COLONEL BENJAMIN HAWKINS

By Mrs. J. L. Walker, Waycross, Georgia

From "Revolutionary Reader: Reminiscences and Indian Legends," compiled by Sophie Lee Foster, State Regent, Daughters of The American Revolution of Georgia. 1913.

Colonel Hawkins, patriot soldier, United States senator and Indian agent, was born August 15, 1754, in the county of Butts, now Warren County, North Carolina. He was the son of Colonel Philemon and Delia Hawkins. He attended Princeton College until his senior year when the institution was closed on account of the Revolutionary War.

His knowledge of the French language led Washington to press him into service as a member of his staff to act as interpreter with the French allies. He was one of the founders of the Society of Cincinnati in 1783.

He was a gallant Revolutionary soldier, having participated in several important engagements, among them the Battle of Monmouth. After North Carolina ratified the federal constitution, he was elected United States Senator from that state, taking his seat in 1790. At the close of his term in the senate he was appointed agent of the three great Indian tribes east of the Mississippi and entered upon his duties in the part of Georgia now known as Crawford County, but at that time called "The Agency Reserve."

This place became an important trading post and was selected by Colonel Hawkins as a convenient locality for the transaction of duties that devolved upon him. He infused progression, activity and thrift into the little village. Mills, workshops, and comfortable homes appeared on every side.

"Colonel Hawkins brought his own slaves from his old home in North Carolina, and under the right conceded to his office, he opened and cultivated a large plantation at the agency, making immense crops of corn and other provisions."

"While he lived his cattle brand was rigidly respected by the red men; although soon as his death, if reports be true, the Creeks, oblivious of former obligations, stole numbers of his cows and hogs."

To him does the state of Georgia owe a debt of special gratitude. He not only risked his life for the state of his adoption, but preserved the history of the Creek country, some of which is most valuable and interesting.

The French general, Moreau, who in exile was his guest for some time, was so much impressed with his character and labors, that he pronounced him one of the most remarkable men he had met in America.

Colonel Hawkins possessed great adaptability and through his beneficence he acquired the respect of the Indians. It is said he gained their love and bound them to him by "ties as loyal and touching as those of old feudal allegiance and devotion."

He was closely associated with Generals Floyd, Blackshear and John McIntosh, and Governors Troup, Mitchell and Early.

The Indians of Chohaw were closely allied to Colonel Hawkins. They frequently furnished him with valuable information in regard to the treachery of the British and the unfriendly Indians.

The following queries and notes appeared in The Virginia Gazette, Williamsburg, Va., from March 30, 1956 to Jan. 1, 1962.

Query 5311 (A) FAULCONER(FAULKNER)-CRAIG-HAWKINS-JOHNSON-HAMPTON-STEPHENS-WILCOXSON-WILSON. The will of John Faulconer (or Faulkner), wife Joice Craig, was written about 1790 and is in the "burnt records" of Fayette Co., Ky., and on both sides of the pages, parts were burnt away. In the will he mentions son William. Would like to locate descendants of this William. (I believe the William who married Betsey Hawkins was son of Joseph Faulconer and, therefore, grandson of John.)

John Faulconer's will states in part (with some words missing at edges of pages), "John and Lewis Faulconer should loose their land . . . come in for an equal share with the rest of my children . . . should loose any part of their land, so as to reduce them . . . they shall be made equal with the rest of my children out . . . also my daughter Ann Faulconer is to have an equal . . . of my children; also those that are behind are to be ma . . . others." This reads as though some of John's children may not have moved to Kentucky. Does anyone have any information about this? Known children of this John Faulconer were William, John, Lewis, Joseph, Jane who m. Andrew Johnson, Polly who m. Andrew Hampton, Martha who m. John Stephens, Sally who m. Daniel Wilcoxson, Frances who m. Henry Wilson and Ann m. (after father's will was written) William Jouett. Were there other children? HAWKINS FAMILY. This column carried an announcement, July 15, 1960, suggesting that all readers contribute information on the HAWKINS family so that we can study the data and see if each one can prove more ancestral lines. The response was very gratifying and we hope that more readers will send their Hawkins line. Perhaps in 1961 I shall find time to mimeograph all of it and make it available in bound form. In the meantime, most of it will appear in this column in the near future.

The following data on the Hawkins Family was contributed by M. S. Banks, 2853 Ontario Rd., N. W., Apt. 304, Washington 9, D. C.

