

DR. JOSHUA C. HOLLIMAN. Born February 23, 1823, in Lancaster County, S.C. came to Alabama with his parents Cornelius Holliman and wife Mary Plyler Holliman in 1836. Evidently studied medicine as an apprentice under Dr. Conner of Choctaw and Carrol Counties, Miss. Is reputed to have taken courses of study in University of Alabama, (although no record there of his attendance - probably studied at Medical Col. of Mobile, and under a Prof. Sullivan of S.C., who evidently was a teacher at Univ. of Penn. At any rate he practiced medicine in Fayette County, Alabama during Civil War times. Said to have married two times. His first wife died in 1843 (He would have then been 20 years of age). He moved to Carrol County, Mississippi where he married Rachel A. Martin in 1845. She was daughter of John Martin.. He moved back to Fayette County, Alabama, and then returned to Mississippi around 1865, thence to Arkansas in 1867. He and his wife had 13 children, viz:

Reynolds

1. James W. Holliman,
2. S.S.B. Holliman,
3. William W. Holliman,
4. Cornelius Holliman,
5. Joshua C. Holliman,
6. Fannie B. Holliman, married Shelby J. Johnson,
7. Sarah E. Holliman, married Leroy Cloninger.
8. Emma N. Holliman, married Barnett.
9. Joshanna J. Holliman,
10. Fredonia Holliman,
11. Nancy E. Holliman.
12. Martha Holliman.
13. Vida Erse Holliman.

This family dropped an "L" from the spelling of their family name in Ark. When Grant County, Arkansas, was formed from parts of Jefferson, Saline and Hot Springs Counties, Dr. Holliman was the first Coroner of the County, serving from 1869 to 1872. At one time he resided at Magnet Cove, some eighteen miles from Benton, Arkansas. He is reported to have died in Garland County (Hot Springs Township). This from Goodspeed's Arkansas.

From this same record:

William E. Poe married Sarah E. Holliman, daughter of Joshua Holliman on December 27, 1876. Page 781.

Benjamin E. Reynolds, farmer of DeKalb Township, in Grant County, and formerly from Fayette County, Alabama, was born in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama, on January 7, 1848 He was a son of Benjamin and Sarah Nall Reynolds, both natives of Alabama. Benjamin Sr., died in Alabama. His family moved to Arkansas in 1851 with the Nall family. Benjamin E. Reynolds, Jr., married Mary M. Holliman, daughter of Hon. Warren Holliman in 1870. Page 784

Deed Book 12-E, page 799. DR. JOSHUA C. HOLLIMAN of the County of Choctaw, Mississippi gave a power of attorney to JOHN HOLLIMAN, of said County with broad powers, to sell lands in Fayette and Marion Counties, Alabama for such price as John may see fit, mentions "all my lands in Fayette and Marion Counties, Alabama". This evidently relates to the Cornelius Holliman Estate, as Cornelius died in 1862.

This John Holliman was thought to have been a brother of Cornelius, Charles and Warren Holliman, who came to Fayette County, Alabama in 1836.

DR. JOSHUA HOLIMAN, Born February 3, 1823, in Lancaster County, South Carolina, came to Alabama with his parents, Cornelius Holliman, and wife Elizabeth Plyler Holliman in 1836. Evidently studied medicine as an apprentice under Dr. Conner, of Choctaw and Carrol Counties, Mississippi; is reputed to have taken courses in medical study at University of Alabama (probably Medical College at Mobile, Alabama), and under Prof. Sullivan of the University of Pennsylvania. At any rate he practiced medicine in Fayette County, Alabama, during Civil War times. Said to have married two times, his first wife died in 1843. Moved to Carrol County, Mississippi, where he married Rachel A. Martin in 1845. She was a daughter of John Martin. Dr. JOSHUA C. HOLIMAN, (D-229)

Rawlston

Born February 3rd, 1823 in South Carolina, died in Garland County, Arkansas, ca 1902, and buried in an unmarked grave on Holliman Hill Farm. He attended the University of Alabama, the University of Pennsylvania, and in 1852 practiced medicine for a time in the Bluff Community, Fayette County, Alabama. He was a methodist until 1843 when he joined the Baptist Church. He supposedly had a first wife who died around 1843. Present unconfirmed research indicates there may have been two daughters by this first marriage. (I do not agree with this supposition, CRH). He married for the second time in 1845 to Rachel A. Martin, daughter of John Martin, of Choctaw County, Mississippi, and is listed in that Census in 1850. Shown in 1860 Census of Fayette County, Alabama, and 1870 Census of Hot Springs County, Arkansas, and in 1880 Census of Garland County, Arkansas. The deed to the Holiman Hill Property indicates the purchase was made in 1867, and as J. Holiman he is listed as the first Coroner of Grant County, Arkansas, 1869-1872. It is supposed that Rachel, his wife, died around 1885. She was aged 56 years in 1880. Records at the Garland County Court House indicate that he may have had a late in life marriage. There is a marriage of Josh C. Holiman to Elizabeth Pitman, age 47, on October 3, 1889, also another marriage of Joshua C. Holiman to Susan Holliman on June 5, 1874. This last marriage however, may have been his son Jos. C. Holiman, as his wife was remembered as Susan.

Goodspeed's History of Central Arkansas states that Joshua C. Holiman was the father of thirteen children, viz:

1. Nancy E. Holiman, (named by Goodspeed).
2. Martha C. Holiman, "Mattie", married Poor or Poer. In 1880 Census of Hot Springs Township, Garland County, Ark. D-230 Wm. H. Poer, age 30, born Ala, wife: Mattie, age 23, born Ala, with two children, both born in Louisiana, Ada, age 11, and Selma, age 10.

(These two girls may have been of the first marriage, because they are not listed as living with their father in the 1860, 1870 or 1880 Census records, and may have been living with their mother's people. There is some question on this).

3. James W. Holiman, born ca 1848 in Miss, age 12 years in 1860 Census, not located in 1870 Census, but gave his age as 24 years on December 10, 1872, in Hot Springs County when he married Mary E. Henson. He supposedly died soon thereafter. Should check 1880 Census of Grant County, Ark. on this child.
4. Stephen Burnett Holiman (S.S.B. Holiman), born ca 1850 in Mississippi. Died ca 1905 in Arkansas. Listed as "Thornton" age 10, in 1860 Census of Fayette County, Alabama, and as "Beren", age 20, in 1870 Census of Hot Springs County, Arkansas. He married on October 17, 1872, Virginia Chamberline in Hot Springs County, and is listed in that County in 1880 Census, Magnet Cove Township. There were eleven children.
