BEALL—(SHIPLEY)

Registrants: Under the dignity of MANORIAL RIGHTS, through Robert Brooke, of DeLaBrooke. Ed. Dorsey of HOCKLEY IN YE HOLE. Through Lloyd lineage to GREAT OAK and WYE HOUSE—St. John's MANOR, through John Hyland. Dr. Richard Tilghman, to Thos. Hynson of HINCHANHAM. Landed Gentry through the right of descent from Matthew Howard, Ninian Beall, Richard Shipley and Capt. Joseph Worthington. Marmaduke Tilden and TILGHMAN'S FORTUNE. Maternal lineage—Distinguished Foreign Ancestry the same Chart as Mrs. Edith Shipley Britton. (*See Charlemange and Knights of the Garter.)

BEALL: Miss Floyd Brooke Beall. 21 South Monastery Ave., Baltimore, Md. Miss Mattie Beall, Miss Louise Beall, Mrs. John Hoff Beall, nee—Floyd Clements Shipley. (See SHIPLEY* registration.) 2100 St. Paul St., Baltimore, Md.

Lineage: Of Ninian Beall, whose record in Md. from 1650 was outstanding. He came as an indentured Cromwellian Prisoner, served thirty-five years, lived to be 92—was six feet, 7 inches tall, and his remains were removed after years and this was proven. His thrift and perseverance made him an outstanding character of his day. He lived at "Fife Large", near what is now Georgetown, D. C. His youngest son, George, the one Georgetown is named for and not for George Washington, as many think. George Gordon owned this tract first; it was called "The Wilderness" and he acquired it from Leonard Mackall whom—Catherine Beall. This is now known in Washington as Q Street, N Street, and to 30th Street. The Beall family were people who stood pioneer life with fine physique, and the family gave generously its sons to the American Rev. It is said more sons than any other family and many High Ranking Officers from Col. to Brig.-Gen. Gen. Samuel Beall, a grandson, was known as one of The Immortal Twelve, of The Stamp Act. His eldest son, Brooke Beall, was known for his hospitality and charming wife; George Washington was often a guest at his beautiful home. George Beall m—Eliz. Brooke, dau—of Barbara Dent and Thomas Brooke. He was b—at Marlboro 1695, d—at Georgetown 1780. The Dumbarton House of Georgetown emulated American Rev. ancestry, rather than Colonial distinction, because fame came during that 1776 period; it was fifty-three years after coming to Md. before Ninian received a Grant—1703. He was then 78 years old—b—in Scotland 1625, at Fifehire; and enjoyed even at that time of life fourteen years remaining in comfort on his Plantation. He was voted by the Legislature a gift for service most faithfully performed in the protection of Md. against the Indians—1699. His sons and grandsons all served in various American Wars—to 1812-14.

Founder of American Branch: Colonel Ninian Beall—name of first wife not known. He had two sons—b. in Scotland:

Thomas Beall—m—Elizabeth Bateman

John Beall

The second wife of Ninian Beall was Ruth More—dau—of Richard More (or Moore) of Calvert Co. Md.

(Issue—8 ch)—of these Ninian Beall, Jr., m—Elizabeth Magruder. (Issue—2 ch)—Samuel Beall, Mary Beall.

Jane Beall—m—Archibald Edmonstone

Charles Beall—m—Mary

Hester Beall—m—Col. Joseph Belt

Margery Beall—m—Col. Joseph Belt, the widower of her sister Hester

Mary Beall—m—Andrew Hamilton

Rachel Beall m— Offutt

George Beall—m—Elizabeth Brooke—dau—of Col. Thomas Brooke and his wife—Barbara Dent—and the great-granddaughter of Robert Brooke of DeLaBrooke and his wife Mary Baker

Margery Beall was married twice—her first marriage was Thomas Sprigg 3rd, and her second marriage to Col. Joseph Belt.

Ninian Beall—name of first wife unknown

Thomas Beall—m—Elizabeth Bateman

John Beall m—Virinda Magruder

Joseph Beall—m—

Thaddeus Beall—m—Amelia Beall, his first cousin

Frederick Beall—m—Martha Peyton Beall, his cousin

COPY OF THE WILL OF COL. NINIAN BEALL

(Note: Contributed by Lucy Beall Chesley-Kenly, Registrant*)

In the name of God, Amen. I, Ninian Beall, of Prince George's County in the Province of Maryland, being indisposed in body, but of sound and perfect memory, God be praised for these same, and, considering the mortality of human nature, and uncertainty of life, doe make, ordain, constitute and appoint this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following: Vist. Impris. I give and bequeath my Soul into the hands of Almighty God, in hopes of free pardon for all my sins, and as for my Body, to be committed to the earth from which it came, to be decently buried at the discretion of my Trustees hereafter mentioned.

