

Although much about the early Cardiff Hollymans was known by this time, there wasn't a great deal of searches carried out of the actual baptisms. Mr W.D. Hollyman, resident in Dinas Powis and I decided that the best way of making sure of the true relationship of those we know was to check any records of baptisms.

Although this proved to be difficult for the baptismal books became elusive in tracking down. The first records checked were those of:-

St John's Parish Church, Cardiff. Book 1. 1829 - 1842.

The first Hollyman entry was that which we knew which was:-

Mary Louise Hollyman baptised on October 16th 1841. Her parents were, Alfred Hezekiah and Mary Hollyman. Alfred was a 'Railway Clerk' and they lived in Ebenezer Terrace, St John's. Mary Louise, sad to say did not live for she died whilst still an infant. We also know that Alfred and Mary were of Clevedon. They married in or near Bursley, Gloucestershire in 1839.

Book 2: Book 3: 1842 - 1857: 1857 - 1869. No Hollymans.

Book, 4. 2 Volumes. Vol. 1 1869 - 74 & Vol. 2 1874 - 78. is found:-

George Burnell Hollyman, the son of Frederick & Ellen Hollyman of No 6 Gough street, Temperance Town, a carpenter who was baptised on June 29th 1876. (Page 235)

Book 5. 1878 - 1881 therein records:-

Frederick Thomas Hollyman of the same parents and at the same address, bapt. not recorded. But we know from the General Register, he was born in 1878. (Page 15)

Book 6. 1881 - 1885, therein is recorded:-

Charles Henry Hollyman also of the same parents and same address baptised on July 29th 1882. (Page 70)

Book 7. 1885 - 1888 therein records:-

Ernest Hollyman. Parents and address as George Burnell, baptised on June 10th