John Hawkins, b. 24 July, 1756, presumably in Spotsylvania Co., Va.; d. 1833 in Hopkinsville, Christian Co., Ky. Served as Lieut. and Capt. in the Rev. This is a continuation of the symposium being conducted on the HAWKINS FAMILY.

Dr. H. C. Smith, 1440 Ardmore Ave., Glendale 2, Calif., sent considerable data from his files and from his book, "Darnall-Darnell and Allied Families," Vol. I, AND FROM THE FILES OF VOL. II, which has not been published. Thanks for the information which will appear in the Hawkins booklet but which is not appearing on this page as the dates do not cover information BEFORE 1850 - a rather strict policy of this column.

The following information was received from Mrs. R. F. McCarron, 1101 Summer Ave., Hot Springs, Ark.

Gregory Farmer Hawkins, b. 26 March, 1789; d. 15 Dec., 1859; m. 5 Jan., 1815, Sarah Cannon, b. 4 Feb., 1795; d. April, 1872, dau. of Newbold and Unicy (Bounds) Cannon. Tombstones in Wyaconda Cemetery in Lewis County, Missouri, near Canton, Mo. Sarah Cannon Hawkins' parents are buried in the same cemetery. According to their tombstones, Newbold Cannon was born 18 March, 1767 and died 8 Jan., 1850. Unicy Bounds Cannon was born in 1779 and died 23 Sept., 1831. Also, nearby, is this pair of stones: Newbould J. Cannon died Sept. 28, 1866, age 57 years, 3 months, 15 days, and Elizabeth A. wife of Newbould J. Cannon, died 17 September, 1870, age 59 years, 2 months, 28 days. ✓

Gregory Farmer Hawkins' tombstone is quite large. On the front it is inscribed that he is the son of T. & M. Hawkins, formerly Mary Hargis. On the right-hand side of the stone: Mary Larue, daughter of G. F. and S. Hawkins, formerly Sarah Cannon, born on Feb. 22, 1824, died May 17, 1840. On the left-hand side of the stone the following is inscribed: Sarah Hawkins, daughter of Newbold and Unicy Cannon, formerly Unicy Bounds, was born in Ky. February 4, 1794. There is no death date on the stone. ✓

Several of Gregory Farmer Hawkins' children are buried in this cemetery. His 4th child, Unicy Hawkins, b. 16 June, 1822; d. 28 Dec., ✓

1902; m. 25 Oct., 1838, John Henry Bayne, b. 8 May, 1812, Nelson Co., Ky.; d. 11 April, 1866. ✓

According to information on file in the Lewis Co., Mo., Court House, Gregory Farmer Hawkins' estate was probated 27 Feb., 1860. Administrators were John W. Hawkins and Madison C. Hawkins, two of his sons. The children named were: Caroline J., wife of Roswell Durkee; Dr. Madison Cannon Hawkins; Felix A. Hawkins; Unicy Anne Hawkins, wife of John Henry Bayne; Roswell; Milton; Nancy Adaline; Irene Forco, wife of John L. Long; Lorinda Jane, wife of Marcus D. Bourne. There were 11 children. Mary Larue was dead, and, for some reason, Dr. John W. Hawkins was not named. ✓

Sarah Hawkins Bayne, granddaughter of Gregory Farmer Hawkins, and a college professor, wrote the following lineage believed to be carefully proven although the documentation is not given: (Note - this is the same as the one given on page 29 of this book.)

The following Hawkins data were contributed by Thelma Murphy, 44 S. Dearborn St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Marcy Hawkins (1763-1844), dau. of Nathan and Catherine Hawkins, married in Madison Co., Ky., on March 8, 1790, James Barnett.

Nathan Hawkins died in Madison Co., Ky., in 1794. ✓

In Jessamine Co., Ky., in 1808, the heirs of Elizabeth Hawkins of Culpeper Co., Va., were attempting to recover slaves. The heirs listed were John, Benjamin, James, Polly Hawkins Barnett, wife of John, Willis and Sally Hawkins.

The following information is from Mrs. Hale Houts, 230 West 61st St., Kansas City, Mo., who wishes to know the parents of Sarah Hawkins. Hardin Camp, b. in England prior to 1760; res. in No. Car., Ky., and in Mo. after 1812; m. 1779, Sarah Hawkins. Children: Josiah, Thomas, Hawkins, Joseph m. Nancy Schackelford, Sarah and Elizabeth Camp.

