NEALE FAMILY OF CHARLES COUNTY.

BY CHRISTOPHER JOHNSTON.

A pedigree published in the Visitations of Bedfordshire (Harl. Soc., xix, 43, 125, 185.) begins with

1. JOHN NEALE¹ of the County of Stafford, father of
2. THOMAS NEALE² of Ellesborough, in the county of Bucks. He married Emlyn daughter of — Cheshire of Willington, in Shropshire, and had issue:—
 - i. RICHARD NEALE³ of Deane Co., Bedford; mar. Alice dau. and h. of Thos. Moore of Burton, in the County of Bucks.
3. ii. THOMAS NEALE of Yelden, Co. Bedford, second son.
3. THOMAS NEALE³ of Yelden, Co. Bedford, second son of Thomas Neale of Ellesborough, married Goditha daughter of Richard Throckmorton Esq. of Higham Park, Co. Northampton, whose pedigree is given in the William and Mary Quarterly (Vol. iii, p. 46), and had issue:—
 4. i. JOHN NEALE,⁴ son and heir, of Yelden, Co. Bedford, and Wollaston, Co. Northants.
 - ii. RAPHAEL NEALE.
 - iii. JANE NEALE, mar. Henry St. John of Keyso, Co. Bedford.
 - iv. MARGARET NEALE, mar. Nicholas Franklin of Thurslie, Co. Bedford.
 - v. ALICE NEALE, mar. Robert FitzJeffrey of Mylton, Co. Bedford.
4. JOHN NEALE⁴ of Yelden, Co. Bedford and of Wollaston, Co. Northampton, eldest son of Thomas Neale, was twice married. His first wife was Jane, daughter of Marlyon Ryve of Lysse, Co. Southampton. His second wife was Grace daughter of John Butler of Cotkenles (or Coytkenles), Co. Pembroke. By his first wife Jane, John Neale had issue:—
 - i. GEORGE NEALE⁵ son and heir.
 - ii. KATHERINE NEALE.

John Neale had issue by his second wife Grace as follows:—

- i. JOHN NEALE⁵ of Wollaston, Co. Northampton; mar. 1^o Elizabeth dau. of George FitzGeoffrey, 2^o Elizabeth dau. of Richard Conquest; had issue by both marriages.

- ii. HENRY NEALE of Houghton, Co. Northampton, 1618; mar. Elizabeth dau. of Edward Lacon of Willey, in Shropshire.
5. iii. RAPHAEL NEALE of Drury Lane, London.
- iv. ELIZABETH NEALE.
- v. THOMAS NEALE.
- vi. EDMUND NEALE.
- vii. HENRY NEALE.
- viii. JANE NEALE.
- ix. GRACE NEALE.
- x. ELLEN NEALE mar. Stephen Dryden, of Bulwike, Co. Northampton, brother to Erasmus Dryden.
- xi. FRANCES NEALE mar. Robert Freeman of Whitton and Houghton, Co. Huntingdon.
- xii. MARGARET NEALE, mar. . . . Cromer.

5. RAPHAEL NEALE⁵ "of Drury Lane in London" married, according to the Visitation pedigree, "Jane widow of — Forman Docter of physick" and the Genealogist (New Series, vol. vii, p. 31) has the entry: "9 July 1612, married with License, Raphael Neale and Jane Forman." In another reference to this Raphael Neale, he is styled "of Wollaston." "13 April 17 James I. (1618), William Rowe Gent. enters recognizance to appear and answer for his part in an affray recently fought with drawn swords between him and a certain Raphell Neale of Wolleston, Co. Northampton, gentleman" (Middlesex Records II, 145). Raphael Neale and Jane his wife had a son:—

6. i. JAMES NEALE⁶; b. 1615; d. 1684.

6. JAMES NEALE⁶, son of Raphael and Jane Neale, was, according to the Visitation pedigree, "3 yere old 1618," and was therefore born in 1615. He came to Maryland about 1636 or 1637. 19 June 1641, James Neale, Gent., demands 1000 acres of land due him for transporting himself and five servants into the Province "since the year 1635" (Land Office, Lib. ABII, fol. 95; Md. Hist. Mag., vi, 200), and he appears upon record as living in Maryland in 1638 (Md. Archives, iii, 78), so that he must have arrived in the Province between 1635 and 1638. In accordance with his entry of rights, mentioned above, he received a warrant for 1000 acres which he assigned to Thomas Hebdon. But he had received a special warrant from Lord Baltimore, dated at London 25 July 1641, and by the terms of this warrant he received a patent, dated 31 October 1642, for a manor of 2000 acres "to be called Wolleston Mannor, with Court Leet and Court Baron" etc. (Md. Hist. Mag. vi, 201-202). This manor, situated in what was later Charles

