EDWARD BRYAN: FIRST AND SECOND GENERATIONS

(BE 1) EDWARD BRYAN

Edward Bryan the progenitor of this line according to the chart prepared by Charles Shepard Bryan (BE 424) was born in London in 1663, the second son of Josiah Bryan, a London banker and merchant.¹

Edward Bryan left England and settled in Virginia about 1690 possibly in Nansemond and Isle of Wight Counties. Before long he married Christian, Christiana, or Christianna, Council. Her father was Hodges Council, a man of wide acres,² at least a part of which was located in that area called Beaver Dam Swamp, and shown on present day maps in that portion of Isle of Wight County, three miles northeast of the present town of Franklin, Southampton County, Va.³

Possibly as early as 1700 Edward Bryan had moved to Adams Creek in North Carolina. By 1714 he had come into possession of property in Chowan Precinct, N. C., for in this year he drew a deed⁴ to convey a tract on the west side of Chowan River—"part of a Patent to Thomas Mann, joining upon land of widow Barnes"—to John Bryan. The latter was possibly the son of Edward.

Edward Bryan died in Craven County about 1739.⁵ His widow followed not long after, for a deed in 1744 records the reservation of a bit of land "ten feet square" where "Edward and his wife are buried."⁶

Christianna Council was the daughter of Hodges Council and Lucy Hardy, or Hardee. The last was the daughter of John Hardy, or Hardee.

On Nov. 19, 1736, Walter Bryant of Isle of Wight conveyed to his brother Samuel Bryant part of a patent "bearing date Anno Domini 1677 which was formerly granted to Mr. Hodges Council, Ser., for nine hundred and forty one acres of land . . . given by the said Hodges Council Ser. by his last Will to his Daughter Christian the wife of Edward Bryan . . . the Said Land was conveyed by Jno Bryant son & Heir of the aforesd Christian Bryant to one James Bryant and this James Bryant to me Walter Bryant," (Isle of Wight, Deed Book, no. 5, pp. 65, 66, MS.).

On Nov. 20, 1737, Hardy Council of Newport Parish conveyed to Walter Bryant of the same parish "with the consent of Susannah my wife" 100 acres of land lying in a 2380 acre tract earlier patented to Hardy Council. (Deed Book, no. 5, pp. 170, 171, MS.).

7. Names, order, and number uncertain.

8. Anne (De La Mere) Stoakley was born the daughter of Francis Delamar and Ann Mayo, and was the widow of Joseph Stoakley. She was, we believe, the mother of three children at the time of her marriage to William Bryan. Her will dated Oct. 25, 1767, and probated March 9, 1773, Craven County, mentions her sons William, John, and Jesse Bryan; her daughters Mary (Stoakley) Cook and Elizabeth Dawson; grandson Joseph Stockley and John Dawson. (Grimes, Abstract, 52; N. C. H. & G. R., I, 175.). Anne's names were variously spelled: Delamar, Delamere, and Stoakley, in addition to the forms given in this note and at the head of this sketch.

9. The will of William Bryan, dated Dec. 12, 1746, and probated in June 1747, Craven County, mentions his wife Anne and the six children listed above. (Grimes, Abstract 53; N. C. H. & G. R., II, 28).

Mrs. Jesse S. Claypoole (BE 504) kindly assisted in the preparation of the material above.