Miss Myra Firmhaber, 319 E. King St., Kingsville, Texas, writes that she is doing research on Robert Hawkins, d. 1761; dau. Mary Hawkins Durbin, b. 1720. Robert probably m. Ann Tribble (Treblo).

A very kind reader contributed the following but the Hawkins data given here and the accompanying letter have become separated so that proper credit cannot be given.

This query was published in the July 17, 1936 issue of The Herald Post, Louisville, Ky. The answer appeared at a later date.

HAWKINS-BUTLER. John Hawkins died in Madison Co., Ky., 1810. His will does not name all children as some of them had received their portions previously. Was this John Hawkins a son of John of Hanover Co., Va., whose dau., Milly, m. Percival Butler of Louisville? John Hawkins' wife's name and names of all children desired. Signed R. B. A.

ANSWER. I do not believe that John Hawkins of Madison is son of John who died in Hanover Co., Va. There were two Johns in Scott Co., Ky., very early, and one died there in 1806, naming large family, including son John. He is said to have been son of Philemon Hawkins who m. 1743, Susannah Smith, and Philemon was son of John and Mary of King William Co., Va. John, b. 1744, d. 1806, is said to have m. first Margaret Jameson, who d. 1770, and had Jameson Hawkins, b. 1766, Philemon, John, William, Peggy who m. 1790, Henry Cave, and others. Philemon's sister, Mary, m. Toliver Craig.

A land suit shows that the following were heirs of John Hawkins of Hanover Co., Va.: James Hawkins, d. in Logan Co., Ky., and left a large family whose ages are given in the suit; Martin Hawkins with wife, Margaret, living in Gallatin Co. in 1801, and referred to as Martin, Sr.; Milly Hawkins, Jane Hawkins, Fanny T. Hawkins, Edmund Hawkins who d. 1800, with sons Martin, Joseph and John and sons-in-law Robert Stewart, John P. Thomas and Thos. P. Irvine; Jane Hawkins m. John Todd, killed at Blue Licks; Milly Hawkins m. Percival Butler.

It appears that the son, John Hawkins, is the same John Hawkins who m., 1781, in Va., Anna Gabriella Jones, dau. of Chief Justice Jones, as he was in Scott Co., appearing in deeds as having a brother, Martin Hawkins, etc. If this John is the son of John and Mary, as it appears, he was in Scott Co. early, then went to western Ky., apparently Christian Co.

A Hawkins Bible owned by the family in Franklin Co. has the following dates: John Hawkins, b. 1718; d. 1778; m. 1744, Mary Langford. Children: Martin Hawkins, b. 1747; d. 1819; James Hawkins, b. 1750; Edmund Hawkins, b. 1754; Jane Hawkins, b. 1757; Mildred Hawkins, b. 1758; Elizabeth Hawkins; Mark Hawkins, b. 1763; Joseph Langford Hawkins, b. 1765; m. 27 Feb., 1801, Ann Parker Robinson.

The names are almost identical with those of John and Mary Hawkins, whose children are named in the suit in 1796, and yet there are some discrepancies. The son of Joseph Langford Hawkins, Dr. James Russell Hawkins, b. 1805, lived in Franklin Co., Ky., dying there in 1897, and it is his descendant who has the Bible. Joseph Hawkins, son of John named in the suit, was in Boone Co., Ky., in 1810. They may or may not be the same person. The duplicate names are most perplexing, especially when they do not exactly "click."

There was another John Hawkins, who lived in Jessamine Co., Ky., m. as a widower the widow Singleton, prior to 1815, when each had grown children. He d. 1823, and left a large family named in deeds. This John Hawkins may have been a son whose mother was Elizabeth

QUERIES FROM GENEALOGY AND HISTORY MAGAZINE

7585 15 June, 1943. An Answer to 7377 which had been sent in by EPO. Hawkins, Howard, Smith, Craig, Taliaferro, Hayden, Long, Simpson, Prichett, McDonald, Randle, Ellis, Casel; England, Va., No. Car., Ga.

A Philemon Hawkins (b. 1695, England) emigrated to America with wife, Eleanor (Howard); to Virginia in the neighborhood of Todd's Bridge, near relatives who had preceded him. (Such is the record of tradition familiar to descendants.) The Reg. Land Office, Richmond, Va., shows Philemon had land granted him in King William Co.: 2 patents in 1719 and 2 in 1725 in that part which is now King and Queen Co. Todd's Bridge was in King and Queen over the Matapony River. The probabilities are that John Hawkins of King William was the relative who had preceded the immigrant in 1714. Philemon d. 1725, and ca 1735, his widow and their children, Philemon, John and Anna, moved to No. Car. where many of their desc. now live.

