There is no rule for the spelling of proper names. The spelling of the same name often varies; in some instances the same name being spelled in as many as four different ways. The generally accepted form is used in the heading. Wherever possible other forms are shown by putting the letters in parenthesis.

Know all men by these presents that I Benjamin Gray of Green County and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind, memory and understanding (Thanks to the Almighty for His mercies) and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die; I do make and constitute this to be my last Will, and Testament And as touching my worldly estate, I give demise and dispose of in the following manner (to wit) first I will that my just debts, and funeral charges be paid out of my moveable Estate, secondly It is my will, and I direct my Executors to have the unfinished work, which may be on hand at my decease finished, that is have the stuff all worked up, and after paying the workmen dispose of the remainder of the Hats towards settling my debts either by public or private sale as my Executors may think best. ---

3rd I will and direct that my hawking tools be sold and the money applied to the payment of my debts.

fourthly I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife Matilda Gray all my lands, and all that appertaineth therunto for her use and to raise my children on until my youngest child comes of age and as much longer as she remains my widow also my grey Mare, and two cows her choice of my cattle, and as many hogs as my Executors may think needful also one pair of horse gears and one shovel plough, clevis and single tree, also all the house hold and kitchen furniture or as much thereof as she may wish to keep.

fifthly It is my will that my Executors sell the balance of my moveable Estate and if any thing remain after paying

Paying my debts, that it be paid over to my wife Matilda for her use in raising, and educating my children

Sixthly It is my Will that my land be sold after the death of my widow or after the youngest child comes of age if she may have ~~been~~ married before that time I allow my Executors to sell said land either for pay-down, or on credit not exceeding four years as they may think best for the benefit of my heirs, if on credit in annual payments, the first installments to be paid over to the oldest children as collected leaving the last payments for the youngest children, and divided amongst them so as to make all equal Including Pollyann Johnson wife of Enos Johnson, tho not my child, yet I raised her and it is my will that she have an equal part of my estate with my own children taking into consideration what ~~Joseph Jane~~ Louisa, and Pollyann have already received

Lastly I do constitute, make, ordain, and appoint, my trusty friends David R. Johnson, and John Rankin my sole, and absolute Executors, of this my last Will and Testament empowering them also to assist my wife in renting and managing the plantation so as to prevent timber being destroyed unnecessarily or the land abused, and I do hereby revoke, disannul, and disallow of all and every other former Will, and testament, Legacies, bequests Executors, by me in any way named Willed or bequeathed, hereby ratifying and confirming, this and no other to be
