Fryday 20 I had occasion to switch one of the soldiers for swearing Profanley for misbehavior which with I Divertying ourselves by playing very much Increased the Indian Chiefs then Present.

We started at 8 O'clock & advanced to we met with the Indians who went out with the & D. Inglis who Informed us of the Burial of & the other unfortunate man that was murdered also of two Shamasse which was seen by at a great a Distance he also was Inmediately
Proved

I sent the Baggage horses on to the Falls (under Lay) under the Care of Lt. Paul & Robinson & others Pearis & others to accompany the Indians in their Missing the Enemy & some Disturbance which themselves seem'd in a very bad manner & after we House a Large party of Indians took off another tended they would go to the Stammers Town a near the Warrior & ten men attended us to the Camp. at we arived about 4 o'clock in y<sup>e</sup> Afternoon I spent the very agreeably among the Officers

Saturday y<sup>e</sup> 21st. We rec<sup>d</sup> Orders not to load any Guns within 1 mile of the Camp, to Debar play kind among y<sup>e</sup> Men, & to send 4 Men out of each Company Cap<sup>t</sup> Overton & L<sup>t</sup> M Neal to go in Quest of the Enemy place where they had been Traced the Day before by Syers & others, in the afternoon the Returned but no Enemy Major Lewis Cap<sup>t</sup> Pearis & the Interpreter Col<sup>o</sup> Buchanans Place where the Indians which Deser Logged the night before & with many persuasions prevailed on them to Return & Join the Army which in the Evening to our great satisfaction

Sunday y<sup>e</sup> 22<sup>d</sup>. We Marched about 9 o'clock at which time I wrote home sent my Horse by Col Serv. which I soon after Repented, we Reached about 13 o'clock where we Encamped the Villan marched on before us & the Indians per which they took to be Enemies

Fort Chiswell 19th September 1776

Dear Sir

I have receiv'd a letter by Express from his Excellency
He had but about two hundred <sup>men</sup> & dont seem to have any great prospect of more. I am also told that your country has not sent a <sup>single</sup> ~~single~~ <sup>man</sup> ~~man~~ <sup>man</sup> (I think); that some of the Captains have little more than 30 men. As that is the case with those immediately concerned nothing can be expected from those at a distance

I hope Capt McClonachan has got his Company & that Captan Sechart is raising Volunteers on my former letter

As we are now in distress & much is at Stake; I beg of you if you can find any Men of Character, whether Officer or not that can raise men to serve them to do it. And I will engage, I give them pay & Bount according to the number they may raise I will 25 per Captain 18 for a Lieutenant and 12 for an Ensign. I will be equal to me & to the Publick whether they be Captains or Lieutenants or Ensigns; Drafting you have <sup>done</sup> ~~done~~ <sup>done</sup> already. I will do for them to be at the Islands by 25th they might hurry out on Hence I send them home from the head of the Island I should think that Capt Hanley, South & Paullen would do something: especially now when nothing is to be learned from the Spaniards. Indeed ~~at~~ some of your men might be useful the last of this month at the Island: provided I can know the 25th that they are coming.

I have directed Numbers of Recruiting Officers to set out in this County on the plan above ~~mentioned~~ Your County will certainly produce its 200 it might do that & another hundred in the bargain.

Pray write towards Augusta to hurry Captain Living with his Company

I am Sir Your most Obed<sup>t</sup> serv<sup>t</sup>