County, was long the principal residence of the Neale Family. The fact that James Neale called his Maryland manor "Wollaston," is a strong indication of his descent from the Northamptonshire family, and it may be pretty safely assumed that he was the son of Raphael Neale of Drury Lane, London, and of Wollaston, Co. Northampton, mentioned in the Visitation pedigree. In 1684, James Neale leaves by will "to the poor of St. Giles' Parish, near London, £5—to be sent to Mr. Henry Varrin." This undoubtedly refers to the Parish of St. Giles-in-the-Fields, then and for some time thereafter on the outskirts of London, and it was evidently James Neale's former residence. Drury Lane passes directly through this parish, and it can thus be shown that both Raphael Neale and James Neale were residents of the same London parish. Taken in connection with other points, this bit of evidence would seem to leave little doubt of the identity of James Neale of Maryland with James Neale "3 yere old 1618," the son of Raphael Neale of Drury Lane, London, and Wollaston, Co. Northampton. It should be noted that James Neale of Maryland had a grandson Raphael Neale, and that the name occurs in later generations. In 1642, James Neale was sent to Boston with two pinnaces, commissioned by Gov. Calvert to buy mares and sheep. He arrived in Boston September 1st, but failed in his object, having his money in drafts on Lord Baltimore, not then negotiable on account of the war in England. One of the pinnaces was so rotten and worm-eaten that it had to be abandoned (Neill's Terra Mariae, pp. 73-74). James Neale was commissioned, 15 April 1643, a member of the Council of Maryland (Md. Archives, iii, 131). In January 1643/4, he was indicted for aiding in the escape of Richard Ingle and his ship, the Reformation (Md. Archives, iv, 232) and, 11 February following, he was suspended from the Council for not filing an answer to the indictment (ibid. 250). He filed his answer, however, four days later (15 February), and the suspension was vacated and all proceedings against him stopped on the 12th of March (Md. Archives, iv, 252, 253). 18 November 1643, he was appointed one of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Province of Maryland (Md. Archives, iii, 140) and 18 September 1644, he was again commissioned Councillor

(ibid. 159). Between this last date and the year 1647 he returned to Europe, leaving his father-in-law Benjamin Gill, as his attorney and representative (Md. Archives, iv, 332, 365, 500). During his absence from the Province he resided in Spain and Portugal, where he was engaged in commerce, and was also employed in various affairs by the King and the Duke of York (Md. Archives, ii, 90). In 1660 he was the agent of Lord Baltimore at Amsterdam to protest against the settlement of the Dutch upon the Delaware (Md. Archives, v, 414-415). 9 January 1659/60, Lord Baltimore issued a special order, reciting that whereas Capt. James Neale, formerly an inhabitant of Maryland, has been absent from the province for some years, and now desires to return with his family, there to reside and inhabit, he is to have full liberty so to do, as also to possess such lands as he has a right to, and to enter and trade freely in any port in Maryland (Md. Archives, iii, 386). He returned to Maryland in 1660 and, 20 July of the same year, was appointed commander in chief of an expedition to expel the Dutch from Delaware Bay, but the expedition was not considered advisable by the Council, and was therefore deferred until further orders from Lord Baltimore (Md. Archives, iii, 427-428). James Neale qualified as a member of Council 12 October 1661 (Md. Archives, iii, 434), and sat during the ensuing year, the last Council meeting he attended being 9 April 1662 (ibid. 448). He is not included in the writ issued 20 July 1663 (Md. Archives, i, 460). He represented Charles county in the Assembly 1665-1666 (Md. Archives, ii, 8, 10). In 1683, he was appointed one of the Commissioners for laying out towns and ports in Charles County (Md. Archives, vii, 611). In 1666, he petitioned for and obtained the naturalization of his children Henrietta Maria, James, Dorothy, and Anthony Neale, born of Anne his wife during the time of his abode in foreign parts (Md. Archives, ii, 90). His wife Anne was the daughter of Benjamin Gill of Charles County. Capt. James Neale of Charles County died in 1684, leaving a will dated 27 November 1683, proved 29 March 1684 (Annapolis, Lib. 4, fol. 40). In it he leaves "to my sons James and Anthony Neale," all those tracts of land, negroes &c. which I have formerly given them. To my grandson Raphael Neale, all that 100 acres of land I bought of Arthur Turner in Charles County. To my grand-children Roger, James, and Dorothy Brooke, personal estate, and I appoint my son-in-law William Boarman to oversee it. To my grand-daughter Jane Boarman, personal estate, and I appoint her father William Boarman to oversee it. To my grandson James Lloyd, 5000 lb. tobacco. To Mr. Michael Foster, Mr. Massey, and Mr. Hobart, 3000 lb. Tobacco. To the poor of St. Giles' Parish, near London, £5. to be sent to Mr. Henry Varrin. To my daughter Henrietta Maria Lloyd, personal estate, &c."

The will of Anne Neale of Charles County, widow of James, is dated 28 June 1697, and was proved 3 June 1698 (Charles Co., Lib. A. no. 2, fol. 175). Bequests to grandson Henry Neale; grand-daughter Mary Neale; grand-daughter Elizabeth Neale; sons Anthony and James Neale; my grand-children, the children of Mr. William Boarman. Capt. James Neale and Anne (Gill) his wife had issue:—

