11 Generations To The First Immigrant Osborn

Origin Of the Grayson County, Virginia Osbornes

Submitted by Gil Wetmore 7/1/2008 for Grayson Heritage FoundationJournal Vol 2

There has long been speculation as to the origin of the Osbornes ofGrayson County. Confusion has exisited because of family tradition,internet 'facts', absence of documentation, and the reportreferenced by Rita Sutton in her work 'Early Osbornes and Alleys'which pointed out the conflicted information.

We know that the Ephraim Osborne family of Grayson County came herefrom the Yadkin Valley area of North Carolina. We have no informationas to the identity of his wife. There is a great deal on the internetthat is based on the report mentioned in Rita Suttun's book but it hasdiscounted as not being based on fact. It has been placed on theinternet and repeated and thus has been accepted as 'fact' but thereis no source for the information for his wife, father, or mother.Another problem is trying to identify where they come from to get toYadkin Valley, NC. We know they were in the Rowan County NC areajust before that. Another of Ephraim Osborne's descendants, IsraelClem, said in a letter, that the family came from NJ. Theaforementioned report stated that the father of Ephraim was JonathanOsborne and his mother was Greta Holman. It also stated that hisgrandfather was James Osborne and his grandmother was Ann Carter. Wehave no information as to how the person who compiled the report doso, on what basis he determined thos relationships or what sourceinformation was utilized. Ginger Ballard contacted descendants ofJonathan Osborne and Greta Holman who stated that Ephraim did notbelong to that family group. If the originator of that report hasthe correct father and grandfather but the wrong mother andgrandmother then we must question his methods and the identify thewife assigned to Ephraim.

Jeff Weaver and Ginger Ballard have long suspected that the Osbornesof Grayson County had ties to the Osborns of Connecticut. A recent DNASTudy of the Osborn/Osborne/Ausbun family has suported that belief. Iwill try to explain those results in language that makes sense tome so maybe it will make sense to others as well.

The original Osborne immigrant to New Haven was named Thomas Osborn.He was from Ashford, Kent, England. He was born about 1594. Hemarried Mary Goatley January 18, 1622 in Ashford. She was born about1600 in Ashford. They had 9 children. The first 6 were born in Kentand the last 3 were born in New Haven. Thomas, Mary and the family hadcome to New Haven in 1637. They later moved across the sound to EastHampton, L. I., NY where Thomas died November 26, 1677.

There are a number of DNA study participants with proven documentationwhich ties them to Thomas and Mary Osborn. One is Gerald ArthurOsborn. He is eleven generations from Thomas. Another is Donald LeeOsborn. He is eleven generations from Thomas. Another is BartleyPorter Osborne. He is eleven generations from Thomas. Another isMark Osborn. He is, you got it, eleven generations from Thomas.Gerald is a descendant of Thomas' son John. Mark, Donald Lee andBartley are descendants of his son Stephen.

Now is where the DNA study gets interesting for us in this area.While most of the members of the Osborn family remained in CT, NYor NJ there is documentation that a first cousin of James, JeremiahOsborn, did come to Virginia. It does leave open the possibility thatthe report may lack documentation but might have some basis in fact. James, we know, did die in NJ and his wife, Sarah, is listed in some of the NJ documents. We do not know where he may have lived for a portion of his life. We probably will never be able to fill in the blanks as to the father, grandfather, and great-grandfather of Ephraim with absolute certainty. The DNA study has provided us some high probability for some candidates because we can eliminate some of the other family members as we know who their children were. (This is based on the assumption that the known sons and grandsons were faithful in their marriages and that we know all of the sons and grandsons of Thomas). A local descendant of Ephraim Osborne, Robert T. Osborne, who would be eleven generations from Thomas if we use the 30 year per generation rule, agreed to participate in the DNA study. The results were such that it confirms a common ancestor with the men mentioned above. Using the 12 allele marker test he was an exact match for Gerald Arthur, David Michael and Donald Lee. He was one marker off for Mark. Using the 25 allele marker test he was one marker for David Michael and two for David Michel and Bartley. Using the 37 allele marker test he was one off for Mark, two off for David Michael and three off for Donald Lee. The DNA report does not list results for all the participants on all the allele reports. Bartley's 12 allele results were not listed and he did not take the 37 marker test. The testing facility has made a chart which converts the probability of having a common ancestor within a certain number of generations. Using that chart the percentage is as follows with the indicated allele marker test and individual between Robert and the others for 11 generations.

Descendants of Thomas OSBORN

Name	Test	Percentage
Gerald	12	67.5%
David	12	67.5%
Donald	12	67.5%
Mark	12	30.3%
Gerald	25	44.17%
Bartley	25	48.96%
David	25	71.48%
Mark	25	44.17%
Mark	37	95.84%
Donald	37	86.78%
David	37	70.92%

As I mentioned we can eliminate certain sons of Thomas and Mary as the ancestor of Ephraim because we know who the descendants of those sons were. The sons of Thomas-Jeremiah, Richard, Stephen, Joseph, Increase and Benjamin- have been identified. The one son who we cannot account for is John. His children were Thomas, John, Caleb, Ephraim, Edward and James. The children of the first 4 have been accounted for and Edward did not marry. The children of James, if he had any, are unknown. Using the standard of 30 years per generation, we can fill in one generation from Ephraim back to James and it would fit that he would POSSIBLY fit in this line. There is no doubt that our Ephraim is a descendant of Thomas because of the DNA testing and the probability is that it is in this line.