Item. I will and bequeath that all my debts and funeral charges be paid first and satisfied, and as for what portion of my worldly goods as shall be then remaining, I bequeath and bestow in the manner following:

Item. I doe give and bequeath unto my son George, my Plantation and tract of land called the "ROCK OF DUMBARTON," lying and being at Rock Creek, and containing four hundred and eighty acres, with all the stock thereon, both cattle and hogs, them and their increase, unto my son George, and unto his heirs forever.

Item. I doe give and bequeath unto my said son, George Beall, his choice of one of my feather beds, bolster and pillow, and other furniture thereto belonging, with the cows and calves, and half my sheep from off this Plantation I now live on, unto him and his heirs forever.

Item. I doe give and bequeath unto my son-in-law, Andrew Hamilton, my negro woman Allie, unto him and his heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my granddaughter, Mary Beall, the daughter of my son, Ninian Beall, deceased, the one-half part of all movables or personal property of cattle and hogs, horses, household goods, after my legacies before bequeathed are paid and satisfied, unto her the said Mary Beall, and to her heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath to my grandson, Samuel Beall, the remainder part of Bacon Hall, together with the plantation and orchard, tobacco houses thereunto belonging (with this proviso) that when he comes of age of one and twenty, that he make over by a firm conveyance, all his rights and title that he hath unto a certain Tract of Land called Same's (or Sam's) beginning on the south side of the road, going to Mount Calvert, unto the said Mary and her heirs forever, but if my said grandson should happen to die before he arrive to be at that age, to make over the land so as aforesaid, then I doe give and bequeath unto my said granddaughter Mary, the whole tract of Bacon Hall, with the houses and orchard thereon, unto her and her heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my grandson, Samuel Beall, my water-mill lying on the Collington Branch, Iron Work Houses, and all other materials thereunto belonging, unto the said Samuel and his heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son-in-law, Joseph Belt, a part of a tract of land called Good Luck, containing two hundred and forty-five acres, he allowing unto my heirs the sum of four thousand pounds of tobacco, according to our former agreement, he deducting what I doe owe him on his books for several wares and merchandises, to the said Joseph Belt and unto his heirs forever.

Item. Whereas I owe several debts, I doe empower my Trustees hereafter named, to enable them to pay the same, to sell a certain tract of land, called Recovery, lying and in the freshes of Patuxent River, near the head of the Western Branch, to be sold, it containing four hundred acres, the aforesaid tract of land bequeathed unto my son Belt, is adjoining thereunto.

Item. I doe give and bequeath unto my son Charles Beall, a book of Bishop Cooper's work, "The Acts of the Church and Chronicles of King Charles the First and King Charles the Second", and I doe request and oblige my son Charles and my son George to send for a dozen books entitled "An Advice to Young, Old and Middle Age", set forth by one Mr. Christopher Ness, these books to be distributed among my grandchildren and godsons.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son Charles, a thousand acres of land, called Dunn Back, lying on the south side of the Great Choptank, on a creek called Watt's Creek, unto him and his heirs forever.

And lastly, I doe make, ordain, declare and appoint my grandson, Samuel Beall, to be my sole and whole executor of this my last will and testament. And I doe devise my loving son, Charles Beall, Joseph Belt, and George Beall, to doe and perform my devises as above expressed, and to set and doe for my Executor until he arrive at the age of one and twenty, hereby revoking and annulling all other Wills by me at any time heretofore made and signed.

And I doe devise my said sons to use their best care and endeavor that my two grandchildren, the children of my beloved Ninian Beall, deceased, to be brought up and have Trustees to this my last Will, to make their appearance every Easter Tuesday, or any other time as they shall think a more fitting time, at my dwelling plantation, yearly, to inspect into all the affairs thereof, and of a yearly increase of all the creatures upon my plantation and at the Mill, for and on behalf of my two grandchildren, who are to be joint sharers therein, my granddaughter to have her part on the day of her marriage.

In testimony whereof, I have, to this my last Will and Testament, set my hand and seal, this Fifteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord, One thousand, seven hundred and seventeen.

Miss Susie C. Beall
Beltsville, Md.

Lineage: Through the intermarriages, MANORIAL RIGHTS are of the maternal lineage through Thomas Sprigg of NORTHAMPTON MANOR and Thomas Hilleary of THREE SISTERS MANOR. To Col. Thomas Williams, a Revo. hero, who sacrificed his own fortune to aid the American troops, and Luther Martin, Attorney-Gen., sold this home to meet his obligation. Estates—"Rock of Dumbarton", "Sam's Beginning", "Dunn Back", etc.

