Campgrounds Cemetery - Beaverton Alabama

Campgrounds Cemetery, located in the Beaverton post east of Beaverton off Sorghum Hollow Rd. is the burial gro the families of Lockhart, Dill, Miller, Pickle, Stanford, Wac Bowlen, Johnson, Malloy, Reese, Jones, Gibbs and Gann.

Joseph Welsh, 4th great-grandson of Seborn Dill

The oldest person burie is Seborn Di January 1, Spartanbur SC, and die 1867 in wh then Marie (Jones Co. w ished on 11 and this la returned to t ent counties ette and M Beaverton b the Marion C dary, later Co.). Most a lies are rel this cemetery To date v no written r this cemetery. The first person to ever give this author ora of this place was Rufus Lockhart. He said at one time U diers camped in the area next to this graveyard. The oth mation gleaned from Pauline Dill Taylor's family, states t area was where folks came to have camp meetings, that t never any church building here but they camped out and h meetings here, thus the name Campgrounds.

There has never been any explanation as to why for years this cemetery was called Mt. Olive on the Lamar Co. has never been known to any of the family but Campgrou we perhaps thought that someone mixed it up with Olive
