EDITOR'S NOTE:

There were some close ties between the families of Warren C. Holiman (06H06) and Uriah H. Holliman (06H02). Two of Warren C. Holiman's (06H06) children, John T. "Black John" Holiman (07H79) and Sarah F. Holiman (07H09), married children of Uriah H. Holliman (06H02).

Interestingly, these marriages were connected by the fact that Charles Holliman (05H03), father of Warren C. Holiman (06H06) which was the father of John T. "Black John" Holiman (07H79) and Sarah F. Holliman (07H81) ...

- AND -

Cornelius Holliman (05H01), father of Uriah H. Holliman (06H02) which was the father of Rebecca Holliman (07H11) and William Perry Holliman (07H09), were two of the original brothers that moved to Fayette County, Alabama, in 1836. As information has developed over many years, this has become a documented fact. I suppose you call them third cousins?