- i. HENRIETTA MARIA NEALE, b. 27 March, 1647; d. 21 May, 1697 (epitaph at Wye); mar. 1^o Richard Bennett, Jr. (d. 1667), son of Gov. Richard Bennett of Va., 2^o Col. Philemon Lloyd (d. 1685); see Magazine, i, 73-75.
 7. ii. JAMES NEALE of Wollaston Manor, Charles Co.—d. 1727.
 - iii. DOROTHY NEALE, mar. Roger Brooke (b. 20 Sept., 1637; d. 8 April, 1700) of Calvert Co.
 8. iv. ANTHONY NEALE, of Charles Co., b. 1659; d. 1723.
 - v. JANE NEALE, mar. William Boarman (b. 1654; d. 1720) of Charles Co.
7. JAMES NEALE⁷ of Wollaston Manor, Charles County, was the eldest son of Captain James Neale and Anne (Gill) his wife. He was born during the sojourn of his parents in Europe—perhaps about 1650—and was naturalized by his father in 1666 (Md. Archives, ii, 90). James Neale was twice married. His first wife to whom he was married in 1681, was Elizabeth daughter of Col. William Calvert, Secretary of Maryland and grand-daughter of Gov. Leonard Calvert. 20 December 1681, is the date of the marriage settlement of James Neale, son of James Neale and Ann his wife (daughter and heir of Benjamin Gill deceased), and Elizabeth daughter of Hon. William Calvert and Elizabeth his wife (Prov. Court, Lib. P. L., fol. 884). In 1687, James Neale married his second wife, Elizabeth daughter of Capt. John Lord, of Westmoreland Co., Va. 28 November 1687, John Lord of Washington Parish, Westmoreland Co., Va., conveys land to James Neale of Wollaston, Charles

Co., Md., in consideration of a marriage to be shortly celebrated between the said James Neale and Elizabeth daughter of the said John Lord (Westmoreland Co., Va., Records). 27 May 1696, James Neale of Charles Co. Md., Gent., conveys to John Minor of Westmoreland Co., Va.:—772 acres of land in the last named County, part of 1544 acres patented, 17 April 1667, to Capt. John Lord and William Horton, and which the said John Lord gave to the said James Neale in marriage with his daughter (Westmoreland Co., Va., Records). In 1702, James Neale conveyed to Mary his daughter by his first wife all the land received with Elizabeth Calvert as her marriage portion, showing that Mary was her mother's only child. 10 April 1702, James Neale of Charles Co., Gent., and Elizabeth his wife, convey to Charles Egerton of St. Mary's Co., Gent., who hath lately married Mary daughter of the said James Neale:—600 acres, part of a tract of 3000 acres, formerly in Charles, but now in Prince George's County, patented to William Calvert Esq. and the aforesaid 600 acres thereof given in marriage with his daughter Elizabeth, to the said James Neale (Pr. Geo. Co., Lib. A, 449).

The will of James Neale Senior of Wollaston Manor, Charles County, is dated 1 April 1725, and was proved 11 October 1727 (Annapolis, Lib. 19, fol. 246). It mentions testator's eldest son James Neale; second son Henry Neale; son Benjamin Neale; son William Neale (minor); wife Elizabeth Neale; daughter Mary Deacon, formerly Van Swearingen; daughter Mary Tawney; daughter Ann now wife of Edward Cole; daughter Margaret Neale; daughter Mildred Neale; wife Elizabeth, and sons Benjamin and William executors; daughter Elizabeth Neale (apparently deceased). Mrs. Elizabeth Neale died in 1734, surviving her husband some seven years. The will of Elizabeth Neale of Charles Co., widow, dated 7 January 1733, and proved 22 April 1734, is recorded in Charles Co. (Lib. AC no. 4, fol. 11). She mentions her son William and daughter Mildred Neale, who are constituted executors, with Mr. Edward Cole of St. Mary's Co., Gent., trustee; son Henry Neale; daughter Ann Cole; son Benjamin Neale; daughter Mary Tawney; daughter Margaret Egglin. Mrs. Neale was born in 1667. In a deposition made in 1733, "Madame Elizabeth Neale, widow of James Neale" gives her age as 66 years (Charles Co., Lib. 37, fol. 335). James Neale of Wollaston Manor and Elizabeth (Calvert) his first wife had issue:—

- ✓ i. MARY NEALE, mar. 1^o 1702, Charles Egerton, 2^o Jeremiah Adderton (d. 1713), 3^o Joseph Van Swearingen, 4^o William Deacon.

