Benjamin made a will dated February 21, 1816 in Green County, Kentucky Will Book 2, page 3, in which he left property to his wife Sarah and younger children and his ten older children $1. each. It is often a legal condition to a will to name each child. The will reads:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Benjamin Greer, of the County of Green, State of Kentucky, being through the goodness and mercies of God though weak in body, yet of sound mind and perfect understanding and memory, do constitute this my last will and testament and desire it may be recorded as such. I most humbly bequeath my soul to God who gave it, beseeching (some damaged area) and my body buried like seed in the ground, not to be lost but here buried to remain till the morning of the Resurrection through Jesus Christ our Lord. As to my burial, I do desire to be interred, at the discretion of my Executors, thereafter named, who, I doubt not will arrange it with prudence. As to my worldly estate, I will, and positively order that all my debts be paid. First, I do bequeath to my two youngest sons namely, Aquilla and Edmond Greer, the two tracts of land I now live on to be equally divided between them: and the rest of my estate to be equally divided between my three daughters: namely, Sally, Elizabeth and Polly Greer; but my wife, Sarah Greer to hold the same in her hands during life; but said children to have their equal part as they become of age or marry. At the discretion of my Executors to which I do appoint my wife Sarah Greer, Aquilla Greer and Robert Erwin, and do constitute the executors of this my last will and testament and trustees for my wife and children. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my had and Seal this twenty first day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and sixteen. N.B. and I do will that all my other children namely, John, Rachel, William, Benjamin, Ann, Jesse, David, Samuel, Joshua and James have one dollar each out of my estate. Signed Benjamin (X) Greer, witnesses: Benjamin Bayly, Christopher Hinker, James (X) Lile." (Green County, Kentucky Will Records)

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

(Note: glw: As you can see he only left his children from his first wife, one dollar, while leaving his land to the children of Sarah Jones Greer.) However, if the land grants were found, it is possible that he had already given his older children land when they married as was often the custom.

Aquilla, Sally, Elizabeth, Polly, Edmond and Thomas (Thomas may be questionable or he may have died before the will.) were all children of Benjamin and his second wife, Sarah "Sallie" Atkinson Jones.

He had ten (10) Children with Nancy Wilcox; James, William, Rachel, John, Benjamin, Nancy Ann, Jesse, David, Samuel and Joshua.

- Story - not documented: Benjamin Cleveland was captured on the 22nd day of April, 1781, while on a visit to his tenant, Jesse Duncan, at the lower end of the Old Fields -- probably the very spot at which the late Nathan Waugh lived and died. Captain William Riddle was the leader of the gang which captured him, they having stolen his horses from Duncan's barn the night before and led them up south fork of New River into a laurel thicket just above the house then occupied by Joseph and Timothy Perkins, about one mile distant.

There were six or eight men with Riddle, and when they reached Benjamin Cutbirth's home the day before, four miles above Duncan's home, and failed to get any information from him, they abused him shamefully and left him under guard. Cleveland ran into the ambush and was taken into the Perkins house, which stood on the site of the house in which Nathan Waugh's son, Charles, now resides. (1915) The photo shows the present house and apple tree in its front under which it is said Cleveland was sitting when captured. Into this house, Zachariah Wells followed Cleveland and attempted to shoot him, but that brave (?) man seized Abigail Walters, who was present, and kept her between him and his would-be assassin.

Cleveland was then taken up New River to the mouth of Elk Creek, and thence to "what has since been known as Riddle's Knob." This is some fourteen from Old Fields and in Watauga County. Here they camped for the night.

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

But they had been followed by young Daniel Cutbirth and a youth named Walters, Jesse Duncan, John Shirley, William Calloway, Samuel McQueen and Benjamin Greer, while Joseph Calloway mounted a horse and hastened to notify Captain Robert Cleveland, Ben's brother, on Lewis' Fork of the Yadkin. Five of these in Robert's advance party fired on Riddle's gang at the Wolf's Den early the next morning, and Cleveland dropped behind the log on which he had been sitting slowly writing passes for the Tories, fearing that when he should finish doing so he would be killed. Only Wells was wounded, the rest escaping, including Riddle's wife. As it was thought that Wells would die from his wound, he was left on the ground to meet his fate alone. But he survived.

Wolf's Den The Wolf's Den, where Cleveland was rescued

There is still a tradition in the neighborhood of the Wolf's Den that Ben Greer killed or wounded Riddle at that place soon after Cleveland's rescue, one version saying that Riddle was only wounded and then taken to Wilkes and hanged. Indeed, the place in the gap between Pine Orchard and Huckleberry Knob, through which the wagon road from Todd to Riddle's Fork of Meat Camp Creek now runs, is still pointed out as that at which Greer and his men camped in the cold and wind, without fire or tent, till they saw the campfire on Riddle's Knob flame up, after which they crept up to that lonely spot and either killed or wounded the redoubtable Tory.

Cleveland Hangs Riddle

Soon after Cleveland's rescue Riddle and his men made a night raid into the Yadkin Valley, where, on King's Creek, they captured two of Cleveland's soldiers, David and John Witherspoon, and "spirited them away into the mountain region on the Watauga River in what is now Watauga County," where they both were sentenced to be shot, when it was proposed that if they would take the oath of allegiance to the king, repair to their home and speedily return with the O'Neal mare - a noble animal - and join the Tory band, their lives would be spared. This the Witherspoons agreed to, and returned with not only the mare, but with Col. Ben Herndon and a party also, when they captured Riddle, Reeves and Goss, "killing and dispersing the others."

These were taken to Wilkesboro, court martialled and executed" on the hill adjoining the village, "on a stately oak, which is yet (1881) standing and pointed out to strangers at Wilkesboro." Well, too, was captured and taken to Hughes' Bottom, one mile below Cleveland's Round About home-place, and hanged by plow lines from a tree on the river bank, without trial and in spite of the protestations of James Gwyn, a lad of thirteen, whose noble nature revolted at such barbarity. But Cleveland's cruelty was too well known to need further comment, for it is recorded of him that he once forced an alleged horse-thief to cut off his own ears with a dull case knife to escape death by hanging all without trial or evidence.

Cleveland moved to South Carolina at the close of the Revolutionary War, where he died while sitting at the breakfast table, in October, 1806, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. Cleveland County in this State was named in his honor. He was buried in the forks of the Tugalo and Chauga, Oconee County, South Carolina, but his grave with a stone marking it is in the churchyard of New Hope Baptist Church, near Staunton, Wilkes County, North Carolina, according to several recent statements of Col. J. H. Taylor, the father of Mrs. John Stansbury of Boone. However, some claim that this is Robert Cleveland's grave stone. So much for two versions of Riddle's death.

But there is yet another version, for Col. W. W. Presnell, for many years register of deeds for Watauga County and a brave one-armed Confederate soldier, still points out at the foot of a ridge north of James Blair's residence, on Brushy Fork Creek, two low rock cliffs, between which and the hollow just east of them stood until recently a large white-thorn tree upon which W. H. Dugger and other reputable citizens of a past day said Cleveland had hanged Riddle and three of his companions. Certain it is, according to Dr. Draper, that "Colonel Cleveland was active at this period in sending our strong scouting parties to scour the mountain regions, and if possible, utterly break up the Tory bands still infesting the frontiers." Other say that two of these men were named Sneed and the third was named Warren.

- State Census of North Carolina: 1787, Wilkes Co, NC. Benjamin Greer on page 171
26 Aug 2012 Dorothy Grissom Mack
- Three Forks Baptist Church: Watauga Co, NC. During the revolution Benjamin Greer apparently saw various services in the Wilkes County Militia, although documentary record of this is scarce. One account of his most famous exploit, the rescue of Col. Benjamin Cleveland from the Tories in April 1781 near Meat Camp Creek, is related in A HISTORY OF WATAUGA COUNTY (Appendix B [in book]). The source of this account, in its earliest published version, is apparently Lyman C. Draper's KING'S MOUNTAIN AND ITS HEROES, 1881, photostats from which that relate to the rescue are also attached (as Appendix F [in book]) as well as a few pages of supplementary material from John Preston Arthur's WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA: A HISTORY, 1730 - 1913 (which is Appendix E [in book]). This adds the tradition, preserved in the Greer family, that it was Ben Greer who fired the shot that killed Col. Ferguson at King's Mountain. Lyman Draper unfortunately does not cite his sources for his account which, although probably factual, was likely based on hearsay evidence and also, perhaps, papers of Col. Cleveland. Wilkes County Militia rosters do not survive, not are any original pay vouchers issued to Benjamin Greer extant. However proof that he did receive payment for militia service is contained in the books of the North Carolina Treasurer and Comptroller, Revolutionary Army Accounts. In Book A of this series (Vol. 40, page 221) is recorded a payment in 1782 (?) Morgan District, which included Wilkes County, as follows: "0879. To Benjamin Greer for Service pr ditto -.16-." The ditto refers to the statement "for Service pr Pay Roll" a few lines above.

"The account of Benjamin's rescue of Col. Cleveland implies that he had moved his residence further west by 1781 to the South Fork of New River near the present Watauga - Wilkes border, and in the area where Joshua Greer later lived. First, on 24 January 1781 he entered a claim to 100 acres, apparently obtained from one Stringer, which was granted 9 July 1794 (#1121, photostat attached [in book]). Chain carriers for the survey, 20 January 1791, were his sons Wm. Greer and John Greer. This land is said to have been four miles above Cleveland's plantation at the "Old Field" where Gap Creek enters the South Fork. After the war Benjamin continued to increase his holdings here; on 16 July 1789 he entered a claim to 100 acres at his own line which was issued 9 July 1794 (Wilkes #1199, photostat attached [in book]). That he had actually moved his residence to this plantation is shown by the fact that he sold his Cub Creek land in 1790: "Wilkes County Deeds B-1:73): This Indenture made this Twenty seventh day of April ... 1790 Between Benjamin Greer of the ... County of Wilkes ... and Turner Hampton of the county ... aforesaid ... witnesseth that for ... one hundred pounds ... hath ... sold ... unto the sd Turner Hampton ... a certain tract of parcel of alnd containing two hundred acres Lying ... on the Waters of cub creek, Beginning on a post oak and red oak sapling on a flat in Francis Hardgrave line ... John Greers line by a Path ... (signed) Benjamin Greer ... Witness: Rowland Judd, Isaac Walker, Francis Hardgrave."

- Descendant information: 13 April 2012, Sharon Buck. I sent you a note earlier about my quest for ancestor Sarah Boone and I had kept it simple thinking that might be best for a first contact... then I started thinking you might think I was a real lightweight waiting for you to show me the way so I thought I had best sent you a more complete summation. I have Sarah Cassandra Boone 1724-1815, sister of Daniel Boone, frontiersman, and daughter of Squire Boone and Sarah Morgan. She married John Wilcoxson 1720-1782, and I am descended from two of her children, Samuel Wilcoxson 1755-1825 and Nancy Wilcoxson. Samuel married Anna Jordan 1756-1840 and they had a son Isaiah Wilcoxson 1796-1879 who married Fannie Greer and had a son Rev. William Billy Wilcox 1818-1909 who married Lavina Baker Hatton and they had a daughter martha Mattie Wilcox 1861-1920 who was my maternal grandfather's mother. She married Albert T. Greer 1858-1930 and their son was Joseph Franklin Greer, my grandfather. 1880-1947. From Sarah's daughter Nancy 1745-1790 who married Benjamin Greer 1746-1816 they had a son John Greer 1770-1850 who married Nancy Owens and their son was Elijah Greer 1806-1870. Elijah married Sarah Hawkins and their son was my great-grandfather Albert T. Greer who was my grandfather Joseph Franklin Greer's father. I hope these begats are not too big a muddle.

Anyway, I would like to find out more about this ancesotor Sarah Boone and her interesting family.

Sincerely,
Sharon Buck

The records are confusing about the dates. (this was not unusual for the times)
It is not certain that the birth date is correct so the date given here will be based on the only real Record available:
1860 Ashe County NC Census
North Fork Township HH 520
Wm. Greer 92
Hannah 91
If this Census is correct and he is 92 here he would have been born about 1768. If he died in 1862, he would have been 94 when he died which makes this Census also line up with the dates. So this would seem to be correct.

William and Hannah lived a very long life in the mountains of North Carolina, where even now you find you cannot see the sky from the roads in some places for the lush green branches that reach out to touch each other. The houses still hang from the hillsides as though clinging to life itself. How did they ever get across these mountains such a long time ago? William died in 1862 during the Civil War. He was too old to go to war. (Note:glw)

Father: Benjamin Greer b: 9 Feb 1745/46 in Augusta Co.VA

This diary confirms the death date of William.

Record: "A Journal", Written by Francis Marion Wilcox, Part 3, 1897:

"Grandfather, while hunting and roaming over the hills of this new country, became acquainted with one William Greer, whose wife (Hannah Cartwright) was a relative of the eccentric Peter Cartwright, being herself the mother of several young ladies among whom was Jacintha, who afterward married one Hardin Parsons, and one named Fannie. Isaiah became all broken up on the latter. He courted, wooed and won her hand and about the year 1817, they as before stated, were married and settled on the New River in Ashe County, North Carolina."

"William Greer remained on the waters of New River until removed by death during the spring of 1862, being near ninety seven years old. He always longed for Kentucky and believed it to be the "promised land". His wife Hannah also died there in the same year being up into ninety. He heard their funerals preached by Uncle William Wilcox in the summer of 1862."