John Hawkins of King William Co. had land grant 1731 and 16 Nov., 1742 (Spotsylvania Co., Va., Deed Book D) it appears that wife was Mary and children: (1) Joseph, d. 1769, m. Jane ____; (2) Philemon, will filed 1779, m. Sarah Smith; (3) Elizabeth, m. George Smith, bro. of Sarah; (4) Phoebe m. Charles Smith, bro. of Sarah; (5) your Mary, d. 1804, m. Taliaferro Craig.

These records from Gen. J. P. Hawkins' "Memoranda of Hawkins Family," pp. 70 and 72, seem to indicate that John was the earlier immigrant and that he moved from King William Co. to Spotsylvania Co. Was he a bro. of the Philemon who came in 1715? There are a great many Hawkins records in Crozier's "Spotsylvania County, Va., Records." . . .

I am trying to find anc. of a Nicholas Hawkins of St. George Parish, Spotsylvania Co., with wife Elizabeth (?), who d. 1754, leaving will. Children: (1) Nathan, b. ca 1720, m. Ann Hayden; (2) James, b. ca 1722; (3) Thomas; (4) Nicholas, b. ca 1726, m. 1st Elizabeth Long and 2nd ____ dau. of Francis Simpson; (5) Ann m. ____ Prichett; (6) Alexander, m. Mary ____, rem. to Georgia; (7) Catherine m. Randle McDonald; (8) John, m. Elizabeth (prob. Ellis); (9) a dau. m. ____ and d. ante 1754, leaving son, Hawkins Casel. Nicholas and a John Hawkins were buying land in Spotsylvania Co. 1722-4, the earliest date I can find for them. Can find no connection with the other Hawkinses living there. -MP (Ala.)

NORTH CAROLINA GUIDE

p. 350. Out from Middleburg, North Carolina, is Pleasant Hill, a two-and-one-half story clap-board house with gable roofs, dormers, and twin chimneys. The low wings on each side of the central section and some of the ornaments in the cornice, notably the Greek fret, are possibly additions of the 1850's when the house changed ownership. An inappropriate porch with rough stone columns was added in 1869.

Pleasant Hill was erected by Col. Philemon Hawkins, Jr. Hawkins' father fought alongside his father, Tryon's chief aid at Alamance, but father and son later became ardent patriots. The son was a colonel in the Provincial militia, member of Provincial Congresses, and of the 1789 convention that ratified the Federal Constitution. Pleasant Hill in 1777 was the birthplace of Colonel Hawkins' son, William Hawkins, Governor of North Carolina, 1811-1814, and Speaker of the House of Commons, 1810-1811.

DEPOSITION OF NATHAN HAWKINS

Madison County, Kentucky, Deed Book A, p. 82.

Deposition of Nathan Hawkins, aged 74, taken before George Adams and Joseph Kennedy, Justices of the Peace; was present about thirty-one or thirty-two years ago in Spottsylvania County, Virginia, when John Hawkins married Elizabeth Ellis, daughter of William Ellis, of Spottsylvania; William told John that for his marrying his daughter, he would buy and give him (John) two good negroes and he should have equal share with his other children at his death; after they were married two negro girls came to the door and Mr. Ellis informed John he might have his choice. Mrs. Ellis answered No, she would not part with either of the girls; she intended one for a milkmaid and the other for a washmaid, but that he might have Millie, a young girl. John, after some conversation, said it was very little odds which of the girls he had; although she was the smallest she might soon grow up. Upon which Mr. Ellis gave John Hawkins the girl, and about four days after Millie was moved to John Hawkins' and there remained until after the decease of said Hawkins. In the administration of his estate Millie was appraised in said estate and the relict had her thirds allotted to her; that her father, Mr. Ellis, wished Millie not to be included in the appraisal but the widow excepted against it and said Millie was John Hawkins' and should be in the appraisal and his children should not be wronged, and her father agreed to it.