By his second wife Elizabeth (Lord), James Neale of Wollaston had issue:—

9. i. JAMES NEALE⁶ of Wollaston, d. 1730.
 10. ii. HENRY NEALE, b. 1691; d. 1742.
 11. iii. BENJAMIN NEALE, b. 1702; d. 1745.
 12. iv. WILLIAM NEALE,—d. 1760.
 - v. ANN NEALE, mar. 1715 Edward Cole, Jr. (d. 1761) of St. Mary's Co.; she d. 1768.
 - vi. MARY NEALE mar. Taney.
 - vii. MARGARET NEALE, mar. Egglin (? Edelin?).
 - viii. MILDBED NEALE.
 - ix. ELIZABETH NEALE.
8. ANTHONY NEALE⁷ of Charles County, son of Capt. James Neale and Anne (Gill) his wife, was born in 1659, the year before his parents returned to Maryland. His age is given in depositions as 20 years in 1679 (Charles Co., Lib. 7, fol. 205); 53 years in 1712 (Lib. P. C., fol. 854); and 55 in 1714 (Lib. P. L., fol. 98). 7 March 1686/7, he was commissioned Lieutenant in the Charles County Militia (Md. Archives, v, 539). Anthony Neale was twice married. His first wife was Elizabeth daughter of William Roswell. 10 October 1681, articles of agreement were signed between James Neale of Charles Co., Gent., and William Roswell of said Co., Gent., in contemplation of a marriage between Anthony Neale, son of the said James, and Elizabeth Roswell daughter of the said William (Charles Co., Lib. 8, fol. 132). The second wife of Anthony Neale was Elizabeth daughter of Col. William Digges. Her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Digges, widow of Col. William Digges, in her will dated 13 September 1708, and proved 17 June 1710, mentions "my daughter Elizabeth Neale," and appoints "my sons Charles Digges and Anthony Neale" her executors (Annapolis, Lib. 13, fol. 96). Also Edward Digges, son of Col. William, whose will, dated 10 April 1714, was proved five days later, mentions in it his nephews Henry and Edward Neale, his niece Mary Neale, and his brother Anthony Neale (ibid. fol. 673). 13 November 1716, Anthony Neale of Charles Co. and his son Raphael Neale convey to James Neale son of said Anthony and brother of said Raphael, a tract of 400 acres called Neale's Gift (Charles Co., Lib. 28, fol. 34).

The will of this James, styling himself "James Neale Jr. of Charles County," is dated 28 February 1718/9, and was proved 30 March 1719 (Charles Co., Lib. A. B. no. 3, fol. 138). He mentions only his two brothers Roswell and Raphael Neale, the latter being appointed executor. The will of his father Anthony Neale is dated 12 November 1722, and was proved 12 July 1723 (ibid. fol. 166). It mentions testator's son Raphael Neale; son Henry Neale (minor) intending to be a priest; my four younger children, viz: Edward, Charles, Bennett, and Mary; and my son Roswell Neale.

Anthony Neale and Elizabeth (Roswell) his first wife had issue:—

13. i. RAPHAEL NEALE,⁸ b. 1683; d. 1743.
14. ii. ROSWELL NEALE, b. 1685; d. 1751.
- iii. ANTHONY NEALE, mentioned in will of Wm. Roswell, 1694-5; d. young.
- iv. THOMAS NEALE, mentioned in will of Wm. Roswell, 1694-5; d. young.
- v. JAMES NEALE, d. unmarried 1710.

By his second wife, Elizabeth Digges, Anthony Neale had issue:—

15. i. EDWARD NEALE, b. 1704; d. 28 Dec., 1760.
16. ii. CHARLES NEALE, b. 1705.
17. iii. HENRY NEALE, d. 1767.
- iv. REV. BENNETT NEALE, a priest, b. 3 Aug. 1709; d. 20 March, 1787.
- v. MARY NEALE.

9. JAMES NEALE,⁸ of Wollaston Manor, son of James Neale and Elizabeth (Lord) his wife, was born about 1689, since his parents were married in 1687, and his next younger brother, Henry, was born in 1691. He was twice married, but the name of his first wife does not appear. His second wife was Jane daughter of William Boarman, and they were married not long after 1720. In the latter year, William Boarman made his will (Annapolis, Lib. 16, fol. 67) in which he mentions his daughter Jane Boarman, so that she was not married at that time. The will of Mary, widow of William Boarman, dated 20 February 1732/3, proved 29 November 1733 (Annapolis, Lib. 20, fol. 842) mentions "my daughter Jane Neale." The will of James Neale dated 7 January, proved 8 March, 1730/1 (Charles Co., Lib. AB no. 3, fol. 241) leaves Wollaston Manor to his son James, who is under age; there are bequests to testator's wife Jane and his daughters Jane and Mary Ann; to his daughter Elizabeth he leaves "my land in St. Mary's County which I had with my former wife her mother"; all testator's daughters are under 16.

By his first wife James Neale had:—

- i. ELIZABETH NEALE.⁹

By his second wife Jane (Boarman), he had:—

- i. JAMES NEALE⁹ of Wollaston, a minor in 1730.
- ii. JANE NEALE.
- iii. MARY ANN NEALE.

10. HENRY NEALE,⁸ second son of James and Elizabeth (Lord) Neale, was born in 1691. In a deposition made in 1737, "Mr. Henry Neale of Charles County" gives his age as 46 years (Charles Co., Lib. 38, fol. 427). He married Mary daughter of John Gardiner of St. Mary's County, and she married secondly John Lancaster who died in 1760. In her father's will (1717) she is referred to as "my daughter Mary Gardiner," showing that she was not then married. Her brother Wilfred Gardiner mentions her in his will (dated 9 Sept. 1743, proved 6 June 1744) as "my sister Mary Lancaster"; and her mother Mrs. Mary Slye—for she had married Gerard Slye in 1718 (Accounts, Lib. 1, fol. 311)—mentions "my daughter Mary Lancaster" and "my granddaughter Mary Neale Junior" in her will made in 1744 (Annapolis, Lib. 24, fol. 163). John Lancaster, who died in 1760, mentions "my present wife Mary Lancaster" in his will (Lib. 31, fol. 45), and his widow Mary Lancaster names in her will, dated 16 September, proved 8 October, 1765 (Annapolis, Lib. 33, fol. 419) her children James, Gerard, Richard, Teresa, Mary, and Henrietta Neale; her grandchildren William and Henry Gardiner; and her granddaughter Ann (no surname given). Henry Neale of Charles Co. made his will 3 December 1742, and it was proved 8 March 1742/3 (Annapolis, Lib. 23, fol. 50). He mentions his wife Mary, and his children Richard (to whom he bequeaths "Gill's Land"), Henry, James, Garrett, Sarah, Mary, Teresa, and Henrietta Neale.

