BENNETT SMITH and ROBERT WILLIAMSON. These all attended court from other parts of the country, as some met in BUNCOMBE. The first lawyer who actually lived in BUNCOMBE COUNTY was ROBERT HENRY, who was admitted to practice at the JULY Term of Court in 1802. He was a native of LINCOLN COUNTY and had a most interesting history.

MORE LAWYERS. The lawyers who were admitted and licensed to practice in the Courts of BUNCOMBE after ROBERT HENRY and between the year 1804 and up to 1812 were THOMAS BARNOW, ISRAEL PICKENS, who afterwards was Governor of ALABAMA, Joseph Wilson, Joseph Carson, ROBERT BURTON, who was a Judge on the Bench, HENRY HARRISON, Sanders Donoho, John C. Elliott, HENRY Y. WREB, Neush Cox, Jr., A. R. Ruffin, and JOHN PATTON, a Judge of some distinction.

JOHN BURTON received a grant of land JULY 7, 1794, which he divided into town lots, thus giving the first start to what is now the CITY of ASHVILLE.

SAMUEL LUSEK in 1795 bought Lot No. 13. COL. WILLIAM DAVIDSON bought Lot No. 21. JAMES DAVIDSON bought Lot No. 26. HUGH TATE bought half of Lot No. 13, from the original purchaser, SAMUEL LUSEK. JOHN PATTON bought Lot No. 16. PATTON & ERWIN bought Lot No. 4.

This list, of course, constitutes an incomplete list of the original purchasers of lots in what is now the City of Ashville.

PATTON & ERWIN afterwards acquired an interest in the BURTON property and sold off large numbers of the lots as the town gradually began to expand and grow.

A FEW EARLY DEEDS IN BUNCOMBE

ELSON DAVIS sells 5 acres of land on TURKEY CREEK to JOSEPH HARRISON, January 25, 1811. Book D p 127.

CLIMBERT DAVIS sold JOSEPH HARRISON 100 acres of land on TURKEY CREEK Sept. 29, 1810. Book D. page 97.

JACOB KEILER sold THOMAS HARRISON, 100 acres of land on TURKEY CREEK, March 22, 1802. Book E, p. 347.

REV. JOSEPH HARRISON, ancestor of the HARRISONS who figure in most of the above recorded deeds in BUNCOMBE COUNTY at about the time or a little after its formation, was a revolutionary soldier, and a contemporary of RICHARD GENTRY, AARON JOHNSON, WILLIAM BALDWIN, RICHARD JACKS and DAVID SMITH. Rev. Harrison was the minister of the historic old "FORKS BAPTIST CHURCH" of Western North Carolina.

A revolutionary soldier's marker has been placed at his grave in the old TURKEY CREEK burying ground near LITCHESTER, a short distance from ASHVILLE, where he lived at the time of his death, on which the date of his birth is given as 1733 and his death as 1811.

The account of the marking of his grave declares that his wife was MARGARET HILL, who was the daughter of a N. C. revolutionary soldier. His descendants do not agree on a list of his children. We think they were probably:

ANSON COUNTY. It's ancestor is NEW HANOVER COUNTY, which was formed in 1728, from which BLENKEN COUNTY was taken in 1734, and thereafter in 1749 ANSON was established out of a part of BLENKEN, so that, genealogically speaking, NEW HANOVER was the grandfather of ANSON. For a period of FOUR years ANSON COUNTY comprehended all of the Western Part of the State, and except for claims of the Indians extended through Tennessee to the Mississippi River. Deeds or grants of land located in ANSON COUNTY between 1749 and 1763, otherwise not identified, may have been anywhere WEST of Wadesboro, the county seat in this day. ROWAN COUNTY was carved out of this huge area in 1753 & embraced approximately the Northern half of ANSON including SURREY, WILKES, IREDELL and all that tier of counties; deeds, grants and other such instruments for the following NINE YEARS (1753 to 1762) labelled ANSON belonged somewhere in the area now covered from WADESBORO, West to the Tennessee line including Union, Meclenburg, Cabarrus, Lincoln, Gaston, Rutherford and other counties farther on West. In 1762 both Mecklenburg and Tryon were established, but after SEVEN YEARS, Tryon was abolished and LINCOLN and RUTHERFORD in (1779) came into existence. Rutherford was the BIG COUNTY and extended to Tennessee, while LINCOLN included only its present area and the new county of GASTON. All this to enable the reader to more clearly "place" records here cited from ANSON COUNTY, by a comparison of these dates. (Authority: Wheeler.)

The following items are taken from the records of ANSON COUNTY, N. C. on file at WADESBORO, the county seat:

SOME RECORDS FROM CASWELL COUNTY

CASWELL COUNTY - GENEALOGY. According to WHEELER Caswell County is a descendant of two of the old original precincts, CRAVEN and BLADEN. In 1751, ORANGE, its immediate parent was formed from GRANVILLE, JOHNSTON and BLADEN. Edgecombe and Johnston both came from CRAVEN, and GRANVILLE was taken also from Craven. From 1746 until 1751, FIVE YEARS, Caswell territory was a part of GRANVILLE, and after that until 1777, for 26 years it was a part of ORANGE until the Legislative Act that established it as CASWELL. All instruments between 1751 and 1777 in the territory that is now CASWELL bore the name of ORANGE, and for five years prior to that period GRANVILLE. The leading men of CASWELL in its earliest years was JAMES WILLIAMSON, COL. JOHN WILLIAMS (brother of JAMES WILLIAMS, the gallant officer killed at King's Mountain during the revolution), the GRAYES, BURTONS, SEKINGTONS, LEAS, Duke Lea family of Tennessee) Marmaduke WILLIAMS, COLULUS SANDIDERS, BARKLETT YANCEY, the McADENS, BROWNS and KERRS, according to WHEELER'S records. Polly Payne Madison is said to have been born in CASWELL COUNTY. In our visits to YANCEYVILLE we collected the following records:

ROBERT RAY left will in 1786 in which he mentions his wife ANNIE and his children, without naming them. (W. B. B p. 138).