Mr. Ellis was appointed Guardian and hired Millie with the other negroes for the benefit of the orphans. Some time after the widow married Robert Collins who brought suit against heirs of said Hawkins for said Millie but how it came out of Court this deponent knoweth not. The matter was submitted to arbitration of Joseph Brook, Edward Hardin and Thomas Colson, Justices of the Peace for Spottsylvania County, and the award was in favor of the orphans; but deponent further sayeth, Robert Collins said in his hearing he would give his bond to stand to the award, and further sayeth not. (Dated) July 24, 1790; Witnesses, George Adams and J. Kennedy; acknowledged and recorded 3 August, 1790.

Note: see will of William Ellis, Crozier's Spottsylvania County Records, 1955 reprint, p. 23. John Hawkins (and presumably Elizabeth)

HAWKINS NOTES, contributed by Mrs. Smiley Blanton, 200 East 66th St.,
New York 21, N. Y.

I am especially interested in John Hawkins, of Spotsylvania Co., Va., St. Georges Parish. He was b. between 1731 and 1733 as he came of age between 1752 and '54. He was the son of Nicholas Hawkins, Sr., and Elizabeth Long. Elizabeth Long was the daughter of John Long (Essex and Spotsylvania) and Elizabeth, his wife, whose mark was a J.

In 1758 or '59 John Hawkins married Elizabeth Ellis, the dau. of William Ellis (Gloucester and Spotsylvania) and his wife, Elizabeth. This information on the marriage of John Hawkins and Elizabeth Ellis was hard to come by but by great good fortune record A-82 Madison Co., Ky., Court of July 24, 1790, is a deposition made by John's brother Nathan with regard to the marriage of John and Elizabeth and has to do with a suit in regard to a slave named Milly. It gives the name of Elizabeth Ellis Hawkins second husband, Robert Collins. It is an amusing and interesting paper and worth hunting up. (See p. 56)

The roster of John Hawkins' siblings is somewhat obscure due to a queer contradiction in some dates, but there was at least James, Nicholas, Jr., Nathan, Alexander, and Catheron McDonel and Ann Pritchett, all according to the will of Nicholas, Sr.

Of Nathan I have some additional data worth publishing, I think. He was born, according to his own statement, in 1716. He migrated to Madison Co., Ky., where he lived his life out. In a deed (but recorded 4 years after his death) his wife's name was Frances. His will was probated 4 Nov., 1794, Will Book A, p. 64, Madison Co., Ky. His children were Elizabeth (edw.), Lovel, Nicholas, Nancy (John) Schroeder, Nathan, who could be the man of that name from Mercer Co., Ky., whose revolutionary deposition is number 30457.

John Hawkins' wife, Elizabeth (now married to Robt. Collins), his three daughters and sons-in-law, and his wife's second husband are recorded signing paper. Spotsylvania Co. Deed Book K, Sept. 28:1784. He had died in 1764, leaving four daughters. One, Catherine, shortly disappears. The second, Elizabeth, married William Gosnoy (of whom more), the third, Ann, married Thomas Jones, and the fourth, Agatha, was the first wife of Benjamin Haley. All of this group moved to Kentucky from Frederick Co., Va., including the second husband of Elizabeth, Robt. Collins, but I do not have any record of Elizabeth Ellis Hawkins Collins after 1784.

William Gosnoy who married Elizabeth Hawkins, died in Bourbon Co., Ky. His property was divided in 1799. His two brothers-in-law and his wife's step-father served in the settlement of his estate. His property was divided among 9 children. John, the eldest, was of age, but the remaining eight were infants. His daughter, Salley Gosnoy, was born in Virginia in 1785. She married Asa Chapman in 1801, at the age of 16.

Asa Chapman was the son of Diana Durrett and George Chapman (Spotsylvania Co.) who had migrated to Kentucky in 1784. I am descended from their daughter, Hulda.

I have quite a bit more data on the siblings of many of these people, but I presume that on all these later people you wish only the direct line.

Percival Butler and his wife (Mildred Hawkins) was not buried in the family burying-ground - that was Thomas Butler, the eldest son, b. 1789. It would seem that there were two sons named Edward, but the first of these sons died in infancy and before the birth of the other Edward. It will be noticed that not every inscription says 'daughter or son' of Gen. Butler and Mildred Hawkins, yet it seems probable that all of the above mentioned persons were the children of Gen. Butler and his wife, except one, i.e., Mrs. Eliza Allen Butler, wife of Pierce Butler, and dau. of Col. John Allen of Shelby Co."