Neale

Henry Neale and Mary (Gardiner) his wife had issue:—

- i. RICHARD NEALE,⁹ died 1772 leaving a will wherein he names his two children Henry and Mary Neale.
- ii. HENRY NEALE.
- iii. JAMES NEALE, died unmarried 1772, leaving will dated 1766, wherein he mentions his brothers Richard and Gerard Neale; sister Teresa Lancaster; brother-in-law Richard Brooke; and godson James Brooke.
- iv. GERARD NEALE, mar. circa 1768, Elizabeth widow of James Neale of Charles Co.
- v. SARAH NEALE.
- vi. MARY NEALE.
- vii. TERESA NEALE, mar. . . . Lancaster.
- viii. HENRIETTA NEALE.

11. BENJAMIN NEALE⁸ of Charles County, son of James and Elizabeth (Lord) Neale, was born in 1702 and died in 1745. In a deposition made in 1737, "Mr. Benjamin Neale of Charles County" gives his age as 35 years (Charles Co., Lib. 38, fol. 427). His will dated 15 December, proved 28 January, 1745 (Annapolis, Lib. 24, fol. 307), mentions his son Bennett; son James; daughter Elizabeth Corry; daughter Mary Neale, half the tract given me by Mr. Richard Edelen; daughter Ann Neale; wife Mary executrix, with brother William Neale and brother-in-law Edward Edelen trustees. The wife of Benjamin Neale was Mary daughter of Richard Edelen (b. 1671; d. 1761) of Charles County who mentions in his will (proved 17 Dec. 1761) his grand-daughters Elizabeth Corry and Mary Lancaster, and his granddaughter Ann Neale daughter of Benjamin Neale. The will of Mary Neale of Charles Co., widow of Benjamin, is dated 24 February 1752 and was proved 14 March following (Annapolis, Lib. 28, fol. 293). She mentions her sons James and Bennett Neale; her daughters Ann and Mary Neale, and Elizabeth Corry; and her grand-child Mary Corry. Benjamin Neale and Mary (Edelen) his wife had issue:—

- i. BENNETT NEALE.⁹
- ii. JAMES NEALE.
- iii. ELIZABETH NEALE, d. 1798; mar. John Corry who d. 1772.
- iv. MARY NEALE, mar. . . . Lancaster.
- v. ANN NEALE.

12. WILLIAM NEALE⁸ of Charles County, son of James and Elizabeth (Lord) Neale, died in 1766. His will, dated 29 October, 1765, was proved 10 June, 1766 and is recorded at Annapolis (Lib. 34, fol. 124). In it he names his eldest son John Neale, who is appointed executor; his second son Joseph Neale; his third son William Francis Neale; his daughters Elizabeth, Mary, Ann, Mildred, Catherine, and Sally; and "my sister Cole." The name of his wife does not appear.

- i. JOHN NEALE.⁹
- ii. JOSEPH NEALE.
- iii. WILLIAM FRANCIS NEALE.
- iv. ELIZABETH NEALE, mar. Henry McAtee.
- v. MARY NEALE.
- vi. ANN NEALE.
- vii. MILDRED NEALE.
- viii. CATHERINE NEALE.
- ix. SALLY NEALE.

13. RAPHAEL NEALE⁸ of Charles County, son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Roswell) Neale, was doubtless named for his great-grandfather, Raphael Neale of Drury Lane, London. He was born in 1683, and died in 1743. His age is given in depositions as 49 in 1732 (Charles Co., Lib. 37, fol. 155), 59 in 1742 (ibid. Lib. 39, fol. 425, 464), and 60 in 1743 (ibid. Lib. 39, fol. 663). He married Mary daughter of Baker Brooke of St. Mary's Co., and Ann his wife daughter of Gov. Leonard Calvert (see Magazine, i, 69-70, 184). She survived him some twenty years, and died in 1763. The will of Raphael Neale of Charles County, dated 20 July 1743, was proved 10 December of the same year (Charles Co., AC no. 4, fol. 178). In it he bequeaths to John Lancaster the land he lives on for life, and after his death it is to go to the heirs of my daughter Elizabeth Lancaster; testator makes bequests to his daughters Mary Taney, Henrietta Neale, Monica Digges, and Ann Thompson: "I desire that what appears to be due to my grand-children the Hoskins be fully paid, including what Mary Hoskins, now Mary Boarman, hath already had" etc.; my grand-children Ann Hoskins, Mary Boarman, Raphael Taney, John and Joseph Lancaster; my wife executrix. The accounts etc. show that his wife's name was Mary. The following document from the Charles Co. Records (A. I., part 2, fol. 359) throws much light on Raphael Neale's family. 26 June, 1755, Partition of Wollaston Manor. John Lancaster, Jr., son and heir of Elizabeth Lancaster deceased, eldest daughter of Raphael Neale deceased; Thomas Taney who married Mary a daughter of Raphael Neale; Basil Brooke who married Henrietta another daughter; Ann Thompson, widow, another daughter; Edward Digges married Monica, another daughter; Richard Bennett Boarman married Mary daughter of Bennett Hoskins and Eleanor his wife, which Eleanor was also daughter of Raphael Neale. The will of Mary (Brooke) Neale widow of Raphael is dated 29 September 1760, and was proved 24 May, 1763. She mentions her daughters Ann Thompson, Mary Taney, and Henrietta Brooke; her grandchildren Eleanor Thompson, Raphael Thompson, Mary Eleanor Combs, John Francis Taney, Raphael Brooke, John Digges, and Eleanor Digges; and her sons-in-law John Lancaster, Edward Digges, Thomas Taney, and Basil Brooke.