(This diary was very accurate and confirms their death dates.)

- Another version of information: "On or about the year 1820, William Greer with his family, also Isaiah Wilcox, his son-in-law, concluded to migrate to the Three Forks of the Kentucky River in the State of Kentucky, what is now called Owsley County, Kentucky. They made the trip like the Boones on horseback and pack mules and after crossing many high hills and precipitous mountains, they finally arrived at the end of their journey and made another addition to the few then comprising the settlement at the Three Forks of Kentucky River (where now the town of Proctor is located). Here for a short time they devoted their attention principally to hunting and farming and blazing out new lines of travel and while here in this wilderness home, on the 7th of March 1821, Isaiah's second son was born whom he named after his father, calling his son Samuel.

"The small colony became homesick and as the Indians quite often made dashes into the wilds of Kentucky in search of game and generally decorated their belts with more or less white scalps. This magnified their horrors and made them long for the flesh pots more than ever and on or about the fall of 1821 or in the spring of 1822, they pulled up stakes, packed their horses and mules and after a long, yet successful journey they arrived in Ashe County North Carolina where all settled anew. Some of those who returned to lament their choice, while others were only to remain, gather fresh courage and be off again

"A Smawl Travil of Jesse Grear"

"Then traveled on to the year of maturity under a tender father and mother and at 16 years old, I left my parents against their will, then serving the Devil was all my delight till the year 1800, then married Polly Morris who was born a daughter of Henry and Franky Morris on the 17th September 1787. Then went on in the Gall of Bitterness as tho there was no soul to save or to be lost til the year 1810 at the baptism of brother Benjamin. I began to think that my soul must dwell with the rich man. Then I betook my self to trying to pray for about ten months. But the Devil persuaded me it was so hard that I could pray no longer, but betook my self to cursing and swearing and drinking and all kinds of sin til the year 1814. Very gardless we went to meeting to the Oldfeel (Old Fields) meeting house but there was no ministry came to preach, but as they thought proper that they should sing and pray one of them began and as I set I saw a small child about twelve or thirteen years old crying as if he would breake her heart, and it seamed to strike me like a clap of thundeer, to think that God was at work with such small children and I still in the gall of bitterness then I went hence trying to pray but it oppressed to me that God would not hear my weak pertishion. I soon began to think that I had passed the day of grace and soon betook my self to my friends and to the people of God to see if they could give any conslation; but I had to go moving through the wilderness until 1815. I had been from home and on my return home some hour in the night I thought if I was lost, I would die a praying and as I was trying to pray, I thought that my Blessed Jesus meet with me and bid me not fear, then I went home rejoicing and praising God that I had been lost but now was found; and in the time to follow him my companion (his wife) got a hope that she had made peace with God and we was received in to the Baptist Church and was Baptised on the 4th Sunday in June 1815.

It is believed that this must have been copied by Jesse Greer, Jr. from the journal kept by this Jesse Greer. "The Jesse Greer Notebook"

Jesse married Mary Polly Morris [MRIN: 54812] on 17 January 1800 in Ashe Co, NC. Mary was born on 10 August 1788 in Wilkes Co, NC and died on 28 February 1880 in Todd, Ashe Co, NC at age 91.

Noted events in their marriage were:

- About the Marriage: Mary (Polly) Morris Greer's father lived on the Yadkin River at Holman's Ford. She was not quite 13 yrs. old when it became known she was to be married to Jesse Greer, Sr. and her father objected. Jesse and Mary decided to elope. Jesse approached the place where they were to meet at the river. Polly on one side of the river and Jesse on the other side. The water was deep, so Jesse made stilts and stilted, carrying his rifle, over to the other side of the river to get Polly. The bride to be, climed upon his shoulders and he turned and stilted back to safety.

10. Samuel Greer (*Benjamin, (Grier)*¹) was born on 28 November 1785 in Wilkes Co, NC and died on 20 April 1872 in Ashe Co, NC at age 86.

Noted events in his life were:

- Descendant information: Samuel Greer

Samuel Greer, son of Benjamin Greer and Nancy Wilcoxson, was born 26 November 1785 in Old Fields, North Carolina, and died in Ashe Co. 20 Apr 1872. He married Sarah (Sally) Church, daughter of Phillip Church and Sarah Hannah Andrews, possibly about 1820 since their first-born was in 1821; Sarah Sally Church was a sister of Jane "Jennie" Church, who married Joshua Greer, Samuel's brother and my ancestor. No bond survives for Joshua's marriage, but these are quite clearly incomplete for Ashe Co. Apparently Joshua married shortly after 1810 as he is first listed in Ashe Co. in the Census of 1820, aged 26-45, with a wife of the same age and 3 sons and a daughter under age 10. Since there are two brothers married to two sisters, it is possible there was a double wedding about 1810. Sarah "Sallie" Church was born in 1790 and died on 1 May 1860 in Shulls Mills, Watauga County, North Carolina. Phillip Church and Sarah Hannah Andrews were married in 1791. Philip Church was born 3 Dec 1767 at Lewis Forks, Rowan / Wilkes Co and died Aug 1859 in Ashe Co. He was the son of John Church. Sarah Hannah Andrews was born in 1775 in Avery Co.

The children of Samuel and Sarah, still alive in 1915, are identified in A History of Watauga as:

Elizabeth (Greer) Hendrix (1821 - ?) (94 in 1915) Finley Greer (1823 - ?) (92 in 1915)
William Riley Greer (b. 3 Apr 1824 - d. 24 Apr 1925) (90 in 1915); William Riley Greer married Francis T. Watson (b. abt. 1832 in Watauga Co.); William Riley and Francis had 3 daughters: Nancy Elizabeth "Betsy"

Greer (b. c.1850) who married John Alexander "Alex" Miller; daughter Louisa A.(Ann? born about 1852 - died after 1880 and before 1900 census) who was married (in the 1880 census) to John Richard Winebarger (son of John Jr. and Martha Castle

- Court Record: 6 September 1871, Ashe Co, NC Superior Court. COURT RECORDS

Ashe Co., NC, Superior Court ; William Blackburn & Others vs Wesley Gentry and Others, petition for sale of land for partition, Sept 6th 1871.

The petition of William Blackburn, Edmund Blackburn, John Blackburn, H.B. Blackburn, Hannah Campbell, Jonathan Miller & wife Rebecca, William Miller & wife Elizabeth, William Davis & wife Sally against Wesley Gentry, Elizabeth Gentry, James Gentry, Hamilton Gentry, Burgess Blackburn, Sunilda Blackburn, Emiline Blackburn, _____ Blackburn and _____ Blackburn. Respectfully showeth that Levi Blackburn late of Ashe County is dead leaving him surviving your petitioners and the defendants his only heirs at law and sole next of kin. That at the time of his death he was sized and possessed of a tract or parcel of land lying in Ashe and in Watauga Counties adjoining the lands of H. A. Dobbins, Wm. Howell and others containing two hundred and thirty six acres more or less which descended (?) your petitioners as tenants in common. That there is a valuable mill on said land and that from the (nature?) of the land the mill and the number and (commixion) of the parties of this suit to with the heirs actual partition of th land cannot be made with out material injury to the parties.

That Wm. Blackburn, Edmund Blackburn, John Blackburn, H.B. Blackburn, Hannah Campbell, Rebecca Miller, Elizabeth Miller and Sally Davis are each entitled to our tenth part of said land and taht Wesley Gentry, Elizabeth Gentry,

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

James Gentry and Hamilton Gentry heirs of Nancy Gentry are entitled together to one tenth share of the said land and that Burgess Blackburn, Sunilda Blackburn, Emiline Blackburn, _____ Blackburn and _____ Blackburn heris of Isaac Blackburn decd, are together entitled to one tenth part of said land and that James Gentry, Hamilton Gentry, Emiline Blackburn, _____ Blackburn and _____ Blackburn are minors and that the difendants are all now residents of this state.

Petitoners therefore pray that publication be made for secessive weeks in "The Mountain Messenger" a newspaper published in the town of Jefferson summoning the defendants to appear at the court house in Jefferson with in twenty days after the expiratio of the said weeks advertising and snsere the petition of petitioners. and giving them notice that unless they appear and answer with in that time the ptetitoners will be heard in part as to them.

Your petitioners further pray that you will order and decree that the land shall be sold on such terms you may decree just by some person who you may order and that the purchase money be divided among the parties acording to their respective interest. and that you will appoint some decent person to act as guardian and (?) for the infant defendants James Gentry, Hamilton Gentry minor heris of Nancy Gentry and for Emiline Blackburn, _____ Blackburn and _____ Blackburn to defend and assure for these in the (?)and grant all such other and further relife as the case may require . Notes:

Isaiah Wilcox had Myla Wilcox who married Henry T. Miller. Francis Marian Wilcox says in his journal, of 1897; A Journal Written By, Francis Marion Wilcox, 1897: This journal was found on the Johnson County, Tennessee Genealogy page and placed there by Mary Floy Katzman or on New River Notes, web site by Jeff Weaver.

As told by Francis Marion Wilcox:

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

"Grandfather Isaiah Wilcox was a man of about five feet ten inches tall, would weigh about one hundred and sixty five pounds at his fighting weight in middle age. He was fair complected and a good looking man, with straight black hair, blue eyes, shoulders a little stooped and as age came upon him he became more so. He was a man of rather slow speech, yet positive and firm when not roiled. Yet when his temper became aroused, his whole frame seemed set in motion and his tongue worked as though on a pivot."

"He was a man possessed of a quick temper, yet he controlled it in a becoming manner and if enraged, lie a troubled water he soon became smoothed down and was a pleasant as though nothing had disturbed his peace and quietude."

"In the days of his young manhood, he more than once was assailed by young bloods who desired to test his manhood. They offered insults and received blows until satisfied to say enough. He did not seed pugilistic engagements, yet accommodated those making a trespass on his good nature. Hiram, his second son by his second wife, Sarah Mullins, more fully represents his temperament in youth that I can (confirm) from his own descriptions of himself to me."

"He was fond of telling hunting stories..true, which were always patiently listened to by us boys and relished at all times. He possessed much good judgment and was able to give advice well calculated to benefit all." He wore a 7 1/4 hat in size, a number 15 collar, 37 coat and vest, pants 33 by 33, shoes number 9 and often 10. One of his favorite sayings in the pulpit was, "Sometimes Old Zade gets into very deep water and 'tis with much difficulty he wades out!" When attended by the Spirit in addressing an audience and when warmed up, he would invariably call them all "Children - Children". His prayers offered were such as seemed coming from the heart, made by groanings and utterings of the Spirit, yet destined to reach the Courts of Heaven, pierce the ears of a kind Savior, Jesus Christ, when he preached and plead for those lost by Adam's transgressions."

He was in politics a Republican, deep and dyed in the wool. He believed in one Government, one flag and one Constitution and a government for all. He died a poor man, yet it is often said to the writer that at death he would be as rich as those possessed of their earthly millions."

The second wife of Isaiah Wilcox was as stated before a Miss Sarah Mullins born March 1826 and daughter of one John Mullins". This record by Francis Marion Wilcox also gives the names of the children of this family and other information.

Source: "A Journal by Francis Marion Wilcox".

Francis Marion Wilcox writes in, "A Journal Written by Francis Marion Wilcox, 1897 and presented to the public by Mary Floy Katzman, and sent to Mary Katzman and Jeffery Weaver (Of New River Notes) by Bill Howe of Denver, Colorado.

Of Myla Wilcox the ancestor of the Miller/Weaver connection; he says the following: "Grandmother is interred in a family cemetery near Uncle Henry Miller's at what is known as Stagg's Creek, I believe a cemetery of North Fork near New River. Henry Miller married Magley Wilcox. Grandmother Wilcox was 66 years old when she died." Francis Marion tells us they had 12 Children: Dicy, William, Samuel, Jacintha, Arah, Myley, Sidney, Nancy, Matilda, Martha, Deborah and Annie. (Here he calls her Myley) (A child Martin is often been listed with this family, but there is no basis for it, that I can find)

He had 12 Children with first wife, Frances Fannie Greer and 10 with his second wife,

- Descendant information: 30 July 2012. Dorothy,

My wife and I met you at a Boone reunion several years ago. Sarah Boone Wilcoxson is her 5th great-grandmother.

I was wondering what you thought of the book "Boone Family to America 1670-1720" by Jim White. He takes the ancestors farther back than George Boone I. He has Marmande Boone born in France, his son John born in France, his son Robert born in England and his son George I born in England. Do you believe these are possible ancestors?

Also, there is an interesting picture of Samuel Wilcox (1821-1864) on Find A Grave. It was added in 2010. Samuel (son of Isaiah, son of Samuel, son of Sarah Boone Wilcoxson) and his father Isaiah are both buried in East Carter County Memory Garden in Grayson, Ky.

Obituaries

To the memory of Larkin Owens, deceased.

Brother Larkin Owens, was born October 31st 1804 and died May the 10th 1894, aged 89 years and 6 months.

He was a member of the Old Fields Church.

He is gone from all the troubles in this life, and is here mourned and we trust our loss is his eternal gain.

So farewell to our old aged brother. We will see him no more in this world.

God bless his children and friends till the judgement day.

Far from a world of sin and strife

He now enjoys a heavenly life

And joins to praise and shout and sing

And make the heavenly arches ring.