HAWKINS QUERY IN THE HARTFORD (CONN.) TIMES

April 25, 1959. Query C-2972 (1). Data asked of Benjamin Franklin Hawkins, d. Woodford Co., Ky., aged 91. How is he related to the family of Benjamin Franklin Hawkins who went to Ohio? Name of his wife unknown. Known child is Benjamin Franklin Hawkins, b. Woodford Co., Ky., May 1, 1826; d. aged 75; m. Margaret Jane Douthitt. Her data asked. Signed G. J. B.

Letter from Mrs. John Fedorchak (Catherine Foreaker), 529 Monroe St., Gary, Ind. Dec. 16, 1955. Excerpt.

"I am interested in a Hawkins family, and in the event that you ever run into any records about Hawkins that might seem pertinent to this family, I would appreciate your help.

Joshua Hawkins, b. 1780, Maryland, had a brother (or uncle) Rev.

William Hawkins, b. in Md., 1766. Rev. William had a sister, Ruth Hawkins. These persons were living in the vicinity of present-day Fairmont, W. Va., by 1820, but may have been in Loudoun Co., Va., prior to this.

Joshua Hawkins m. (1) Cassa Tracy, sometime bef. 1808; m. (2) Sarah Sandy in 1830, Harrison Co., W. Va. By his 1st wife, he was the father of Elizabeth Hess, Mary Jackson, William, Jared, Idney Jackson, James and Levi (twins), Catherine, and John. By his 2nd wife he had Benjamin Franklin, Rebecca and Eliza Jane. All of these children, with the exception of Elizabeth Hess, moved on to Monroe Co., Ohio. Elizabeth and Jeremiah Hess, her husband, remained in Harrison Co., W. Va.

Rev. William Hawkins was married three times - once to Mary Amos. He was the father of 13 children, including names of Elizabeth, Mary, James, John, Joshua and Idney (which is rather an unusual name and I am inclined to believe that perhaps it might have been the name of the mother of Joshua and Rev. William, since it was used in both families). Rev. William Hawkins was also the father of a dau., probably by his first wife, named Cassandra Hawkins.

Rev. William Hawkins and most of his family remained in W. Va. - in the counties of Marion, Monongalia, and Harrison, and Rev. William d. in 1855. Joshua d. in Monroe Co., Ohio, in 1856."

Letter from Dr. Lewis T. Bullock, 3875 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles 5, Calif. April 21, 1956. Excerpt.

Dr. James Wayne Upshaw was the eldest son of Capt. James Upshaw, Jr. (1753-1807) (Original member of the Society of Cincinnati) and his wife, Mary Molly Martin. He was b. in Essex Co., Va., Dec. 6, 1779; d. 1837 in Nansemond Co., Va. (Or it may have been Giles Co., Tenn.) The court house records in Nansemond Co., Va., burned in 1866 so no will has been found.

The will of Capt. Upshaw, probated Feb. 16, 1807, mentions the following children: James Wayne Upshaw m. Nancy, dau. of Jeremiah Upshaw (his 1st cousin); Lewis Green Upshaw m. Alice, dau. of Jeremiah Upshaw (his 1st cousin); Mason Tazewell B. Upshaw m. _____ Jones; Maria Upshaw m. John Hawkins; Louisa Upshaw m. William Hawkins, 2nd Robt. Harvey; Martha Upshaw m. Francis Buckner; Arthur Martin Montgomery m. Martha B. Jones, 2nd Ann K. Crockett; Sarah Upshaw (1794-1889) m. Dr. W. A. Massie; Elizabeth J. Upshaw m. Thos. Harwood, Tenn.; Harriet Upshaw m. Wm. M. Hawkins.

In 1820 there were no Upshaws in Giles Co., Tenn., but the 1830 Giles Co. census records show most of this family of Upshaws in Giles Co. Lewis Green Upshaw, Mason Tazewell Upshaw, Arthur Martin Montgomery Upshaw, John Hawkins, husband of Maria, and Wm. Hawkins, husband of Louisa, were all there. . .

"Plymouth Armada Heroes: The Hawkins Family"

This is a most interesting book for anyone who wishes to study the early history and lineage of the Hawkins family in England as the lineage presented dates back into the fifteenth century. This compiler did not find clues for connecting the Virginia Hawkins family to any of those who lived in England in the 1600's as outlined in detail in this record of Armada Heroes.

Also, see "Genesis," by Alexander Brown, Vol. II, p. 915, for more records on John Hawkins of Tavistock and his ancestor, Sir John Trelewney.