Raphael Neale and Mary (Brooke) his wife had issue:—

- i. ELIZABETH NEALE,⁹ dead in 1743; mar. John Lancaster.
- ii. MARY NEALE, mar. Thomas Taney, who d. 1762.
- iii. HENRIETTA NEALE, d. 1774; mar. Basil Brooke (b. 16 Nov. 1717; d. 1761).
- iv. ANN NEALE, mar. James Thompson.
- v. MONICA NEALE, mar. Edward Digges.
- vi. ELEANOR NEALE, mar. Bennett Hoskins (d. 1734).

14. ROSWELL NEALE,⁸ of St. Mary's County, second son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Roswell) Neale, was born in 1685 and died 24 March 1751. His age is given as 59 years in a deposition made in 1744 (Charles Co., Lib. 40, fol. 222), and his will was proved in 1751. He was twice married. His first wife was Mary (d. 1716) daughter of Capt. George Brent of Woodstock, Stafford Co., Va., and Mary his second wife (mar. 27 March 1687; d. 20 March 1693/4) widow of Col. William Chandler (d. 1685) and daughter of Henry Sewall Esq. (Va. Mag. of H. and B., xii, 443). Her sister Martha Brent in her will dated 7 April, proved 12 May 1715 (Annapolis, Lib. 14, fol. 63), mentions "my sister Mary Neale," and "my brother Oswald (i. e. Roswell) Neale"; and her half brother William Chandler of Charles Co., whose will, dated 19 August 1725, was proved 17 Sept. 1730 (Annapolis, Lib. 20, fol. 75), names in it "William Neale (under 18) son and heir of my deceased sister Mary Neale," and "my nephew Henry Neale second son of my said sister."

He also mentions "my two nephews Mr. Edward Neale, and Mr. Charles Neale." The last two persons mentioned cause a certain difficulty. William Neale, a boy under 18, is expressly stated by William Chandler to have been the "son and heir" (i. e. the eldest son) of his deceased sister Mary, and Henry Neale was her second son. If now Edward and Charles were also her sons they could hardly have been much over 9 or 10 years old, and it seems strange that they should be styled "Mr." Besides they are not mentioned in the will of Roswell Neale or, indeed, anywhere else. One is inclined to suspect that William Chandler refers here to Edward and Charles sons of Anthony Neale, who may have been his nephews through some marriage or in some way not now apparent. They were certainly the sons of his first cousin Elizabeth Digges. The second wife of Roswell Neale was Elizabeth daughter of John Blakistone of St. Mary's County. Her brother Thomas Blakistone in his will, dated 10 November 1742, and proved 8 December following (Annapolis, Lib. 23, fol. 15) mentions his "sister Elizabeth Neale," his "brother Roswell Neale," and James, Bennett, and Raphael Neale sons of Roswell Neale. The will of Roswell Neale, of St. Mary's County, is dated 24 March, 1751 and was proved 7 May following (Annapolis, Lib. 28, fol. 61). He mentions his wife Elizabeth; his three daughters Anne wife of William Gibson, Mary Wheeler, and Elizabeth Neale. To my two sons William and Henry Neale each one shilling, and I confirm what I have already given them; my present wife; my four sons James, Raphael, Bennett, and Jeremiah Neale executors.

Roswell Neale had issue by his first wife Mary (Brent):—

18. i. WILLIAM NEALE, d. 1763.
- ii. HENRY NEALE, b. 1713; d. 23 Nov. 1760.

By his second wife Elizabeth (Blakistone), Roswell Neale had issue:—

19. i. JAMES NEALE, d. 14 January, 1753.
- ii. RAPHAEL NEALE, b. 1724; d. 6 April, 1787; mar., 9 July, 1749, Elizabeth dau. of John and Eleanor Digges.
- iii. BENNETT NEALE of St. Mary's Co., d. 1771.
- iv. JEREMIAH NEALE, d. 19 Oct., 1808; mar. Jane — and had issue.

*Darnall
Neale*

- v. ANN NEALE, d. 29 Nov., 1789; mar. William Gibson.
- vi. MARY NEALE, mar. Wheeler.
- vii. ELIZABETH NEALE.