- He appeared on the census in 1840 in Wheelers District, Wilkes Co, NC.

- Descendant information - Sharon Buck: I sent you a note earlier about my quest for ancestor Sarah Boone and I had kept it simple thinking that might be best for a first contact... then I started thinking you might think I was a real lightweight waiting for you to show me the way so I thought I had best sent you a more complete summation. I have Sarah Cassandra Boone 1724-1815, sister of Daniel Boone, frontiersman, and daughter of Squire Boone and Sarah Morgan. She married John Wilcoxson 1720-1782, and I am descended from two of her children, Samuel Wilcoxson 1755-1825 and Nancy Wilcoxson. Samuel married Anna Jordan 1756-1840 and they had a son Isaiah Wilcoxson 1796-1879 who married Fannie Greer and had a son Rev. William Billy Wilcox 1818-1909 who married Lavina Baker Hatton and they had a daughter martha Mattie Wilcox 1861-1920 who was my maternal grandfather's mother. She married Albert T. Greer 1858-1930 and their son was Joseph Franklin Greer, my grandfather. 1880-1947. From Sarah's daughter Nancy 1745-1790 who married Benjamin Greer 1746-1816 they had a son John Greer 1770-1850 who married

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

Nancy Owens and their son was Elijah Greer 1806-1870. Elijah married Sarah Hawkins and their son was my great-grandfather Albert T. Greer who was my grandfather Joseph Franklin Greer's father. I hope these begats are not too big a muddle.

Anyway, I would like to find out more about this ancesotor Sarah Boone and her interesting family.

Sincerely,
Sharon Buck

*ntbl Samuel "Sam" Wilcox Mar. 7, 1821 Lee County Kentucky, USA
Death: Mar. 15, 1864 Paris Bourbon County Kentucky, USA Samuel "Sam" Wilcox, a son of Isaiah and Fannie (Greer) Wilcox, was born in what is now Lee Co., KY on March 7, 1821. When he was 11 months old, his family moved to Ashe Co., NC, where his parents had lived previously. Samuel grew up in Ashe and married there on August 22, 1839 to Barbara Houck. In 1850, Samuel and Barbara moved their family to Pike Co., KY, where they remained until 1862 when they moved further north to Carter Co., KY. In Carter County, Samuel and Barbara established their home on a stream called Deer Creek. In October, 1862, several months after moving to Carter County, Samuel and his son, Francis Marion Wilcox, enlisted in Co. D of the KY Mounted Infantry, Union Army. While in service, Samuel contracted pneumonia and died at Paris, Bourbon Co., KY on March 15, 1864. In 1893, Samuel's son, Francis Marion Wilcox, recorded in a journal the following description of Samuel Wilcox: "Father, about February 1st, 1864 took pneumonia fever while in camp. I had him took to a Mrs. Sarah E. Howells where we had been having our rations cooked then went for Dr. Hopson of Paris, Kentucky. He treated him for about three weeks. Father was on the mend but being removed then to the hospital, the doctors changed. He took a relapse and after a severe illness on the night of March 15, 1864 at about fifteen to ten o'clock, he breathed his last. arriving at the end of life's journey at age of forty three years, no months and eight days. On the 16th he (in charge of Comrade James M. Clay) was* started home for burial where he arrived on or about the 22 of March being interred on a mound northeast of the old home on Deer Creek, Carter County, Kentucky at a site named by himself to me on his deathbed. His knowledge and reason remained good until the last day of his life. He knew his end was drawing near and sent word to Mother and the little ones at home so soon to behold him sleeping in death, he who had so recently parted from them in such high hopes of meeting them soon again." "Father was six feet and one-half inches tall, large and rawboned, long arms, long fingers. He was rather commanding in appearance, black hair and blue eyes, rather good looking, wore #16 collar, 7 1/4 hat, #11 size shoe on account of a corn - one too large (size 10 a better fit). He wore size 40 coat, pants 36 x 36. He would weigh about 175 lbs in the summer and 180 to 185 in the winter. He was good natured among us kids, would quarrel sometimes (considerably) yet seldom used the rod. No doubt he would have got along better if he had applied it more and done less talking which no doubt his children learned to their satisfaction. He was charitable and not inclined to pain their minds. To sum up in a few closing words on the whole matter about our dear father, we must say he was a man possessed of a good mind, had a generous heart and a soul very large - enough to reach out towards suffering humanity and extend a charitable hand to those in distress wherever found. While a resident of Pike County, Kentucky during the twelve years he

- Descendant information: 30 July 2012. Dorothy,

My wife and I met you at a Boone reunion several years ago. Sarah Boone Wilcoxson is her 5th great-grandmother.

I was wondering what you thought of the book "Boone Family to America 1670-1720" by Jim White. He takes the ancestors farther back than George Boone I. He has Marmande Boone born in France, his son John born in France, his son Robert born in England and his son George I born in England. Do you believe these are possible ancestors?

Also, there is an interesting picture of Samuel Wilcox (1821-1864) on Find A Grave. It was added in 2010. Samuel (son of Isaiah, son of Samuel, son of Sarah Boone Wilcoxson) and his father Isaiah are both buried in East Carter County Memory Garden in Grayson, Ky.

Noted events in her life were:

- Descendant information - Sharon Buck: I sent you a note earlier about my quest for ancestor Sarah Boone and I had kept it simple thinking that might be best for a first contact... then I started thinking you might think I was a real lightweight waiting for you to show me the way so I thought I had best sent you a more complete summation. I have Sarah Cassandra Boone 1724-1815, sister of Daniel Boone, frontiersman, and daughter of Squire Boone and Sarah Morgan. She married John Wilcoxson 1720-1782, and I am descended from two of her children, Samuel Wilcoxson 1755-1825 and Nancy Wilcoxson. Samuel married Anna Jordan 1756-1840 and they had a son Isaiah Wilcoxson 1796-1879 who married Fannie Greer and had a son Rev. William Billy Wilcox 1818-1909 who married Lavina Baker Hatton and they had a daughter martha Mattie Wilcox 1861-1920 who was my maternal grandfather's mother. She married Albert T. Greer 1858-1930 and their son was Joseph Franklin Greer, my grandfather. 1880-1947. From Sarah's daughter Nancy 1745-1790 who married Benjamin Greer 1746-1816 they had a son John Greer 1770-1850 who married Nancy Owens and their son was Elijah Greer 1806-1870. Elijah married Sarah Hawkins and their son was my great-grandfather Albert T. Greer who was my grandfather Joseph Franklin Greer's father. I hope these begats are not too big a muddle.

Anyway, I would like to find out more about this ancesotor Sarah Boone and her interesting family.

Sincerely,
Sharon Buck

Martha married Albert T. Greer [MRIN: 62169], son of Elijah Greer and Mary A. Shaw, in 1877 in Oldfields, Ashe Co, NC at lease sixteen children. *ntbl William "Bill" Wilcox Feb. 10, 1852 Pike County Kentucky, USA
Death: May 30, 1930 Carter County Kentucky, USA William "Bill" Wilcox was born on Robinson Creek, Pike Co., KY on February 10, 1852. He was a son of Samuel and Barbara (Houck) Wilcox. In 1893, William's older brother, Francis Marion Wilcox, wrote a journal in which he included the following humorous story regarding William's birth. The Wilcox family moved to Pike Co., KY in 1850 and for the next two years lived there on Shelby Creek. They "then moved to what is known as the Old Johnny Edwards place or High-House place. This house was made of hewn logs and was a full two stories high with an additional log structure used for a kitchen. There at this place, on or about February the 10th, 1852 our brother William was born and my blue game rooster met an untimely death that caused my tears to flow freely, yet brought me an appeaser in a silver quarter dollar presented to me by my Grandfather, Isaiah Wilcox. On account of this untimely taking of my game rooster and although paid for him, I could not relish our Bill or esteem him as a young baby brother for quite a while. Yet as time rolled on, we found our Bill to be a good boy and was glad that he had come to stay with us." When he was ten years old, William Wilcox moved with his family to Carter Co., KY, where they settled on Deer Creek. In 1875, William married first to Ellen Frances Heaberlin (1852-1895), a daughter of Samuel and Martha (Dickenson) Heaberlin. In about 1879, William and Ellen moved from Carter Co., KY to MN, where they remained for a short time before moving to Butler Co., IA by 1880. By 1881, William and Ellen moved back to Carter County, where he settled near his mother's home on Deer Creek. William remained there for the rest of his life. In 1895, his first wife died from tuberculosis, and in 1899, he married secondly to Anna D. Harris (1877-1941). Anna was a daughter of James A. and Elizabeth "Betty" (Salyers) Harris. Her brother, Joseph Harris, had married William Wilcox's oldest daughter, Lula, from his first marriage. William was a well-known carpenter and Holiness preacher in the Deer Creek area of Carter County. He died on May 30, 1930, at the age of 78. He was first buried in the Wilcox Cemetery on Deer Creek. In 1966, the graves from this cemetery were moved to East Carter County Memory Gardens, Grayson, KY. Family links: Parents: Samuel Wilcox (1821 - 1864) Barbara Houck Wilcox (1814 - 1893)*

- Descendant: 25 November 2011. Hi Dorothy! I apologize for the delay in replying to your email. I spoke with my grandfather yesterday and asked him about your question. He informed me that Arlie IS the son of William Westley Wilcox and Florence, but Thomas IS NOT the son of William Westley. He is the son of Florence's previous marriage to a man named Pink or Pickney Dula. My grandfather couldn't remember what the mans real name was he said they called him pink, he said his real name may have been pinkney or pickney. Later in life Thomas Dula was nicknamed "Lyin Tom" apparently he was one to stretch the truth quite a bit, and unfortunately he was an alcoholic and drank himself to death. All this information is from my grandfather Wilard Odean Wilcox, grandson of William Westley Wilcox Jr and Melvina Phillips. I hope this has helped you, if you have anymore questions please feel free to ask! I hope you have a great day!

Dear Crystal Jewell,

I am working on the descendants of Isiah Wilcoxson and Fannie Greer. I notice that with the second wife, Florence, (age 29) who is on the 1930 census with William Westley Wilcox you show three children. On the 1930 Census for Stony Fork, Watauga Co, NC there are children Thomas age 9; Arlie age 6; and Virginia age 1/12.

Looking at the 1930 census for Melvina who is now married to a Wiley Phillips it has her Wilcox children, Kermit age 14; Edna age 9; and Ruby age 6.

I guess I am trying to figure out if the Thomas age 9 and Arlie age 6 are the children of Florence by another marriage since it appears that William Westley and Melvina are together in 1924 or so. What do you think?

- Information from Gary Hodges: 20 November 2012. A great read. Cousin Vera married Ivan Church in 1929. Ivan was a son of Niley Church. Niley was a son of Eli Monroe Church. My great grandmother Sarah Louanza Church Baxter Davis was a sister of Niley Church. That's my by marriage connection to Vera. Now what are the chances that one of my maternal cousins would marry one of my paternal cousins. I know the answer, there are Greers in the woodpile (LOL). And since she is descended from Nancy Wilcoxson (Greer) who's granddaughter married Isaiah Wilcoxson (second cousin of hers). And am I reading this right that Vera's great-great grandfather was Fanny Greer's father? And Vera's great grandfather Franklin was Fannie's brother? This all is getting just too weird.

I think I mentioned that Vera helped make the quilt Elogene and I wrapped Leigh Ann and Paul in. That made the quilt double special since two of Leigh Ann's Wilcox (maternal) blood kin and two of her Church (Hodges paternal) blood kin worked on this quilt. I think one or two more paternal kin worked on it too. Definitely a family heirloom from both sides of my family, made with love.

Dorothy,

First I want to state I am a strict conservative Republican. I haven't talked much about my political leanings but you have guessed by now I am a conservative. We are on the same page. I could go on about my feelings about how our government should serve the people but I bet I would be preaching to the choir. I love the United States and swore to protect it with my very life. I want it to survive as the Republic our founding fathers, and our very ancestors, fought and worked so hard to establish. Just look at the papers of our founding fathers and see what their vision for the United States was. This Grand Experiment in government has been tampered with so much by leftist progressive socialist liberals so much that it is in peril of near total collapse. I will now dismount my soapbox.

When I first typed Baxter I meant Davis when I said after Jim Baxter died Maw married a Baxter. I missed that goof when I proof read my last message to you. Aunt Minnie was Maw's daughter from her second marriage to Martin Davis. I remember Maw went by Sarah L. Davis. I have no idea if she and Martin Davis divorced. From what I could tell, there was a close bond with Aunt Minnie. Uncle Earl Norris and Uncle IG Hodges would take Maw and Grandmother to visit Aunt Minnie often. I remember going to visit her a few times during the 2 ½ years I lived with Grandmother and Maw.

GGFather Jim Baxter's death date of 1888 was given to me by a family member on a list of family members and dates. I didn't ask for a clarification on the inconsistency on this date from the family member who sent the information to me. Not having Grandmother Hodges death certificate I was not sure of the 1891 birth date this member gave me. It is very obvious that one of the dates is wrong Jim Baxter d 1888, Mary Baxter b 1891. Jim's death should be sometime between 1891 and before 1895. Maw had re-married to Martin Davis before Aunt Minnie was born in 1895.

