434- This is inserted and is p. 434; next page, . Inadvertency has occasioned the most disastrous any one thing so incident to the Human species and the effects is pernicious so the cause is various consequently will not cease to be while rationalists continue to exist. The beauty of the material world is in Unity and the various objects that the mind is in Pursuit of constitutes the business of life renders that a pleasing scene which would otherwise scarce be tolerable except there is fire in this phantastical Vision of life, whose retentive faculty does sometimes suffer him to commit this common fault, wit: Inadvertency when too great a multiplicity of objects crowds the sensory it is rare if they be all equally retained at all times for our minds bears like a potgun the last pellet generally goes out the first and by an invention the first will go out the last by the same rule. This, however, is the case with me. A multitude of intervening objects resulting from a discourse of some particular importance in spite of opposition had ingrossed my attention more than my present employment ought to admit of that while my mind was enveloped with a variety of reflections musing on one thing and doing another I negligently turned over two leaves instead of one, a piece of carelessness that I think I never was guilty of before. I don't write this to satisfy every superficial examiner that may peep in the Book to play the critic but in some sort to palliate the crime and beg an excuse of the gentlemen to whom the work belongs whose candour and generosity will not suffer him to censure me more than the case justly requires and with this satisfaction I shall remain

The 734 men and officers of COLONEL WILLIAM EATON'S Granville County Regiment here listed came from the territory represented by the black boundary lines of the above map. The list comprises, in our judgment, a practically complete roll of all of the able bodied men, subject to military duty in GRANVILLE COUNTY, North Carolina, at that time. So far as we have been able to ascertain no earlier list of the first citizenship of the county can be found.