Historical: Incidents of Ninian Beall—A man of staunch moral courage and thrift. A typical American of pioneer days—33 years of age when he arrived in Md., and without means, gaining confidence for thirty or more years. In 1684 he became a Burgess from P. G. Co. (then it was Calvert Co. Md. before the erection in 1695 of P. G. Co.) A chief military officer of Calvert Co. Md. A Memb. of Assembly sent to treat with the Indians—1697-1699; was subject of an Act of Gratitude passed by the Gen. Assembly for distinguished service. Under his supervision 200 Presbyterian immigrants from Scotland entered Md. along the Potomac River—they named the settlement "New Scotland". Ninian Beall gave a deed for land there to build a church and presented a silver Communion Service in 1707 (parts of which may still be seen today). He was a man of huge stature—6 ft. 7 in. He became owner of large tracts of land which are now where the town of Georgetown is built at Washington, D. C.

Beall

I believe that Andrew J. Beall descends from Thaddeus Beall of Md. line.

Seeking descendants of the following!

ANDREW J. BEALL, b. 13 April 1815 (census says born in North Carolina). Married 17 Jan. 1837 in Upson County, Ga. Married Lurana Deloach (of French Huguenot extraction), b. 1820, Jones County, Ga. This couple moved abt. 1851-1854 to East Alabama in census of 1860 known as Russell Co., Ala. (became Chambers Co., Ala. in 1868). This couple is last found in 1880 in the New Harmony Community of Chambers Co., Ala. Their dates of death and place of burial is not presently known.

NOTE: Andrew was orphaned by a William Beall (there are many) before the age of 7. Found in the Jackson Co., Ga. Court Records (Orphan's Court Minutes Nov. 1821) - "Andrew J. Beall made ward of guardian Aaron Tillman to be taught reading, writing, and arithmetic until age of 21".

In the 1832 Gold Lottery, orphans of William Beall drew from Upson Co., Ga. Andrew paid taxes on the land which was received (40 acres in Floyd Co., Ga.) before he was 21 years of age. This tax was paid in 1834 (evidently by Aaron Tillman). The land was sold in Floyd County in 1849 and signed for by brothers of Andrew - James, William, and Elijah. Deed said they were of Harris Co., Ga. but the 1840 and 1850 Harris Co., Ga. census shows none of the three men. So the search continues for not only the parents of these men, but for the men themselves and their families if they had families.

Children of Andrew J. and Lurana Beall/Bell are as follows:

1. Martha (Twin) born 1837, Upson Co., Ga. - Married William O. Dickson, 7 Dec. 1858, Russell Co., Ala. - Seeking info. on descendants if any. (Could be spelled Dixon also)
2. Mary (Twin) born 1837, Upson Co., Ga. married H. D. Royal in 1856 in Russell Co., Ala.
3. Elizabeth born 1838 Upson Co., Ga. married Jesse M. Deloach 11 Nov. 1863, Russell Co., Ala. (Jesse served in the Confederate Army from Chambers Co., Ala. 10th Confederate Cavalary, Pvt.)
4. S. Francis (Fanny), b. 1841 Upson Co., Ga. married Thomas Smith, 20 April 1867, Russell Co., Ala.
5. William H. C. b. 1844 Upson Co., Ga. - married Harriett Botsford, 17 Jan. 1883, Chambers Co., Ala.
6. Thomas Jefferson Franklin b. 9 Dec. 1846, Upson Co., Ga., married Emma Woody on 9 Dec. 1873. Chambers Co., Ga.
7. Leasy Ann, b. 1848 Upson Co., Ga. married 22 Mar. 1867, Lee Co., Ala.
8. George W. married Francis (Fannie) E. O'Brien 28 Dec. 1875, Chambers Co., Ala. 1880 Chambers Co., Al. census listed two children: Minnie age 3, and John age 1.
9. Elizabeth Janie, b. 2 Oct. 1856, Russell Co., Ala. married J.S. Woody, 5 Dec. 1876 Chambers Co., Ala.
10. Andrew J. Bell, b. 15 Feb. 1857 married Marinda Orlean Gay, 4 Sep. 1882 Chambers Co., Ala. (Great grndfa. of Compiler).
11. Joseph (also on census as Josiah), b. 9 May 1860, Russell Co., Ala. married Lena Hinkle, 23 Dec. 1880, Chambers Co., Ala.