I never heard of Maw having any other children but I notice a Mattie Baxter and Nancy Davis on the list of people buried in the small cemetery next to our Hodges family home. I attached this list. It was wrote by my Grandmother Mary Louisa Baxter Hodges. There are several children on the list and I vaguely remember at least one grave stone with a little lamb on top. I recognize several surnames from the Mabel community of Watauga. As I said, I haven't been to this cemetery since the 50s. I did notice there were only two Davis names on the list. I noticed only two Davis names but one says Aunt Martha Davis. Now this may be in reference to a sibling of Martin Davis. Grandmother Hodges wrote the list and could have been calling her Aunt even though there probably was no blood relation. I also see on the grave name list that Aunt Minnie Davis Thompson may have had a child die at or near birth. Grandmother wrote "Minie Thompson a baby". This was definitely not Aunt Minnie Thompson herself. By the time I moved to the Hodges family home the cemetery was no longer used. By the looks of things it hadn't been used in decades. Mabel Methodist Church had established a newer cemetery by then. That cemetery is sometimes called the Mabel Methodist Church cemetery and sometimes the Moretz cemetery. Grandfather Isaac Hodges is buried there, along with his parents and other family members, and his death certificate lists the cemetery as "family".

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

There is no cemetery at or very close to the Mabel Methodist Church.

I am continuing to feel better and that's a big plus with all the things we are trying to put in place with the purchase of another house. Elogene is doing most of the work. It is fortunate she is home all the time and can do that. If she had a job outside the home it would be much harder. I can't do a lot during the day, working 26 miles away, across the water, and not able to drop things to take care of the next thing that comes up. Buying a house now is much harder than it was 34 years ago. Either that or realtors do much less than they used to. It seems that most every day something new crops up and Elogene has to take care of another detail we never heard of when we bought our present home. Leigh Ann and Paul will have it real easy moving into our present home. All they will have to do is transfer utilities over to their name. Elogene and I will still own the house, for an extended time. Leigh Ann and Paul don't have the credit history to assume the loan at this time.

When you look at Eli Church in a census after 1860 you might find a 'funny'. A Church cousin told me his occupation was listed as 'housewife' in a census. Now there is a story behind that. Eli's CW record shows he deserted a time or three, only to come back to the unit he was assigned to. Now this was not uncommon for Confederate soldiers to take an 'unauthorized leave of absence' and go back home to take care of things. Eli served in East TN and NC only. One story is that during one of his absences Eli wore a dress and bonnet whenever he went out of the house. Well this was an unsuccessful ruse and all the locals knew it. Seems the census taker that year knew of Eli's penchant for disguising himself and possibly as a joke he listed his occupation as 'housewife'. I have not seen the actual census page myself. Seems the more I dig the more unusual information I am given.

Many Confederate soldiers, especially conscripts like Eli Monroe Church, didn't have strong feelings of patriotism for the Confederacy. This was especially true in very rural areas where the people had as few dealings with government as possible. Their primary loyalties were to family. Many didn't buy off on the notion of the Confederacy. They just wanted government to keep its nose out of their lives and business. The idea of fighting to preserve slavery was foreign to most rural folk. I believe I saw that there were fewer than 100 slaves in all of Watauga or Ashe Counties in 1860. Besides, the whole myth of the War of Northern Aggression being fought to preserve the institution of slavery was cooked up by Ole Linkom and his cronies. That subject could get me going off on a tangent that would be hard to reign in. Don't get me wrong, I think slavery of any kind is terrible and an abomination. I am not defending it in any shape or form.

Boy how things have changed. The federal government now has its whole body in every ones business, not just its nose. That old way of thinking about keeping government out of your business may be part of the reasons why I can't find death records for some of my ancestors. They didn't think it was necessary to record deaths with the courthouse. Everyone knew why they died and there was no question of foul play with their deaths. They were buried in marked graves in family cemeteries. The government didn't need death certificates to prove death. County officials knew everyone and knew the reason they died, sickness and old age for the most part. With everyone now enrolled in one or more federal program the government wants to know everything.

I know you are looking at the Church family but I just remembered a bit of Hodges information I haven't shared with you. Grandfather Isaac Hodges had a twin brother Alex. This was sent to me by my second cousin Anita Green, the daughter of my first cousin Betty Jean Norris Green. Betty Jean's mother was my aunt Ruth Hodges Norris. His birth date is the same as listed on Ike's, on Ike's death certificate. I hadn't heard of that twin brother till just a few years ago. I am not familiar with the cemetery Anita talks about.

On Tuesday after work I went to north fork ridge in search of more info on (Ikes) twin brother. I found a small cemetery and all but 1 grave is marked by a plane stone no names or dates, the 1 stone reads Alex Hodges Born Aug 12, 1881-- Sept 18, 1899. I remember my grandmother saying he was killed by a tree in a logging accident. Anita.

Take care and tell Bob hello.

Dorthy,

I am feeling better today and my stomach has calmed down a lot.

Great Grandmother Sarah (Maw) was first married to James Solomon Baxter.

Their child was my grandmother Mary Louisa Baxter Hodges (1891-1979).

GGFather James Solomon Baxter-Born 9/22/1868-Died 3/5/1888 (death date incorrect) was Maw's first husband. I got his death date from a family member but they must not have seen the inconsistency on Grandmothers birth year. Both her birth year and Jim Baxter's death date were on the same paper I was sent by family. By the way, Jim didn't fly the coop, he kicked the bucket (LOL). I am glad that you do have this information. We know he must have died after at least Minnie was born in 1895. 1900 census says that there were 3 children 2 living.

After Jim Baxter died Maw married a Baxter. Do mean DAVIS here? Never heard his first name. They had one daughter Minnie Mabel Davis-Born 11/16/1895. Family members said Davis treated grandmother poorly and Maw ran him off. Never heard any good things about the man and I have no idea when she ran him off. I do remember Aunt Minnie well. She looked a lot like grandmother and was a very kind person. She married a Thompson. I just looked at Maw's death certificate and found Mr. Davis's first name, Martin. Never noticed this before. I have not gotten a copy of Grandmother Mary Hodges death certificate. I have copies of Grandfather Isaac Garfield Hodges and GGMother Sarah but not Grandmother. It was on the death certificate that I found the name Martin Davis and he was still living at that time, I think. I will look again.

Maw had a very unusual middle name, Louanza, and I checked the spelling more than once. Three sources, including her death certificate, have this spelling. GGGrandmother Church's first name was Louisa and this was grandmother's middle name. Attached is a photo of Eli and Louisa Church., one of their sons Abner (Uncle Ab) and grandmother Mary. I found this photo in my dad's belongings. I love Grandmothers hand on her grandmother's shoulder. I have some photos of Sarah L. and she looked a lot like her mother in her later years. My Aunt Betty Ruth Hodges Norris and her daughter Betty Jean Norris Green favor Grandmother in that picture. Favor is an old country term I have heard for ages to describe looking a lot like.

Now most of us called GGMother, Sarah, Maw. I have no idea why. The only close family member I remember calling her by any other name was Grandmother Hodges. She called her Mama. Even her grandchildren and great grandchildren called her Maw.

I think I told you stories about GGFather Jim Baxter, that he was involved in the killing of a TN sheriff, or deputy, and the circumstances of his death were in dispute. Jim Baxter was in a jail in TN, probably Johnson Co, and the inmates escaped. During the escape a sheriff or deputy was killed. Some said it was Jim and others said it was not. He was not pursued across state lines. One story says he was a supply wagon driver and for years after the escape he would go back and forth in and out of TN regularly. He died at a young age. One tale is he passed out drunk in the front yard after a night of drinking. It came a frost and he contracted pneumonia which he succumbed to. The other story is there was a malady spreading through the area and he caught it and died. Don't remember what it was. Might have been the flu or typhoid. He is buried in a small cemetery on a hill above and to the right of my grandparents home in Mabel NC. This is the same cemetery Eli and Louisa Church are buried in. I have not been to the cemetery in many decades and never paid attention to more than the name of GGFather Jim Baxter's grave marker. Most all the markers were in poor shape the last time I was there, probably in the mid to late 50s. We kids thought graveyard were very spooky. I think I need to study this paragraph more and then I will write you.

It seems quite a bit of the country has been under a cold spell. Today is supposed to get in the high 40s her on the VA coast and near 70 tomorrow.

Now I hate to mention it, but the widow of one of Eli Church's granddaughters-in-law said Eli was born out of wedlock and his father was not really a Church. I didn't hear of this till I got in touch with this lady, Vera Church. I contacted the small country church that our Church and Hodges family attended and the pastor got me in touch with her. Vera told me a few things about Eli and family. I also contacted one of her sons, Nolan, and we shared information. One Vera's nephews, another cousin of mine, researched some of my family and found out I was related to Vera by blood, not just marriage to a cousin. We share McGuire ancestry. McGuire is a maternal family line. Now if Eli was really a Church it may be true I am my own cousin. One of Yankee John Church's granddaughters, Nancy, married my third great grandfather Richard McGuire. Their son Robert T. McGuire was my GGFather. Now Richard married another of Yankee John Church's granddaughters Fanny Church. It seems Nancy died shortly after giving birth to Robert T. That made his second cousin Fanny his step-mother too. Church on my father's side and McGuire and Church on my Mother's side.

I am working on this CHURCH side of the family at the moment. Thank you for this infor and I will see where it all comes out.

Have all the census work recorded and ready to put in database. Then I will send you what I have.

Now all these family lines came from two adjoining Northwestern NC counties, Ashe & Watauga.

Take care.

Hi Gary,

Sorry to hear that you are not feeling well. I know about those embarrassing situations, having been there a couple of times myself.

It is good that you do have the sick time available. Bob was always like that. He didnot use any time unless it was absolutely necessary and that is a good thing.

I forgot that you were moving so close to where you now reside, so that does make the move easier but I can understand about having valuables and trying to live at one house or the other. I guess you would want to have the house ready to move in and sleep there and then move the guns the day that you will no longer be at the old house. Pack them where they cannot be identified and then unload through the garage if possible. Actually I am not one to give advice on protecting valuables. No matter what I have done some how or the other, we always managed to get robbed. Most of the time it has been inside jobs. Such a long story I will save it. You do lead a interesting and active life and that is good. I would guess that you would love participating in the competitions even if you did not win. Although I do not know anything about guns I am a strong proponet for the rights to own and have guns.

Those of us who have a long lineage of very Early Americans certainly believe in the rights that were given us by the Constituion.

It appears to me that most of the Socialist are those that have come to our shores about 1900 and now want to make the US look like the place they came from.

And OBAMA is the worst. Well, I am a staunch Conservative and do belong to the Republican Party. I joined the Mantea Republican Womens group last year and intend to work as hard as I can to see OBAMA out.

There are so many issues that the real public do not know about, probably due to the fact they pay little attention to the daily comings and goings of what is happening in Washington. I spend a lot of time writing our Congressman, for all the good it does.

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

I was working on your Sarah Louise Church Baxter line back in December. Had to go look at it this morning. I did not get very far with the research. I think I must have left it for someone else. In any event it looks to me that perhaps Sarah was not married to James Baxter or else that he must have flown the coop before the last daughter was born. I had completed the census work for Eli Monroe Church from 1870-1900 and on the 1900 census Sarah L. is referred to as Church. I will try to work on this a bit more today.

Bob has to go have a chem panel done and wants to go get it over with so he can go on to next. He needs to have a MRI and they want this blood work before the MRI. It has warmed up to 37 degrees so might as well face up and get outside. I will write more when I have a chance to gather a few more details regard Sarah L. Church Baxter Davis, which is the way her death certificate refers to her.

Hope you are feeling better today.

Dorothy,

Pardon me for not replying sooner. I have been fighting an intestinal problem for a few days and had to leave work early yesterday. I think it is just a mild bug but is still uncomfortable and I would up in an embarrassing situation. Won't expound on that. I have ample sick leave so it was just a matter of telling my boss I was leaving sick and filed a sick leave request this morning.

We had an invite to go to a friend's house for New Years. It was a house warming party and people could come and go as they pleased. The hosts were planning on a midnight celebration if any guests were still there. Elogene went out to buy a house warming gift and the streets and parking lots were jam packed. She came straight home and we decided to stay off the roads the rest of the time.

The closing date for the house keeps getting pushed back. It is now 3 February. There are several structural issues that need to be addressed before the house can pass inspection. The bank is agreeing to fix problems but one at a time. The latest issue was not even checked out by the bank till Tuesday, the original closing date. When all the big problems are fixed the house will be in great shape. We will still have to take care of some minor things but we have friends who will help with the ones I don't feel competent to take care of myself. I am not comfortable tackling repair work I am not familiar with. I can do the work under supervision of someone who knows what to do. When we did the renovations at the church I did a lot of stuff for the first time but we had competent electricians, plumbers, woodworkers, and such who told us what to do. I did a lot helping the electrician. We were blessed that one of our members is a licensed master electrician. He works for the local sanitation department so didn't take business away from local electrical companies. We also have competent plumbers and woodworkers who knew just what and how things needed to be done. We only contracted out replacing some windows and the flooring in the children's wing. The rest we did ourselves.

