costs; the other for the sum of $53.09 with the further sum of $4.90 for costs and charges on all which Judgments, Executions were issued by James Ellis, against the goods and chattles lands and tenements of George Cassle against whom said Judgments were recovered, and there being no goods and chattles found, they were levied on the aforesaid lands and tenements as the property of George Cassle. Executions were levied by the legal officers and returned to the court and thereupon issued the above named Orders of Sale, and the Writ of Fieri Facias above mentioned was founded on a Judgment Hugh Martin, survivor of the late firm of King and Martin, assignee of Thomas Rodgers, recovered in said court at the December Sessions 1812 against George Cassle for the sum of $227.26 debt and the further sum of $7.57 1/2 for costs and charges, which George Cassle was convict and liable, as appeared to said court of record, which Orders of Sale were directed to said Sheriff commanding him to expose to publick sale the above lands and the Writ of Fieri Facias was also directed to said Sheriff commanding him that of the goods and chattles lands and tenements of George Cassle he should make the aforesaid sums. Whereas said Sheriff, by virtue of said Writ and Orders of Sale, did advertise and duly publish that on 6 Mar 1813, he would expose to publick sale at the Court House in Dandridge, the above described tracts, and at said sale, Hugh Martin was highest bidder. Wit: Nathaniel Mitchell; Silas Gentry. /s/ James Bradford, Sheriff Second Circuit. January Term 1814. Then was the within deed acknowledged in open court and recorded. Let it be registered. I, Alex S. Outlaw, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, have hereunto set my hand and private seal (there being no seal of office) in Dandridge the third Monday of January 1814.