15. EDWARD NEALE,^s of Queen Anne's County, son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Digges) Neale, was born in 1704 and died 28 December, 1760. His epitaph at Bolingly, near Queenstown, Queen Anne Co., states that he was aged 60 years at his death, but this is probably erroneous since, in a deposition made in 1742, he states his age as 38 years (Charles Co., Lib. 39, fol. 379) and this would place his birth in 1704. Edward Neale was twice married. His first wife was Mary daughter of Col. Henry Lowe of St. Mary's County, and proof of the marriage will be found in the Md. Historical Magazine, ii, 181, 281. There is also a deed, recorded in Baltimore County (Lib. IS. no. K, fol. 91), and dated 27 August, 1729, conveying certain property to John Digges, the grantors being:—Charles Digges of Prince George's Co., Gent., and Susanna his wife, Henry Darnall of Portland Manor, Anne Arundel Co., Gent., and Elizabeth his wife, Francis Hall of Pr. George's Co. and Dorothy his wife—three of the heirs of Nicholas Lowe Esq. late of St. Mary's Co. deceased—and Edward Neale of Charles Co., Gent., who intermarried with Mary (since deceased) another sister of the said Nicholas. It will be observed that Mary wife of Edward Neale was dead in 1729. His second wife was named Mary, but her parentage is unknown. According to a notice in the Md. Gazette of 1 Jan'y 1761, she died the day after her husband—29 Dec. 1760. The enumeration of the heirs of Richard Bennett shows that Edward Neale and his first wife, Mary Lowe, had two daughters viz:—Eleanor wife of Henry Rozer, and Mary (dead in 1749) wife of Nicholas Digges (Test. Proc. xxxiv, 276 ff.). Edward Neale's daughter Mrs. Martha Hall died, according to her epitaph at Bolingly, 31 May, 1789 aged 50 years and 5 months so that she was born 31 December, 1737, and could not possibly have been the daughter of the first wife, Mary Lowe. The will of Edward Neale of Queen Anne Co., dated 22 Dec., 1760 and proved 6 Feb'y (Qu. Anne Co. WILN. no. 1, fol. 243) mentions daughter Martha wife of Francis Hall; daughter Eleanor wife of Henry Rosier; grand-daughter Miss Eleanor Digges; sons-in-law Henry Rosier and Francis Hall executors; a sum of money to Mr.

John Lewis of Cecil Co., to buy a piece of land to live on near the Congregation of the Catholics in Queen Anne County. By his first wife, Mary Lowe, Edward Neale had issue:—

- i. MARY NEALE,⁸ dead in 1749, mar. Nicholas Digges (d. 1750).
- ii. ELEANOR NEALE, mar. Henry Rozer of Notley Hall, Pr. Geo. Co.

Edward Neale had issue by his second wife Mary — :—

- i. MARTHA NEALE, b. 31 Dec., 1737; d. 31 May, 1789; mar. Francis Hall.

16. CHARLES NEALE,⁸ son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Digges) Neale, was born in 1705. In a deposition made in 1744 he gives his age as 39 years (Charles Co., Lib. 40, fol. 223). Charles Neale married Mary widow of Clement Brooke, Jr. who died in 1732 (Magazine i, 286), and after 1744 removed to Frederick County. 6 October, 1769, Charles Neale of Frederick Co. and Mary, his wife, convey to George Fraser Hawkins of Prince George's Co., all the lands devised to said Mary by her former husband Clement Brooke, Jr., in trust for the use of Rachel Darnall, daughter of the said Mary, and not subject to the control of the husband of said Rachel Darnall, (Pr. Geo. Co., Lib. A. A., fol. 67).

Charles Neale and Mary his wife are said to have had issue:—

- i. ELIZABETH NEALE,⁹ mar., before 1754, Leonard Smith of Frederick Co.
- ii. MARY NEALE, d. before 1786; mar. Benjamin Smith.
- iii. HENRIETTA NEALE, mar. Lawrence O'Neal of Montgomery Co.

17. HENRY NEALE⁸ of St. Mary's County, son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Digges) Neale, is said in his father's will (dated 12 Nov., 1722) to be a minor, and he died in 1767. He married, in 1744, Ann daughter of Gerard Slye and widow of Francis Ignatius Boardman (b. 1701; d. 1743). Her father's will (1733) refers to her as "my daughter Ann Boardman;" in the will of Mrs. Mary Slye, widow of Gerard, (1744-45) she is called "my daughter Ann Neale;" and the will of her brother George Slye mentions "my nephews Mr. Wilfred Neale, and Mr. Henry Neale" (1773). The will of Henry Neale of St. Mary's County, dated 20 Nov., 1766 and proved 9 Feb'y, 1767 (Annapolis, Lib. 35, fol. 116) mentions testator's son Wilfred Neale;

my two daughters Mary Roach and Henrietta Ford; my son Henry Neale.

Henry Neale and Ann (Slye) his wife had issue:—

- i. WILFRED NEALE,⁹
- ii. HENRY NEALE.
- iii. MARY NEALE, mar. Roach.
- iv. HENRIETTA NEALE, mar. Ford.