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

Packing up things will be an adventure. Good thing is they only need to be packed up good enough for a 5 mile journey. We will also have plenty of time, hopefully, to get the place ready in plenty of time to turn our existing home over to our baby girl. The first thing is to clean and paint the place. Elogene has worked up a plan that sounds good. We will also have time to bring stuff from one home to another a little at a time until the critical things need to be moved. I will take time off from work to do some of that. I have the use of a small trailer to haul stuff to the new place and can also put things in my pickup truck. The neighbors told me they have a neighborhood watch and the next door neighbor said she will keep an eye on the place during the transition. I think she is one of those neighbors who notices everything in the area. That's a good thing, actually. Our current next door neighbors keep an eye out on our current house too. One couple moved in a month before we did and so we know each other very well. Both sets of next door neighbors are retired so there is someone around all the time to watch over the neighborhood. They won't hesitate to call the police if they think something is amiss. They both know us well enough to tell if something is not right.

One of the biggest concerns we have is getting my firearms collection in the house without the new neighbors knowing about it. The less they know about our valuables the better. I don't need to broadcast having so many valuable firearms in the house. Neighbors will see me bringing a few firearms in and out of the house for competition shooting and such but they don't need to know just how many I have. I have only told a few select friends just how extensive my collection is. Most are WWI and WWII military firearms and this is my main area of concentration. I don't have any full auto firearms in the collection. Too expensive to collect and I don't have any place to shoot any full auto ones. There are only three firearms in my collection I won't shoot at all. Doing this would drop their value by hundreds of dollars. Two have not been fired since they were proof fired at the manufacturer and the third only fired a bit. Every man needs a hobby and I chose military firearms and accessories to collect. I don't hunt but do shoot some firearms in competition. I tell people I am not a great competitor, just a participant.

I have only won one individual shooting medal and that was third place with a WWII M-1 Carbine at the 2007 Nationals at Camp Perry OH. Each person who shoots a certain score gets a medal. They break it into three score ranges. I managed to shoot in the range to qualify for a bronze medal that year. I missed a bronze medal with the Springfield rifle by 5 points and a bronze with the M-1 rifle by 6 points in 2007. I haven't been able to afford to go back since. With my CW shooting I have won numerous team medals over the years. We have eight person teams and each member gets a medal if we come in high enough in competition. One year I was on the first place "B" team in our national competition. Each team puts their best eight shooters on the "A" team, the next best eight on the "B" team and so forth. "A" teams compete against each other and so do the "B" teams, etc. You have to be the best team in your category to win first place. I have shot on winning "A" teams a few times but never at our national matches. Team shooting is a lot of fun and I belong to a great team. We might not win a lot but have fun participating.

People in shooting competition are a great bunch overall. Most are honest and willing to help each other. The same seems to be the case with most all kinds of competitive sports. People are like minded and share the same values. People on our team willingly help each other out and share most everything when we go to shoots. This is especially true when we camp out at shoots. When I go to shoots by myself I get all kinds of offers to eat with families who are cooking for their bunch. I occasionally take them up on their offers. And I willingly share with others. I have been making morning coffee for one guy for years. I make enough for both of us in the mornings and deliver him a cup to his camper. It isn't much but this is just one example of sharing and taking care of one another. We become like family over the years. Let one person have problems with their camper and a squad of helpers appear to work things out. There is enough experience around to figure out most every problem. We have all had a similar problem over the years.

Speaking of health, I am glad we can still get around and do most everything we want to. Elogene and I have been blessed with good health, so far, though both of us are in our early/mid 60s. We can still take long trips and this will be beneficial this year. We plan on making numerous trips to shooting matches, a trip to WV, and of course that long trip to IL. We may be worn out by the end of the year. I wish I could fit in the Boone Society convention in TN this year but can't see how to do it. Hopefully I can go in future years. I hope Bob will be healthy enough to make the trip to Lost Wages this year. I have thought a time or two about going there. I have family there. One of my first cousins on the Wilcox side lived there and his widow and kids still live there. They have invited us to stay with them but the trip is a long one and we don't know the family that well. The cousin was one of those much older than I am and never knew him much at all. Kind of like the first cousin who was older than Mother. I sued to stop by the local Ford dealership and say hello to him occasionally but never socialized with him.

It would be interesting to find out more on the Hodges side but it seems that is one line where there is not much information available. My GGFather Baxter and his family would be even harder to find information on. I have quite a bit of information on the Church, Wilcox, Boone, and McGuire families so I should be thankful for that. Having families who came from England and Ireland a long time ago, I find it fascinating just how long my roots stretch back in America. And Elogene's roots stretch back a long way too. Her first American Wooten ancestor had land so close to our present and future home she could possibly toss a rock on that land. I have friends who don't have much American heritage and they are surprised at how long my families have been in America. One very good friend is a first generation American. His parents came from Italy in the early 1900s and settled in Virginia. Take care.

We did have a quiet New Year. The older one gets the less it means to stay up and wait for the New Year. It has been many years since we have gone out on New Years eve. So many people out there and in our town we really do not have great restaurants, just common everyday type and they don't stay open til midnight either. You really do have a busy schedule ahead of you. I imagine that Elogene is going to be busy packing. After living in one house so long that is a real chore and then unpacking and getting settled.

Enjoy all the activities that you can while you are still young enough and your health is good. Reminds me of Bob when I first met him. He fell Jan 2008 and broke a small bone in his left hip. All went well with the surgery but the floor nurse did not understand that it was not pain meds that he wanted. He was given another dose of Morphine and ended up in the hospital 2 months and 2 days. He has never been the same and since the hospitalization right before Thanksgiving he has not even been able to go out and do his chores. More about Bob later. Hoping that he will be able to make the planned two week trip to Vegas on the 19th of January.

I have some intriguing information that I have found on the Hodges line but wish I could find the father of Samuel Hodges who married Freelove Mullins.

I know that you are off work now but Bob had two Dr. Appts this morning and it was about 12:30 when we got home and then I got to babysit. Jennifer and Mike wanted to go do something.

Dorothy,

I hope you and yours had a good new year. We stayed home and went to bed before midnight. All three of us were suffering a bit with sinus problems. Weren't bad sick, just a bit uncomfortable. We bowed out on a party we were invited to. I will get with the SAR chapter guy sometime this week. I think I have all I need. Pat thinks John & Sarah were not at Fort Boonesborough when it was attacked. She has her ideas and research on that. We will see if the SAR still considers their service as acceptable. I see that one man joined the SAR under John's name but don't know if it is our John Wilcoxson.

The bank finally decided to fix the majority of the problems with the new house. We are still pushing for a couple they are not wanting to do. We have an electrician going to the house to inspect it this morning. The bank hired their own but we want a second opinion. Our church pastor said he would help me with the plumbing issues if the bank won't get them fixed. He is a jack of all trades when it comes to home repair and renovations.

Pastor Chris's talents came in handy when we finally got our own building. We are a plant church of the one my family went to for 25 years. When we left the parent church building we "wandered" around for over five years. We met in various places including a local school, a dance school, and another church. One of the local churches in our association folded and the facility went to the association. We were the association's plant church in the area and were given the facility free of any debt. It took us several months to renovate the building. It was old but structurally sound. It did need a lot of renovation to make it look nicer. The former congregation was very small and most members were too old to do much maintenance on it. We did most of the work ourselves and you would be surprised how much fresh paint and new bathroom fixtures helped out. We also changed some interior rooms and the sanctuary quite a bit. We had quite a bit of funds in our accounts and got help from the association. We stopped work when we ran out of money. We vowed to not go in debt for renovations. That is no way for a newly established church to go. The facility was already clear of any debt so we are living within our means. This is both practical and Biblical.

This year will be a challenge. We have so much going on in 2012. I even got an invite Friday to go to yet another reunion. My best friend is the secretary/treasurer of a WWII destroyer division association and he invited me to their reunion in DC this year. His father was a member of the division in WWII and took over the offices a few years ago. Children of the veteran members have taken over a couple of offices in the association. Those WWII Veterans are passing on and family members are stepping up to the plate to honor their fathers. I went to their reunion two years ago in Greensboro NC and had a ball. Those vets and their wives love the attention from shoes who appreciate their sacrifice. And being a Gulf War veteran, they definitely felt a connection with me. My dad and one of this brothers served in the Army during WWII.

When I look at my calendar for this year I see there is no way I can go to all the functions I would like to go to and participate in. The first priority is moving to the other house, getting the old one ready for our daughter, my competition shooting season, the wedding, and working at the fall competition as one of the host teams. The spring and fall national shoots are put on by teams in the association and we are tasked on a rotational basis. It takes at least eight teams to run a national shoot. There are so many individual and team competitions packed into four days. Host teams have to get everything ready for the matches and run them. We use breakable targets for team matches so all the targets have to be prepared well in advance and put in boxes for the teams shooting.

Our association has so many different matches at national events it is almost overwhelming. Most all kinds of firearms used in the CW are included. We have individual matches for some firearms and team matches for most all of them too. It is fun to see the mortar and cannon matches. It is even more fun to be on a mortar and/or cannon crew. Nothing like seeing 20 cannons lined up on a firing line, shooting at targets 200 yards away for accuracy. I am a fair shot with the rifle and carbine and an enthusiastic member of our cannon crew.

I will get back with you later.

Wishing you and your family a Happy New Year and also working on the Hodge/Hodges family this morning.

Just wondering if you had found what you need to become a SAR?

Have a good day.

- Information - regard descendants: 14 December 2011. Wendy our older daughter (35) won't be getting married. She is the handicapped one living with us. Leigh Ann (29) our baby doesn't have children yet but she and her beau plan on starting a family soon after they get married and move back to Newport News. Leigh Ann is kind of like her Grandmother Jean Wilcox Hodges. Mother didn't get married till she was 27 but she and dad didn't live together before marriage. Leigh Ann and Paul have lived together for four years or so. We are not happy about that but she is an adult and it's her life. At least they know what they are getting into having lived together so long. They were "unofficially" engaged for over two years before Paul popped the question and give her the ring.

Subject: RE: Hello and a couple of questions
Dorthy,
Thanks for the kind thoughts for our family. We had a good visit with my wife's family. The Christmas party Saturday evening went well. All my mother-in-law's children were there, most of the grandkids, and many of her great-grandkids. They counted 35 out of 43 who were invited including the spouses. No arguments, no children knocking over things, and no children crying. Nice and festive. Elogene's brother had a slide show of every photo he could get his hands on including the two engagement pictures our baby sent him. I found a few old ones of Elogene and me a bit embarrassing. I had long hair then and he even dug up one of me in a blue polyester leisure suit. That one was nearly 40 years old. Elogene's older brother said that was nothing. He still had two of them from 40 years ago and would still wear them if he could. He has gained some weight over the years.
My mother-in-law converted her home heating to propane heaters in two rooms and quit using the oil fired floor furnace. That was nice since it eliminated the fuel oil smell that had permeated the house in the winter. The smell bothers our respiratory system, especially Wendy's. She has asthma. And the house was not baking hot for a change. We took our time driving down to NC. We made several stops for food and a bit of shopping. We stopped at my favorite BBQ place, a mom & pops restaurant in NC that makes the best Eastern NC style BBQ I have ever eaten. This style uses pork shoulders, is chopped and pulled with a vinegar based sauce with no tomato in it. On the way back home we stopped there gain so I could pick up a couple of pounds for a feed at work and one for us at home.
Traveling down on Friday and coming back Monday the traffic was not bad. And the weather was nice. When we passed the turn off to Mocksville NC, while traveling US-421, I thought of our Boone family. Our 6th great grandparents, Squire Boone Sr. and his wife Mary are buried in Mocksville and John and Sarah had a home there. One day I will have to make a side trip there to see the graves and maybe find the home. The last I heard John & Sarah's home still stands, very much added on to and renovated, but the old log home still exists.
My brother-in-law Charles gave his siblings a copy of the Wooten family research he and a distant cousin did. This surname has a few different spellings. During the CW the family used the spelling Wootten and this may have been the old English spelling. One of the ancestors was a Confederate infantryman from Georgia who was held at Camp Douglas, at Chicago, and is buried in the mass grave of Confederate soldiers who died there. There are around 6000 Confederate soldiers buried in a mass grave in Oakwood Cemetery in Chicago. Over 4000 are identified buried in a mass grave in Oakwood Cemetery in Chicago. Over 4000 are identified on a series of bronze plaques at the memorial site. Elogene's ancestor is one of those identified on the plaque. It seems in each family there is at least one person who wants to research their line. I am glad Charles is doing this for the Wooten and Brown families. Our girls will have information for both their parents ancestors.

Take care. I hope Bob's doctor visit went well. Elogene's mother, who is 81 years old, had a checkup yesterday and the doctor said she was stable and didn't have to come back for six months. She has numerous medical issues but is able to get out and about with help from family members. Portable oxygen supplies are really great, as she is on oxygen constantly.

Subject: RE: Hello and a couple of questions

Dorothy,

I did see one thread that Sarah was buried in Joppa cemetery but when I contacted a local historian she said all graves in that cemetery were identified and Sarah was not on the list. I tried to find out about John's grave in Rowan but have not gotten any bites on my feelers. There was something I saw that said John died in the Battle of Blue Licks but if you look at the participants his name is not on the list. It is so easy to put something on the internet using hearsay as the only source.

My half brother Michael and I agree I actually had the better side of the bargain not growing up with dad around. He and I stopped sharing information dad told us quite a while back. I had one story and he had another, usually both lies, about things he told us. I found it ironic, in later years, mother and I lived with dad's mother and grandmother for 2 ½ years. I cherish those years, especially being with great grandmother Maw (Sarah). Mike was told total lies about his Hodges family and didn't meet any of them till dad's memorial service in Boone. I had the love and care of our grandmother and great grandmother. He had lies and all things blown out of proportion. I had two cousins across the road and we played together. Or I should say cousin Baxter Wayne played with me (my mind). He was a little trickster. He is 18 months younger than I. When we get together we joke at some of the tricks he played on me. We had the people in his business office rolling one time talking about all the tricks. They never knew their boss was such a stinker growing up. He is a bit of a trickster still but not to the extent he was as a kid.