WADDY TATE, died leaving will in (1789) in which he mentions his wife ANN TATE and his children, without naming them. His wife ANN and friend TYRE HARRIS Executors (W. B. B. p. 275).

THE HAWKINS FAMILY OF GRANVILLE COUNTY

(89) REUBEN SHEROY. The account of the SHEROY family, beginning with REUBEN, who was an early Sheriff of GRANVILLE COUNTY, begins on page 217, under the head of the "SHEROY FAMILY OF GRANVILLE".

(92) PHILEMON HAWKINS (See SHEROY MAP) must have been one of the earliest settlers who came down from VIRGINIA and located South of the ROANOKE RIVER as far West as the original Granville County territory. He was living in what afterwards became a part of old extinct BUCK County, in 1754, when his distinguished son, COL. BENJAMIN HAWKINS was born on August 15, 1754. The early records of YORK and GLOUCESTER Counties, Virginia, carry frequent reference to the name HAWKINS. It is a mere conjecture (but probably correct, at that) that he was the son of a COL. JOHN HAWKINS who lived in ESSEX COUNTY, Virginia, whither he had drifted northward with the WILLIAMS and other families, from GLOUCESTER and YORK COUNTIES. One writer has stated that he was born in GLOUCESTER COUNTY, Virginia, Sept. 28, 1717 and that he came to NORTH CAROLINA and settled when only twenty years of age, which would have been in 1737. One JOHN HAWKINS was in ALBEMARLE PRECINCT and a Lord Deputy of the Province in 1707, with GOV. WILLIAM GLOVER (See p. 62 of this completed Volume), but as there does not appear anywhere among these earlier members of the Hawkins family, one named PHILEMON, it is unlikely that the GRANVILLE PHILEMON descended from that branch of the family, though I have no doubt they were of the same family or tribe.

Col. PHILEMON HAWKINS married DELIA MARTIN. He died in 1801 at the age of 83 years, and left the following children:

1. COL. JOHN HAWKINS
2. COL. PHILEMON HAWKINS, JR.
3. COL. BENJAMIN HAWKINS (b. 1754)
4. COL. JOSEPH HAWKINS
5. FANNIE HAWKINS married LEONARD HENLEY BULLOCK
6. ANN HAWKINS married MICAJAH THOMAS, JR.
7. MARY HAWKINS married NATHANIEL BULLOCK (1760).

1. COL. JOHN HAWKINS, the name of whose wife is unknown to the compiler, was the father of an interesting family. He had:

10. PHILEMON HAWKINS (Of LOUISBURG).
11. GEN. JOHN H. HAWKINS
12. GEN. MICAJAH THOMAS HAWKINS (b. 1786 in WARREN COUNTY).
13. COL. JOSEPH HAWKINS, (and several daughters)

2. COL. PHILEMON HAWKINS, JR., the name of whose wife the compiler has been unable to learn, was the father of the following children:

20. WILLIAM HAWKINS, who was Governor of NORTH CAROLINA (1811-1814).
21. JOHN D. HAWKINS
22. JOSEPH W. HAWKINS
23. BENJAMIN P. HAWKINS married SALLIE PHARSON.
24. PHILEMON HAWKINS

3. COL. BENJAMIN HAWKINS. He was born in August 15, 1754, according to WICKLER, who is in error for the reason that BURE was not erected until 1764; therefore Col. Benjamin Hawkins was really a native of GRANVILLE COUNTY. He died in the CREEK NATION the 6th of June, 1816, in the exercise of his functions as Superintendent of Indian Affairs. A particular record to this effect was made at the time of his death by his elder brother, Col. Philemon Hawkins, in his family Bible, with the additional remark that he had been in public life thirty-six years. He served in the Congress of the United States, and on the 21st of March, 1785, being then a member, he was appointed by Congress, a Commissioner, together with DANIEL CARROLL and WILLIAM PERRY to treat with the Cherokee Indians; the same year he was appointed by Congress with GEN. ANDREW PICKENS, JOSEPH MARTIN and LAURENCE MCINTOSH to negotiate with the CREEK INDIANS. These duties were performed, and in 1786 he was again elected to Congress. In 1789, with SAMUEL JOHNSTON he was elected UNITED STATES SENATOR from North Carolina. He served out his full term of six years in the United States Senate, after which Gen. Washington appointed him Superintendent and Agent for all the Indians South of the Ohio. He appointed his nephew 2d. PHILEMON HAWKINS to serve as his assistant. COL. BENJAMIN HAWKINS left one son (WILLIAM HAWKINS) and five daughters.

The 734 men and officers of COLONEL WILLIAM EATON'S Granville County Regiment here listed are from the territory represented by the black boundary lines of the above map. The list comprises, in our judgment, a practically complete roll of all of the able bodied men, subject to military duty in GRANVILLE COUNTY, North Carolina, at that time. So far as we have been able to ascertain no earlier list of the first citizenship of the county can be found.

Following herewith is a list of the tax payers in GRANVILLE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA for the year 1788. The territory covered by this list includes the present area of the county, plus the area embraced in the present VANCE COUNTY, which had not been established at the time the list was made. This list appears in Vol. 26 of the North Carolina Records & was used by the Federal Government as a substitute for the first census of 1790. As we have arranged these names in alphabetical order, they will not be included in the index. Where a note follows the name, of course, that is by this compiler. The initialed symbols after the name represent the DISTRICT where the assessment was made, but often the person assessed had property in more than one district, which explains why the same name is sometimes repeated.
