister, and was married to the said Major Moses Guyton in the month of December Eighteen hundred and four (1814) that he was not present at the marriage, but saw them return to his father the evening after their marriage and were received treated and reputed as husband and wife until the death of said Major Moses Guyton which took place in the month of February one thousand eight hundred and sixteen (1816) as he knows that it was but a few days before the death of Deponent's father Thomas Cole who died on the Twenty-fourth day of February 1816.

The Deponent well recollects that the marriage took place in the year 1814 as it was the year the Troops left Lipses old field for Charleston.
The said Major Moses Guyton was distinguished as a soldier and Officer of the revolutionary war and as such his services were well known and duly appreciated which opinion was generally and that his widow, said Nancy, has not remarried since his death, and is still living in Deponets neighborhood.

about 40 or 100 men of us we was between fairfax and Tyege Rivers a large body of torys come on us Commanded by Wilm Cunningham and Defeated us with the loss of some killed and some taken prisoners at this time the torys over run our Country a few of us and some Refugees from Georgia got together and some times pursued our Enemy and some times they drove us in this time I was out not less than 4 weeks before I returned home was often out in Scouts after the torys and in february 1741 we was called out in Command and while out heard of a body of torys Commanded by Major Lantrip Camped at a Widow Duggens near Bush River in ninety six Detracts we come on them in the night killed and took some of them and defeated them at this time I was under the Command of Col Chase and Lieutent Guyton of our Company I was out not less than 2 weeks at this time I was at home but a few days ago and called out on a Scout after the torys at this time I was under adjutant John Montgomery we had then or 12 men with us and near to fairfax we come on a few torys not far from their Camp we killed one or 2 of them and the rest made their Escape and for the want of more men we could not pursue them and returned home I think I was not out more than one week this time I think ~~the last~~ the last of february or first of march we was called on pursuit of the torys and when about 40 miles from home in noblys Settlement between broad River and Seluda we heard of Cuningom at the head of a body of torys on Bull Swamp not far from the Congaree River I think we ^{had} about 40 or 100 men at this time I think Major Ben Jolly of our Regiment Major of our Company we Marched down to Bull Swamp in pursuit of the torys but did not come up with them and Return'd home I think I was out not less than fifteen days this time some time the last of March 1755 was call'd out in the Service of my Country Col Bronson was our Commander of our Regiment and Capt Robert Montgomery of our Company and after we was out some time on the torys and Enore Rivers after the torys Bronson Rec'd an Express from general Sumpter to join him Sumpter lay at that time on the north Side of the Congaree River opposite to the Congaree fort which the British held at that time we march down to join Sumpter and Cross'd Saluda River at widow Weavers in hopes to join Sumpter and were within a few miles of the fort when we found we could not Cross the Congaree to join Sumpters army we turn'd back and Recross'd Saluda and Scouted through parts of the tory settlements and Return'd home I was not out less than 2 or 3 weeks this time Shortly after I got home I think about the last of April 1755 was Call'd on to serve one month's tour about 25 miles from where I liv'd our men made what we call'd a block

Affidavit of THOMAS COLE, THE BROTHER OF Nancy. Their FATHER WAS THOMAS COLE Who died 24 Feb. 1816.

Affidavit of Aaron Guyton 8 Oct. 1833 outlining battles and service in which Moses participated.

Affidavit of Aaron Guyton in support of application of Nancy Guytons claim for a widows pension based on the service of her husband, Moses Guyton.

After Charleston was taken by the British, which was in May, 1780, I was called out against the Tories. Col. Brandon of our Regiment was our commander. Moses Guyton Lieutenant of our Company we was about 80 or 100 men of us. We was between Fairfax and Tygar (?) Rivers. A Large body of Tories came on us commanded by Wilm Cunningham and defeated us with the loss of some killed and some taken prisoner. At this time the Tories over run our country. A few of us and some refugees from Georgia got together and sometimes pursued our enemy and sometimes they drove us in. In this time I was out not less than six weeks before I returned home. Was often out in Scouts for the Tories, and in Feb. 1781 we was called out on Command and while out heard of a body of Tory's commanded by Major Lantrip camped at a widow Duggans near Bush River in Ninety Six District and came on them in the night killed and took some of them and defeated them at this time I was under the command of Col. Lease and Lieut. Guyton of our company. I was out not less than two weeks at this time. I was home but a few days and called out as a scout after the Torys at this time. I was under Adj. John Montgomery. we had not more than ten or twelve men with us and near to Fair Forrest we came on a few Tories not far from their camp. We killed one or tow and the rest made their escape and for the want of more men we could not pursue them. and the rest made their escape and we returned home. I think I was out not more than one week at this time. I think the 1st of Feb. or First of March we was called on pursuit of Torys and when about forty miles from home in Mobly's settlement between Broad River and Saluda we heard of Cunningham at the head of a body of Tories on Bull Swamp not far from the Congaree River. I think we had about 80 or 100 men at this time. I think Major Ben Jolly of our Regiment and Major Outerson was our commander Lieut. Moses Guyton of our company. We marched down to Bull Swamp in pursuit of the Tories and did not come up on them and returned home. I think I was out not less than fifteen days this time. Some time the last of March 1781 was called out in service of my country Col. Brannon was our commander of our Regiment and Capt. Robert Montgomery of our company. and after we was out some time on the Tygar and Enore Rivers after the Torys Brannon rec'd an Express from Gen'l Sumter to join him. Sumter lay at that time on the North side of the C Congaree River opposite to the Congaree fort which the British held at the time we marched down to join Sumter and crossed Saluda River at Widow Weavers in hopes to join Sumter and we were a few miles from the fort when we found we could not cross the Congaree to join Sumters army. We turned back and recrossed Saluda and scouted through parts of Tory settlements and returned home. I was not out less than two or three weeks this time. Shortly after I got hom I think about the last of April 1781 was called on to serve one month tour about 25 miles from where I lived. Our men made what we call a block house on fair