Baxter Wayne had a pony and I wanted him to teach me how to ride it. Well he put the reins on it, threw a blanket over its back, helped me up and showed me how to use the reins. He then walked away. That pony needed a firm hand on the reins and I was nothing like that. The pony decided to go back into the barn. I couldn't stop it and in my panic I didn't notice the top of the barn opening was head high for me. You guessed it, my head hit the top post and off the back I went, right into a cow pile. I wasn't hurt much. His mother, dad's sister Ruth was furious, mother was concerned, grandmother Mary was mad, and Maw could hardly keep from laughing out loud. Aunt Ruth's husband Earl taught me how to ride that pony later on, I think after he could get near me and the pony together without having uncontrollable fits of laughter. It is funny now but wasn't funny to me then.

Grandmother Mary Hodges and Great-Grandmother Sarah Church Davis were such great influences on me as a child. In those 2 ½ years they showed me the love of Christ, love of family, charity, and acceptance of life's good and bad. Maw (Sarah) just adored her great grandkids. She was the essential little old white haired lady who wore those country bonnets whenever she went out. She was spry and had a memory like no other person in that part of the county. She was a certified source of information when people needed verification of family lineage and Social Security information. She could often remember even the weather the day someone was born. The only time I ever heard her say a cross word was when she was correcting her daughter, my Grandmother Mary. Maw dipped snuff and always had a spit can near her. Grandmother was another true saint. Two times mother had to go in the hospital for operations so Grandmother came to our house in Boone and took care of me and mother, after she got home from the hospital. Dad definitely didn't inherit his ways from wither his mother or grandmother. Might have inherited it from his grandfather James Solomon Baxter. I never heard any bad said about my grandfather Isaac Garfield Hodges either.

- Information: 28 December 2011, from Gary Owen Hodges. On my father's side my Church family had small country stores too. My great-great grandfather Eli Church ran a store and was the local postmaster on two occasions. I have the old stamp canceling press he had when he was postmaster at Mabel. The store was passed on down two generations and was finally closed when the local people got good enough transportation to get to Boone and shop in stores there. I remember Mother and I used to ride the Greyhound Bus to and from Boone on Saturdays. The bus ran past the house and you could wait on the side of the road for it to come by. We would wave and the bus would stop. It took us to the bus station that Mother's brother Herman ran. We would get back on the bus after shopping and ride it back to Grandmother Hodges home. All that ended when more 'country folk' got their own transportation. When mother and I moved to Boone it was nice everything was close enough to walk. Mother never learned to drive. Dad tried to teach her back in the early 40s and it never worked out.

Dad was teaching Mother to drive on a back road somewhere near Alexandria. Things were going OK till a car, coming in the other direction, came into their lane while passing another vehicle. Dad said there was plenty of room but it flustered Mother. She said "Owen, what am I supposed to do?" Dad said "hit him or miss him". Mother pulled over to the side of the road and never got behind the wheel of a car again. After moving from VA, mother only received money from dad sporadically for the first few years and could have never afforded a car anyway.

I love old country stores. I have fond memories of going to cousin D. E. Church's store. It was one of the centers of the local community. There was another country store in the area but they tended to keep different items. That way both survived and didn't have to play price wars. Cousin D. E.'s store was the focal point for local women who were making quilts. Those were plain ones and I have a couple that my great grandmother, grandmother, and mother worked on. They kept a huge quilt frame in a corner of the store, suspended from the ceiling. Women would sit around it and work on the quilt together. When one persons was finished they went on to the next one. The two I have were probably worked on by at least two cousins, besides the people I mentioned. The last time I checked, the building is still standing, an old cinder block structure, just across the creek from great-great grandfather Eli's home.

Take care and tell Bob hello for me.

Gary

- Leigh Ann's wedding: Cousin Dorthy, I will try to find the Facebook account of the photographers who took wedding photos. They have a lot of them posted already. Elojene has visited the site a few times but I am clueless about Facebook. The quilt ceremony is on there and a beautiful photo of the trees where the ceremony was held. After dark they put lights behind the cloth streamers and took photos of Paul and Leigh Ann standing in front. The nice thing is these photographers don't sell pictures, they give the people the photos on disks with a letter giving rights to them. Leigh Ann & Paul can use the digital photos any way they want. Leigh Ann knows the photographers well. They traveled the 175 miles from Moline to do the wedding and didn't charge extra for their travel expenses. Not even for their motel room. They are husband and wife and called the trip a getaway One of Leigh Ann's childhood friends from Newport News came to the wedding with her parents. She filmed the ceremony and this will be her wedding present to Leigh Ann & Paul. She is a professional who works for an area company that does that kind of thing.

The reception was held in the side yard so the peanut shells went on the grass. No cleanup needed. Wendy knew about the peanuts but was tickled Leigh Ann though about including them in the reception. They were in plastic bags, inside paper bags, with the shop sticker on the paper bag.

While driving on KY 9 we went past the Blue Licks battlefield exit. I thought about John Wilcockson and how he had mistakenly been included in one list of men killed in that battle. I have no idea how close to Boonesborough I was. KY 9 skirts the top corner of KY and is a good way to get to Huntington WV where we spent the night. Decatur, IL is kind of in the central part of the state. We went South East from East Moline to get there. It's other claim to fame is it was the first home of the Bears football team now in Chicago. It is a big city, in size, but didn't see any tall buildings there like in a metropolis.

There were around 125 people at the wedding. We all parked at a church parking lot near the house and the local fire department brought two golf carts to ferry people to and from the church. Paul's grandfather was the fire chief there, retiring several years ago, and the guys did this for the family. The road is not a main road but a winding residential road with houses scattered about. Not much traffic on the road. People got a kick out of the transportation arrangements.

I was surprised, at nearly 65 years, I managed to drive the 1022 miles in one stretch. Now the ten stops along the way helped a lot. My truck is comfortable and it didn't take a lot of thinking to stay on the right road. I made sure I took my time and stretched a lot at each stop. I remember driving to FL in my youth, only stopping for bathroom breaks and gas. Now the seven hour trip to Elogene's home wears me out. I tried to rest as much as possible yesterday from the 7 hour drive from WV. We did stop at a huge antique mall in Lexington VA. We stopped there last year and Elogene got a few things. This year there was almost no room for goodies. I had no room in the truck and Elogene relegated herself to a small antique oak framed mirror. Wendy got a couple of small Boyd's Bear animals she could keep in her lap. She collects anything Boyd's. I had the back of the pickup crammed full of household goods and my passenger side was full of things also.

I was accepted into the Sons of the American Revolution under Sarah Boone Wilcockson. I was supposed to be inducted into the local chapter, Thomas Nelson Jr., on the 16th of June. That's the day Leigh Ann & Paul wed. I will be inducted in the chapter in August.

I so enjoy our correspondence, getting to know a distant cousin and sharing family information. Not as much the genealogical information as our personal family lives. The internet has afforded us the opportunity to know each other so well. Distance no longer matters.

Cousin Gary,

What a wonderful story of this wedding. Written so well that I see it all in my mind's eye and it does help a bit that I have been to IL on several occasions, especially the Pike County area where the Boone/Elledge line lived in the early 1800's. I, like you, have no real desire to go back there, nor live there.

I think the Quilt Ceremony was a beautiful gesture to Leigh Ann and her husband Paul. When you ever get caught up with your time this is a story that could be shared with the Boone Society via COMPASS.

Wendy must have gotten a kick out of the 150 bags of -peanuts at the wedding since she worked in the Peanut shop. Must have been a slug of shells to clean up but such fun.

I know the 16 hour drive was difficult. Once in a lifetime I could do that but now at 5 hours I must Motel it until the next day. Hard to believe that I turned age 81 in May but still feel spry and get around very well. Thanks Be To God. If or when you ever get settled send a few pictures of the event. I know that it had to be a wonderful, beautiful wedding and that you are looking forward to having your daughter back home in your area.

I cannot tell you how much I would love to visit you but know that will never happen. Not sure why I feel so close to you and your family but I do. There are a few of the Boone cousins that have impacted me through these past few years and it is wonderful. I love all of you.

Your Cousin,

Cousin Dorothy,

Now that I am a bit settled in with returning to work after 9 work days off I have a bit of time to take a breath and get back to you.

We still have not finished up all the things with the new house. I have one major project to finish up, finishing the patch job in the wall of one bedroom. We still have a bit of stuff to move from the other house and some work to do on the old house before the new tenants move in.

Leigh Ann and her husband Paul will move in the old house the middle of next month. They are the new tenants. We have some repair and painting work to do on the house before then.

Leigh Ann & Paul's wedding on the 16th went fine. It was held at Paul's grandfathers house. The ceremony was in the back yard and the reception at the side yard. The house sits on over 3 acres and lots of great space for all the festivities. The ceremony was held in front of three trees that had a porch railing attached for looks. We, or should I say I, strung a wire in between the two outer trees and attached strips of cloth to it. It served as a backdrop for the ceremony. We had chairs for all the guests to sit in. We had one chair for Wendy, the maid of honor, to sit in during the ceremony. Wendy has CP and couldn't stand the entire time. After the wedding and a slew of pictures the reception began.

The reception was in a 40' X 60' tent in the side yard. They had tables for all and the guests brought their chairs up from the ceremony. Though it was quite hot the weather cooperated for the ceremony. Just as I was walking Leigh Ann down the aisle way the clouds rolled in accompanied by a nice breeze and a few rumbles of thunder. It did not rain. The clouds went away right after the ceremony. They had eight fans in the tent and with a breeze it was comfortable there. There were plenty of refreshments including drinks on ice to keep everyone cool. I brought 150 bags of Zuni Gourmet Peanut Shop peanuts for the guests. Leigh Ann planned this for Wendy. Wendy lived at the Zuni VA Presbyterian group home for over 8 years and worked in the Peanut Shop. All enjoyed the Virginia Gourmet Peanuts, salted in the shell. There was more than plenty of food for all. We brought back a lot of left overs to Leigh Ann & Paul's apartment in East Moline for them to consume. They planned on having a family meal with the left overs on Tuesday evening. Paul's parents, one sister and her family, another sister and her fiancé live in the area. Elogene, Wendy and I left Tuesday morning.

Elogene and I performed an old North Carolina ceremony for Leigh Ann and Paul. During the reception we wrapped them in a family heirloom quilt. The quilt was made by a group of ladies who used to congregate in my cousin Denver Earl Church's country store. Participants in making the quilt included my mother Jean Wilcox Hodges, grandmother Mary Baxter Hodges, great grandmother Sarah Church Baxter Davis, and my cousin Vera Byer Church. Vera is still alive at the young age of 101 years. Vera was married to a Church second cousin of mine but is blood kin on my Wilcox side. She is a descendant of John & Sarah Wilcockson. Church is one of my paternal family lines.

The people in IL had never heard of this traditional ceremony. Though the quilt is a bit tattered and at least 55 years old, it is definitely a family heirloom made by three generations of Leigh Ann's family and used by her Grandmother Jean and her parents for many years. Leigh Ann also used it on her bed growing up. Part of my toast to the Bride & Groom was a wish that they will wrap their children and grandchildren in that quilt. The tradition is not done a lot any more since heirloom quilts are few and far between, even in the mountains of NC.

Elogene, Wendy Leigh Ann and Paul had gone to East Moline IL the 4th of June. Several of Paul's family came to our area the week before for a wedding. Leigh Ann and Paul stayed with us for a couple of days and they went with Paul's family to WV for a short vacation. Elogene and Wendy went up there and picked Leigh Ann and Paul up for the trip to East Moline. I left for there, solo, on the 10th.

The solo trip of about 1022 miles was tiring though I did stop 10 times on the way and didn't get sleepy. Driving time was just under 16 hours. Coming back, Elogene and Wendy were in one car and I had my pickup loaded to the gills with household items for the bride & groom. We stayed one night in a motel in WV on the way back. I listened to talk radio the entire trip to and from East Moline. On the way back I kept up with the latest crap Obama and Holder are trying to pull. I had to run the AC full blast to keep from fogging up the inside windows. Steam was shooting out my ears. I think I have had my fill of seeing flat land and fields of corn or soybeans. Indiana and Illinois are big corn producers and Illinois is really big on soy beans. Decatur IL, where the wedding took place, is the self-proclaimed soybean capital of the world. This was the second June in a row we went to East Moline IL. Don't plan on going back there again since the newlyweds will be moving home next month. The area is nice but the drive is a killer.

I think I have rambled on enough for now. Time to do a bit more catching up. I took my lunch break composing this e-mail.

- From Gary Hodges: Cousin Dorthy,

I have looked for the information I had about the cabin in present day Boone and what little I retained suggests that the cabin belonged to a good friend named Howard. Now Howard's Knob in Boone is named for this family, possibly the same Howard who owned the cabin. Attached is a photo of the present monument erected near the location of this "hunting camp" cabin Daniel used in his forays from Wilkes into Watauga. The original monument erected by W. L. Bryan, see attached photo, was torn down when the street was widened many years ago. I want to say I remember seeing the original monument when I was a child. What happened to this original monument is a mystery. The present monument was built very close to the original site of Howards cabin. The property both monuments were/are on belongs to Appalachian State University. So this W. L. Bryan was a self-promoter? Seen his name with the title of Col stuck in the front.

