Mary (Polly) Lucas Holliman - born Jan. 2, 1819
died July 5, 1913

Inscription: "PIONEER STRENGTH INTEGRITY HUMAN KINDNESS"

It is believed that Jennie Holliman (daughter of Joshua Warren "Bud" Holliman) had this marker placed at Mary Polly's gravesite.
The marker is a larger granite monument of superior quality which appropriately signifies Mary Polly's importance to the people of Fayette County.

Nancy Palestine Holliman - born April 7, 1848
born Dec. 12, 1923

Inscription: "A sinner saved by grace"

Leon O. Holliman - born April 5, 1900

* One monument bear both names with the inscription of musical notes shown.
As of September 1991 Lillian Holliman was still living, I understand, in the Fayette area.

Springhill Cemetery (near Bluff in Fayette Co.) - continued:

M. M. Langston - wife of J. I. Holliman

(she was) born Oct. 23, 1872

married to J. I. Holliman Jan. 16, 1890

(she) died March 5, 1934

Inscription: "Blessed Are The Pure In Heart
For They Shall See God"

* The above old monument is sitting adjacent to a modern granite monument that contains 3 names as follows:

Mollie Holliman - born 1872 - died 1934
Isaiah Holliman - born 1870 - died 1954
Virgie Holliman - born 1895 - died 1965

Explanation of the above follows:

Isaiah Holliman is the same person as J. I. Holliman. Mollie Holliman was Isaiah's first wife and therefore the other monument which is placed about 6 inches away from the new monument belongs to Mollie which is one and the same as M. M. Langston. I conclude that Mollie has her name on 2 different monuments.

Additional notations about Stewart - Holliman Cemetery:

Many "unidentified graves" are contained within this cemetery. They are marked only with rocks, one at head and one at foot. It is assumed that they were those of the Stewart family dating from very early times.

Other graves that are marked included J. F. Holliman's brother-in-law, William M. Stewart, and various members of his immediate family.