18. WILLIAM NEALE,⁹ son of Roswell and Mary (Brent) Neale, was under 18 years of age in 1725, the date of his uncle William Chandler's will, so that he could not have been born before 1707, and he could not have been born after 1716, since his mother died in that year. He was probably born about 1710, and he died in 1763. He married Ann daughter of Leonard Brooke (d. 1718) and Ann his wife daughter of Maj. William Boardman (Magazine, i, 184-185). The will of William Neale of Charles County, dated 3 February 1763 and proved five days later (8 Feb'y), is recorded at Annapolis (Lib. 31, fol. 1027). Testator desires to be buried near a tombstone beside my two children at the Chapel Point; mentions my son Raphael (minor); my youngest son Francis Ignatius Neale; my wife Ann Neale; my son Charles Neale; my son Leonard Neale; my daughter Clare Neale; my daughter Mary Matthews; my son-in-law William Matthews; my son William Chandler Neale.

William Neale and Ann (Brooke) his wife had issue:—

- i. REV. WILLIAM CHANDLER NEALE,¹⁰ a priest, b. 1743; d. in England, 1799.
 - ii. MOST REV. LEONARD NEALE, b. 15 Oct., 1746; d. 15 June, 1817; Archbishop of Baltimore, 1815-1817.
 - iii. RAPHAEL NEALE, mar., in England, Sarah Howard, and left issue.
 - iv. REV. CHARLES NEALE, a priest, b. 10 Feb., 1751; d. 1823.
 - v. REV. FRANCIS IGNATIUS NEALE, b. June, 1756; d. 1838; a priest.
 - vi. CLARE NEALE, mar. 1^o Henry Brent, 2^o George Slye.
 - vii. MARY NEALE, mar. William Matthews.
19. BENNETT NEALE⁹ of St. Mary's County, son of Roswell and Elizabeth (Blakistone) Neale, died 27 Feb. 1771. His wife Mary survived him over twenty years and died in 1792. The will of Bennett Neale, dated 23 February, 1771, and proved 23 May following, is recorded at Annapolis (Lib. 38, fol. 453). He mentions his eldest son Benoni Neale; second son Charles Neale; daughter Eliza-both wife of Kenelm Cheseldyne; wife Mary; my five children, Sarah, Ann, Eleanor, Benoni, and Charles. The will of his widow, Mary Neale of St. Mary's Co., dated 6 Dec., 1790, proved 23 Jan'y, 1792, is recorded in St. Mary's County (Lib. JJ. no. 2, fol. 13). She mentions her daughter Susanna Greenfield; daughters Sarah, Ann, and Eleanor Neale; to my two sons Benoni (executor) and Charles Neale, equally between them, all my part of my grand-daughter Mary Cheseldyne's personal estate given me by her will. Witnesses: Edward Neale, Joseph Neale. The will of Mrs. Neale's grand-daughter, to which she refers, is as follows:—Mary Neale Cheseldyne of St. Mary's County, will dated 16 Oct. 1790, proved 7 March, 1791 (St. Mary's Co., Lib. JJ. no. 1, fol. 529). My grandmother Mary Neale, and my aunts Sarah, Ann, and Eleanor Neale; my uncle Benoni Neale executor. The "daughter Susanna Greenfield" named by Mrs. Neale, was the wife of Truman Greenfield who died in 1775. She is not mentioned in the will of Bennett Neale, so it is possible that she was the daughter of Mrs. Mary Neale by a former marriage.

Bennett Neale and Mary his wife had issue:—

- i. BENONI NEALE.¹⁹
- ii. CHARLES NEALE.
- iii. ELIZABETH NEALE, mar. Kenelm Cheseldyne, and had a dau., Mary Neale Cheseldyne, who d. in 1791.
- iv. SARAH NEALE.
- v. ANN NEALE.
- vi. ELEANOR NEALE.

BENJAMIN GILL, father-in-law of Capt. James Neale, came to Maryland in 1642. Cecilius Calvert, Lord Baltimore, in a letter of introduction to his brother Gov. Leonard Calvert, dated 16 Nov., 1642, directs that whereas this year John Pile and Benjamin Gill intend to transport themselves and others into Maryland, acting in partnership, they are to have 100 acres apiece for themselves, and land in proportion for others transported, according to the conditions of plantation bearing date 10 Nov., 1641 (Land Office, Lib. 4, fol. 543). 29 October, 1649, Benjamin Gill demands 1000 acres for transporting himself and others into the Province in the year 1642, and a warrant issued to lay out the land next to the land of Mr. James Neale (Land Office, Lib. A. B. H., fol. 27). 20 July, 1660, Lord Baltimore, in a letter to Philip Calvert directs that whereas Capt. James Neale married the daughter and heir-ess of Benjamin Gill, the said Capt. Neale is to have the land due said Benjamin Gill by warrant dated 1 Nov. 1642 (Land Office, Lib. 4, fol. 543). Benjamin Gill died, 22 November, 1655, at the house of Nicholas Causin at Port Tobacco, Charles Co., having made a verbal will whereby he left (among other bequests) a legacy of 500 pounds of tobacco to his cousin Robert Cole of St. Mary's Co., and directed that, in case his son-in-law James Neale did not return to Maryland, his estate should be divided by his executors (Prov. Court, Lib. S., fol. 126-130).