Also attached is a photo of the Daniel Boone statue, also on the ASU campus, in front of the "duck pond". It is said Daniel never went hunting without his favorite dogs so they were included in the statue. Notice Uncle Daniel is not wearing a coon skin hat.

In looking at the route Daniel took from Boone NC into KY I was astounded to see so many familiar names. They are listed in the History I attached in the previous e-mail. Let's start with Hodges Gap. Probably not my Hodges family but still Hodges. From there on through Silverstone to Zionville and then to Trade TN. Now they forgot to mention that between Zionville and TN is the small community of Mabel. That's my Hodges/Church family stomping ground. Many of my family members are buried in either Mabel or Zionville.

My great-great grandfather Eli Church used to be the postmaster of Mabel. When it closed the postal district was incorporated into the Zionville district. Just as you cross the present NC/TN border you come to Trade. My Grandfather Grant Wilcox and Cornelia McGuire were married at Trade, snuck across the state line to get hitched. My parents, Jean Wilcox and Owen Hodges snuck a bit further across the state line and were married in Mountain City TN. Can't begin to count how many times I went across the state line, though Trade, and onto Mountain City to visit two of dad's brothers. My distant cousin Malcolm Greer (Nancy Wilcoxson & Benjamin Greer), who works at the same place I do has some property in Trade. His Greer family has been in that area of TN for ages. Now Nancy was both a multi great aunt and multi great grandmother of mine. Isaiah Wilcoxson's first wife was Frances Fanny Greer, my multi great grandmother, was one of Nancy's granddaughters. Yes there go the Greers in the family again. Isaiah married his own second cousin.

I am also familiar with the area of Wilkes Co where Uncle Daniel had cabins. One cabin was at Beaver Creek and my high school used to play football and basketball against Beaver Creek high in Wilkes. Looking at that chapter of the History of Western NC brings back memories of so many of these names and places I can identify with. Did Uncle Daniel traipse past the land my Grandfather Isaac Hodges built his home, across the little creek that ran past the road? And on the other side of the creek and a few hundred yards up the road is where my Church family lived. I know it is pure speculation but worth my thoughts.

My 5th great grandparents John and Sarah Wilcoxson built a log cabin on down the mountain in Rowan Co. The cabin still exists, though much altered and built around. I have some articles and photos about it. There is also a cabin in Ashe Co that is said to have belonged to Sarah Boone Wilcoxson. It is for sale for the paltry sum of $206,000. It is very small, much worked over, and has little land with it. It is behind a graveyard. I have the information on it somewhere in my data base.

Boone cabins, for ages the small cabin that sits in the Daniel Boone Native Garden was said to belong to Squire Boone Sr. A few years ago more research was done on it and the Boone association was found to be another tale. The cabin originally stood at Valley Crucis, in Watauga, and there is no record Squire Boone Sr ever visited Watauga, much less built a cabin there. Valley Crucis is definitely off the beaten path in Watauga. Have to be from Watauga to know this community even exists. The cabin has been re-identified as a style typical of the Squire Boone era and renamed Squire Boone Memorial cabin. I watched this cabin being put back together and have stood in it many times as a young boy.

I went to high school with an Arthur Wade Coffee Jr. He told me a few years ago he was a Boone descendant but not Daniel. Didn't mention what his family line was. This may be part of the Jesse Coffee/Hannah Boone line. Just speculating. Wade became a preacher, like his father, and retired from the US Army as a Chaplain (Lt Colonel). He lives in VA and spends some time serving as a chaplain at the local Veterans Administration hospital. Haven't seen Wade in five years or so.

If you are at liberty to say, what is Ivan Lancaster's relation to the Boones? Is he another cousin like Sharon Buck? Sharon and her husband are settling in at their Florida home and last time she e-mailed me they hadn't gotten internet hooked back up to the home. She occasionally gets a Wi-Fi signal from a nearby source and she sent me one missive after getting to FL.

I see that you have started reading more of the e-mail I sent about Ester Boone. And you are using your smartypants phone to read it. I finally got one of them and can now receive e-mails on my Verizon account and even started learning how to text. Unfortunately none of my family history data base is not accessible from that account. Need to send it from work and store it on my home computer. Got a new thumb drive yesterday and need to get some more to store information on. Won't have huge data storage capacity forever, like I presently have at work. We have our own servers and data storage capacity. My documents are stored on the main data base and not the computer on my desk.

Take care.

Subject: Fwd: [boone society] Who was Ester BOONE ? Ivan shares article

Cousin Ivan,

Here is what Gary sent me regard the "Who is Ester Boone?" It is lengthy and interesting. After the reunion in NC in the year 2000, Bob and I along with Barbara Gill and her husband went to Boone, Watauga Co, NC and spent several days and nights. It was pre-planned. Last year I met Gary Hodges through a query to the Boone Society and we have been friends ever since.

I read his reply hurriedly and I am not sure that I think it should be made public since people are so ready to grab onto people and make them their kinsman. I have all of these people in my database and if you want to know more about them I will readily share with you.

The Hannah Boone he refers to that married Smith Coffey is the daughter of Jesse Boone and Sarah McMahan, he the son of Israel Boone b 1726 who married Martha Farmer and died of Consumption. Some of the descendants of Smith Coffey may still be in Watauga Co, NC and were when I more or less ended with that line in the year 1914. I get sidetracked everyday with the new queries that I receive. I know that the celebrated Log Cabin that was said to be built by Daniel Boone was built by a Wilcoxson and I would need to look it up. Since Daniel did use it as a stopping point while hunting in Watauga Co it was eventually taken over as the cabin Daniel built and I guess it was W. L. Bryan who started that myth as well. The biggest 'wannabe' of all was W. L. Bryan whose information is still being corrected today. But don't let me get started!!

Veering from the original intent of this letter is the fact that "Hangin Maw" who is said to have kidnapped Jemima Boone and the Callaway Girls is also said that Daniel met him at the Cabin in Watauga. This is just a downright fabricated story that should be reckoned with. First of all the "Hanging Maw, a half French and half Shawnee , was a well educated man who was born in Bucks Co, PA in 1716 and married Betsy Carpenter in 1744 in Original Towns Running Water Village TN. He died 1798 in Coyatee,, TN and his wife Betsy went to GA where relatives lived and she died ther in 1803. Both are buried in Coyatee,, TN. There is no record of the man ever being in the State of NC in his life.

Betsy Carpenter descends from my many greats grandfather Thomas Carpenter, on my dad's side of the family. Thomas married a Shawnee lady and the mother of Hanging Maw is Tawsee Sankee Carpenter and his wife Betsy Carpenter is daughter of a 1st cousin of Tawsee.

Back to the wonderful information sent to you by Cousin Gary Hodges I will read it again much later. Bob has to go to Stockton to get his Procrit Injection this morning and he is ready to leave and keeps looking in on me to I must stop but will be back a little later.

Cousin Dorothy,

The shingles are much better. I was very fortunate they were not a severe case. I only had two small blisters and the pins-and-needles feeling on my skin was only a mild irritation. Lucky that the symptoms were well above my belt line. My worst pain was deep muscle ache which was severe. Still have a little deep muscle ache but I don't notice it much. I can even get to sleep laying on my left side now. I will send a personal family oriented e-mail later on.

As far as the Boone question, I had heard many years ago when I still lived in Bone NC, there were two Boone lines that were not related. Or at least they were not related through the descendants of Squire Boone Sr. Kind of like the three distinct Hodges lines in Watauga. All Squire Boone descendants living in Watauga that I know of are transplants from other counties and their surnames are "allied" like my Wilcox/Wilcoxson line.

The only links I know concerning Daniel Boone and Watauga are he used to camp in present Boone NC during hunting trips. He used a cabin belonging to someone else. There is a monument near the site of this cabin but the exact location is covered by a city street. Concerning Boone and his relatives in Watauga , below is information from a local source. The "History of Western North Carolina" is recognized by local scholars as one of the definitive sources for the region. I see no mention of Ester Boone in the Watauga Relatives paragraph, or any other paragraph in that chapter. In two paragraphs below I hilited the information that there seem to have been a Boone family in Watauga that was not related to Daniel. I attached the entire chapter, in two formats, I took this information from.

History of Western North Carolina - Chapter IV - Daniel Boone

By John Preston Arthur, 1914

HTML by Jeffrey C. Weaver, October 1998

Just as seven cities contended for the honor of having been the birthplace of Homer; so, too, many states are proud to boast that Boone once lived within their borders.

But North Carolina was the home of his boyhood, his young manhood and the State in which he chose his wife. From his home at Holman's Ford he passed to his cabin in the village of Boone on frequent occasions, making hunting trips from that point into the surrounding mountains. From there, too, he started on his trips into Kentucky.

BOONE'S CABIN MONUMENT. The chimney stones of the cabin in which it is said that Boone camped while hunting in New river valley are still visible at the site of that cabin where it is said Boone was found one snowy night seated by a roaring fire when the young couple who had occupied it the night before and had allowed their fire to go entirely out, returned from a trip to the Yadkin for a "live chunk" with which to rekindle it; but which they had dropped in the snow when almost at Boone's cabin, thus putting it out, and leaving them as badly off as when they had set out that morning. Boone had struck fire from his flint and steel rifle and caught the spark in tow, from which he had kindled his blaze. Upon this site, that public-spirited citizen, the venerable and well informed Col. W. L. Bryan, now in his 76th year, has erected an imposing stone and concrete monument, whose base is seven by seven feet, with a shaft 26 feet in height. On the side facing the road is the following inscription, chiseled in white marble: "Daniel Boone, Pioneer and Hunter; Born Feb. 11, 1735; Died Sep.26, 1820." On the opposite side of the monument on a similar stone is the following: "W. L. Bryan, Son of Battle and Rebecca Miller Bryan; Born Nov.19, 1837; Built Daniel Boone Monument, Oct. 1912. Cost $203.27."

BOONE'S WATAUGA RELATIVES. William Coffey married Anna Boone, a sister of Jesse Boone and a niece of Daniel Boone. She had another brother called Israel Boone. Jesse Boone undoubtedly lived in a cabin which used to stand in a field four miles from Shull's mills and two miles from Kelsey post office, where he had cleared a field. The chimney foundation is still shown as his. On the 8th of July, 1823, Jesse Boone conveyed to William and Alexander Elrod for $600 350 acres of land on Flannery's fork of New River and on Roaring branch, about two miles southeast of Boone village; adjoining land then being owned by John Agers, Jesse Council and Russell Sams, and now owned in part by J. W. Farthing. This deed was registered in Book M, page 391, of Ashe county records, July 2, 1841. When Jesse Boone's sister, Anna Coffey, was nearly one hundred years old she talked with Mr. J. W. Farthing while he was building a house for her grandson Patrick Coffey, on Mulberry creek, Caldwell county, in 1871. Mr. Mack Cook of Lenoir is a direct descendant of Daniel Boone's brother, Israel, Boone and has a rifle and powder horn that used to belong to him. Arthur B. Boone of Jacksonville, Fla., claims direct descent from Daniel Boone, and his son Robbie E. Boone, has a razor said to have been the property of Daniel Boone.. There are many others who are related to the Boone family. Col. W. L. Bryan thinks that Thwaites is mistaken in stating that Rebecca Boone was the daughter of Joseph Bryan, as her father's name was Morgan, from whom he himself and William Jennings Bryan are directly descended. [11] Smith Coffey was born in 1832 in Caldwell county, and says that Jesse was a brother of Daniel Boone, and had three daughters; Anna, who married William Coffey, Hannah, who married Smith Coffey, and Celie, who married Buck Craig. The Smith Coffey who married Hannah Boone was the present Smith Coffey's grandfather. Smith Coffey's father moved to Cherokee in 1838 and settled on Hiwassee river four miles above Murphy, after which he moved to Peach Tree creek where he died a year later, his family returning to Caldwell. In 1858 Smith returned to Cherokee and lived on a place adjoining the farm of George Hayes on

Valley river, and had a fight with that gentleman concerning a sow just before the Civil War. Nevertheless he joined Hayes' company, when the war began, which became Company A in the Second N. C. Cavalry. After the battle before New Bern, Hayes resigned and returned to Cherokee, and William B. Tidwell of Tusquitte, now Clay county, was elected captain from the ranks, and retained that place till the close of the war.

THE BOONE FAMILY. Many people of the mountains claim descent or collateral relationship with Daniel Boone. His father was Squire Boone, who was born in Devonshire, England and came to Pennsylvania, between 1712 and 1714, when he was about 21 years old. He married Sarah Morgan July 23, 1720. Their children were Sarah, Israel, Samuel, Jonathan, Elizabeth, Mary, Daniel, George, Edward, Squire and Hannah, all born at Otey, Penn. Daniel was the sixth child and was born November 2, 1734. Edward was killed by Indians when 36 years old, and Squire died at the age of 76. Daniel married Rebecca Bryan, daughter of Joseph, in the spring of 1756. Daniel's children were James, Israel, Susannah, Jemima, Lavinia, Rebecca, Daniel Morgan, John B. and Nathan. The four daughters married. The two eldest sons were killed by Indians, and the three younger emigrated to Missouri. [17] None of Daniel's children was named Jesse, but there was a Jesse Boone who lived just west of the Blue Ridge, about four miles east of Shull's Mills and one mile west of Kelsey post office in Watauga county, N. C. This was on what has been called "Boone's Fork" of Watauga river.

RECORD EVIDENCE OF THE RESIDENCE OF THE BOONES. Jonathan Boone sold to John Hardin (Deed Book No.5, p.509, Ashe county) 245 acres on the 15th of September, 1821, for $600- -on the North side of New river and on both sides of Lynches' Mill creek, adjoining Jesse Councill's line, and running to Shearer's Knob This was near the town of Boone. The John Hardin mentioned above was the father of John and Joseph Hardin of Boone, and his wife was Lottie, the daughter of Jordan Councill, Sr., and the daughter of Benjamin Howard. On the 7th of November, 1814, Jesse Boone entered 100 acres on the head waters of Watauga river, beginning on a maple, Jesse Coffey's corner, and obtained a grant therefor on the 29th of November, 1817. (Deed Book "F," Ashe county p. 170)

I would think the Rivers Family or present researchers from the Watauga Democrat would be in an advantageous position to research this. The Watauga Democrat, the local county newspaper, was run by the Rivers family till 1994. The family had owned the paper since 1889. Below is the link to the history of this paper. I find it interesting that Mr. Rivers first partner was D.B. Dougherty. Blandford Dougherty and his brother D. D. Dougherty founded Appalachian Normal School in 1903 and is my alma mater Appalachian State University. The name Democrat in the papers name is no accident. The Democratic Party had a resurgence in the South during Reconstruction. The Republican Party was the party of Ole Linkom (Abraham Lincoln) and was definitely not a popular party in the subjugated South during Reconstruction times. Southern Democrats were often given the title of Dixiecrats, to denote their ties to Ole Dixie. The Twager Damnedoldcrat has always been a mouthpiece of the democrats and very biased.

With all the hype about Daniel Boone in his namesake town I would have thought I would have heard about any additional link between Daniel and the town, other than his camping on land that is now part of the town. I do not recall ever hearing anything about one of his descendants living in town, or the county for that matter. I do know one of his descendants made the iron gates at the Daniel Boone Native Gardens in town but he lived in another county.

I hope this bit of research I did will help. The majority of information about Uncle Daniel and Watauga Co is in the chapter of Western NC history I am sending.

Hello Cousin Gary,

I am sending you this information, in hopes that you will know all about it. The only person that I know who can tell you everything in Watauga Co, NC. I am certain that the Ester Boone is not a descendant of Daniel Boone b 1734. I have spent way to many years doing research on the descendants of Daniel and he has/had no descendants in Watauga Co, NC.

Thanks so much.

Cousin Dorothy. (How are the shingles?)

Investigating Significance of House on Moretz Street After Rumors of Daniel Boone Descendant Living There

Nov. 14, 2012. On the most recent Boone Town Council agenda, one item to be presented by the Cultural Resources Advisory Board read, "RE: Disposal of Property at 122 Moretz Street (White House on Rivers Property)." Following deliberation, the house was temporarily spared thanks to rumors of a descendant of Daniel Boone living there.

"It's been brought to our attention by the Historical Preservation Commission that this house may have some historical significance," said Council Member Rennie Brantz. "People have suggested that a person by the name of Ester Boone, a descendent of Daniel Boone, lived in that house and taught piano to generations." On Tuesday, Oct. 16, Cultural Resources Advisory Board Director Pilar Fotta asked the Boone Town Council for an evaluation to determine the current structural condition of the two Rivers-Coffey Property houses — the rock house on Clay House Drive and the white house on Moretz Street — for possible renovation. The two homes on Clay House Drive and Moretz Street were donated to the Town of Boone in 1998 by former Watauga Democrat publishers Rachel Rivers-

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

Coffey and her husband Armfield Coffey. At the Oct. 16 meeting Council Member Andy Ball said he had recently been in the house at 122 Moretz St. and that it had deteriorated significantly, noting that the ceiling was uneven and that the plumbing and electrical systems probably needed to be worked on.

Now, however, the dilapidated white house may be spared pending further investigation into its historical significance.

Ball said the council had talked about the white house for two or three years due to groups coming to the town and asking about possible uses for it. He said at those times the town was not able to perform a full inspection and analysis of the property. "I think now is the time, before we talk about demolition or removal, to go through and have an official evaluation of what condition the house is in," Ball said.

Brantz added that he would like to question as to whether or not there was historical significance associated with the house to be answered before demolition was considered. He went on to inquire to the audience in attendance if anyone could possibly confirm or deny the rumors associated with a Daniel Boone connection. Planning and Inspections Director Bill Bailey stepped forward.

"I've got staff that can probably do this in 10 minutes who could trace it back for generations," Bailey said, adding regarding the condition, "Any of my inspectors can go out at any time and look at it. We would probably send the fire marshal out there with them to look at it ... and give you a pretty fair assessment of what's going on. They may say that, based on their observation, you may need to get a contractor in here to look it."

Bailey said he could look at Watauga County records as far back as they go to determine if a descendant of Daniel Boone ever owned the house.

"My thought is, we may decide that it's not worth saving but we should know if it has some historical significance so we can write that in the history of our community," Brantz said.

Fotta said the property had been looked at before by town staff and that, if the property did not have any historical significance, it would probably cost the town more to renovate it than would be worth it for future uses for the house.

In a deed dated Oct. 28, 1998 that gifted the properties to the town it was stipulated that a life estate be reserved for Jim Butler, who lived in one of the homes. Butler passed away in November 2011, freeing up the home for use by the town.

Also in the deed restrictions was a life estate reserved for Rivers-Coffey, but she passed away less than a year after the deed was finalized on Aug. 24, 1999.

Now that the properties are free for the town to use, there is some question as to what the two homes can be used for exactly. The 1998 deed also specified that the property may only be used for recreational space, green space, installation of underground utility provided they have minimal impact on the natural environment, flood mitigation, a wildlife sanctuary or historical purposes.

The town ultimately decided to have Bailey investigate the historical significance of the property and Fotta said she would investigate the options in the event the house does not have historical significance. Fotta presented four prioritized options for the property if no connection of historical significance is found:

Descendants of Benjamin Greer, (Grier)

Offer the house for sale to be relocated at the expense of the buyer. The offer for sale would expire by April 2013;

Offer the house to the Boone Police Department and Boone Fire Department for the purpose of an eventual burning as a training exercise. After which, the area would be cleaned up and seeded with grass;

Demolish the house immediately, clean the property up and seed it with grass;

"Not a popular option," to allow the building to deteriorate to the point that it collapses, after which it would be cleaned up and seeded with grass.

In other matters, the town elected to go forward with looking into future possibilities for use and the possibly of pursuing National Historical Registry designation for the rock house located at 150 Clay House Drive.

The former-Cultural Resources Board also had their name officially changed to the Cultural Resources Advisory Board at the Nov. 13 meeting.

"Yes, we realize this makes us CRABs," joked Fotta, drawing laughter from the council members. "But the board feels that this acknowledges and clearly states that the role of the board is to make recommendations to the council for their consideration and they're not a decision-making or management body."

If you have more information on the property located at 122 Moretz St., please contact Pilar Fotta at 828-262-4576.

- Descendant information: Hello Dorthy,
Thank you so much for the emails and information. Actually the family lore was something like that Daniel and Bennie married sisters (we know now Bennie married his niece) and that they were friends. After your email I did some research on ancestry.com and found that my great grandfather Creed Cicero Greer (1886/1972) who I knew well, was the first Greer in my line to be born in Kentucky. His father Marcus De Lafayette was listed as being born in North Carolina.

On another subject, my sister is very interested in joining the DAR. She was told it hard to prove your eligibility. Since Benjamin Greer is a listed patriot and hero of King's mountain, I would think the process would be fairly easy. Our line is:

Benjamin

William

Isaac Newton

Levi Crittenden

Marcus De Lafayette

Creed Cicero

Alka Greer (my grandmother)

Do you know anything about the DAR requirements and what I would have to get for my sister to prove Benjamin Greer was her grandfather. Thank you again for your time and all the valuable information.

Best Regards,

Jim Cash

Hello James,

Further research of the whereabouts of Benjamin Greer b 1746 d 1816 in Green River, Green Co, KY indicate that Benjamin was still in Wilkes Co, NC in the year 1801. Information from Three Rivers Baptist Church:

"Benjamin was a member of the Three Forks Baptist Church in Watauga from 1790 to 1800 (according to A HISTORY OF WATAUGA COUNTY) but had to leave the church in 1801 because of his intemperance.

I have been unable to find Early Census Record in KY for this Benjamin Greer. It is clear from the date his will was written that he was in KY b 1 April 1816. Since he is not found on 1810 census records it would be my guess that he went to KY sometime after that date. According to the data that I have on the children born to Nancy Wilcoxson and Benjamin Greer, they remained in NC. By his second wife, Sarah Adkinson Jones, who he married On 26 April 1791 in Wilkes Co, NC he had the following children: Thomas b 3 Oct 1790 Ashe Co, NC (Benjamin was having an affair with Sarah.) However, something odd about this information. According to my information Nancy died 3 Oct 1790, now I suspect that date has been shown so that the correct birthdate and mother of Thomas would not be made public. In the Will of Benjamin Greer dated 1 April 1816 Thomas is named as the son of Sarah and is among the children of Benjamin whose mother is Sarah. They all received land while the children of Nancy received $1.00 each. Siblings of Thomas: Aquilla, Sally, Elizabeth, Edmond, Polly. I am trying to identify these children at the moment.

This should answer your question whether Daniel Boone led Benjamin Greer to KY or not. It is even doubtful that they even knew each other, if so most likely a very passing meeting.

To any interested party:

The various land index records for Kentucky when it was part of Virginia, and afterward, fail to show anyone with the name of Greer claiming vacant land. This is an indication (but not proof) that Benjamin Greer was not an early settler or resident in Kentucky.

Daniel Boone brought settlers to Kentucky in 1775, and again in the summer or fall of 1779. Had Ben Greer been with Boone on either occasion, he would have arrived early enough to apply for vacant Virginia land, as either a late settler or with a treasury warrant. As his wife apparently died in North Carolina in 1790, I would suspect that he did not come to Kentucky before that date. Daniel Boone went to Missouri in September 1799, according to Nathan Boone.

Hello James,

Thank you for writing. I am not certain that I can answer your question but I will try. There are many stories regard Daniel Boone, some are true and many are myths. My chronology, which I am not even certain is all fact has nothing about the many relationships that Daniel b 1734 may have had with the various families. Here is my best answer. Benjamin Greer is b 1746 in Virginia. He married Nancy Wilcox(son) b 1746, she the daughter of Sarah Boone and John Wilcox, on 27 Nov 1763 in Rowan Co, NC. Daniel would have been 12 years old when Benjamin was born. Daniel and his parents were still living in PA and Benjamin Greer b in VA. Daniel who married Rebecca Bryan and on their marriage license he is called James Boone, and the marriage date is 14 Aug 1756. This still does not answer the question regard where Benjamin Greer lived in 1756 but he would have been age 10 and is probably still living in VA, although I do not know that. Perhaps your Greer family knows the answer to this question.

According to my information Nancy Wilcoxson Greer died 1790 in Wilkes Co, NC and it is Benjamin who died in Green Co, KY on 23 Oct 1816. When he went to KY is not known by me. It is probably certain that Daniel Boone and Benjamin Greer did know each other but how close their friendship was is difficult to say based on the events in the life of Daniel Boone. Here is information regard the whereabouts fo Daniel Boone in 1799. I am more than interested in your side of the story in your family history. Most everything that we know or learn about Daniel Boone, also known as James Boone in Tax Records of Rowan Co, NC, is from the history of someone else.

"According to Louis Houck's History of Missouri, Daniel Boone started for Upper Louisiana (Missouri) September, 1799, accompanied by a group of about twenty-five persons, including Flanders Callaway and Forrest Hancock, (Daniel Forest Hancock, William's son). They reached the Mississippi River in October and crossed Boone's stock at the mouth of the Missouri. They traveled to the Femme Osage, where Daniel Morgan Boone, one of his sons, had already established himself several years earlier. Apparently William's sons Stephen and Forrest were also settled, or had at least scouted out the area, prior to the actual moving of the remaining family members. Forrest had a survey of 400 arpents executed on January 24, 1798."

I have been working on the John Wilcox and Sarah Boone descendants most of this year, 2012, starting in January. It is clear that there are many question regard the descendants of this couple. One of the lines that I have spent a great deal of time on is the descendants of Benjamin Greer and Mary Wilcox. Especially those that descend from Fanny Greer b 1796 and Isaiah Wilcoxson b 1798. Since I am trying to complete the Allied Family lines as well as the Wilcox (any way you spell it) it is still a work in progress. I hope to have it available as a pdf file, perhaps by the end of this year if possible. I do have the assistance of several descendants who have a great deal of knowledge and help to furnish certain information.

Please feel to write me anytime.

Dear Sir,
I'm trying to find out more about my 7th great grandfather Benjamin Greer and his connection to Daniel Boone. He married Nancy Wilcoxen, Sarah Boones' daughter. Stories were pasted down in the Greer family that Bennie and Daniel were good friends, and it was Boone that brought them to Kentucky where most of my Greer