As an aside to this story, the great-great aunt of Gerald Arthur Osborn, Jane Osborn, married my great-great-grandfather, John Wetmore. Yes, that makes me eleven generations from Thomas Osborn. The local participant, Robert T. Osborne, is my wife's uncle.

Data from a book of 'Ancestor Charts' by Jeffery Craig Weaver, dated 21 Mar 1990.

Caleb as brother to Ephriam Sr. is speculation in the book as stated, but there is some evidence that this may be true. Part 2, Pg. 1. (For the time being I will leave Caleb as a brother to Ephriam Sr. with a questionmark (?).

Source: The following data was given to me by Herbert Bohler, which was copied from correspondence between Herbert and Joy Adams of KY. The data is all from Joy. Jeffery Weaver has also researched the Osborn's name and Joy's and Jeff's data are almost identical from Ephriam Osborn Sr. and his descendants. However in regards to Ephriam Sr.'s ancestry Joy and Herbert are not in accord. At this point in time, I'm using the ancestry data of Herbert. With that preface, I'll now give the narrative of Joy Adams as follows:

OSBORNES

The first known Osborne of our line was possibly James Osborne and his son, Jonathan. For many years the story has been circulated that a James Osborn, of Warwickshire, England came to the Colonies, bringing son Jonathan and this Jonathan was the father of Ephriam, Calib, etc. This story originated in 1945 when the late Will H. Daniel, of Huntington, WV, employed a researcher to trace his lineage. The authenticity of the story can be checked by writing the Kansas State Historical Society. I wrote them, but never did receive a reply. I also did quite a bit of free KY research for a lady that belonged to that Society and she promised to have it checked out, but she never did. Some time back a lady had an ad in the Gen. Helper on this Jonathan, and I also wrote her and again- no reply!

The first one we can be sure of is Ephriam Osborn, Sr. He is believed to have been born in NJ. An Israel Clem, grandson of Robert Osborn, stated the Osborns came from NJ. The Calendar of NJ Wills includes these same Osborn names in significant numbers. From NJ these Osborns came to NC. Ephriam Sr. was in Rowan Co., NC by 1753 (Pension #58912). He died in Grayson Co., VA after April 23, 1794. He was probably a brother to Calib.

Ephriam is said to have been married to Elizabeth Howard, though proof is lacking. Howards did live beside these Osborns on the Yadkin River, NC. Osborns and Howards did travel together from NC to VA to Harlan Co., KY.

'Settlement of the Northwest Carolina Frontier, 1747-1762', Robert W. Ramsey. Pub. by The University of NC Press, Chapel Hill, 1964. Pg. 82 & 130. Removed from Elizabeth Town, Essex Co., NJ to the Yadkin Valley, Rowan Co., NC in about 1755-1758.

'Wiley Winton Osborne - His Ancestors and Descendants', by Carol Hackett & Myrtle Johnson.

The name of Ephriam Osborn appeared on the 1759 tax list of Rowan Co., NC and on the 1761 tax list of Calib Osborn in the Forks of the Yadkin.

That may have been the year that Ephriam and family moved to the Hollow of Surry, for his name appeared on the Elijah Skidmore tax list in 1761 also.

Descendants of Thomas OSBORN

Ephriam is shown on the Tax List of Rowan Co., NC for the year 1761. (from the book NC Taxpayers 1679-1790, Vol 2 compiled by Clarence C. Ratcliff. Pub. by Baltimore Genelogical Pub. Co. 1987.)

In 1762, Ephriam Sr. returned to testify for Caleb Osborn in a suit against Frederick Friley (Rowan Co., NC - Minute Book-2-247).

By 1766, Ephriam Sr. and family were in Fincastle Co., VA. In 1772, his name appeared on Wm. Herbert's tax list in Fincastle Co., VA. On Dec. 14, 1774 he obtained a Loyal Land Grant for 260 acres in Fincastle Co., lying on both sides of Saddle Creek, a branch of New River. The grant had been ordered one year earlier (Survey Book A-123). It was there that Osborn's Fort was built. In later years, Ephriam was granted a license to operate an ordinary. [tavern]

In 1774 Wm. Scott filed suit against Ephriam; the suit was abated in 1779 (Montgomery Co., VA- Minute Book ?-64, 3-22).

Ephriam took the Oath of Allegiance in 1777. In 1779 he was paid for patrolling, presumably against Indians and Tories. (Book 2-285) On the 1781 militia list, his name as Lieut. Ephriam Osborn, followed immediately by Capt. Enoch Osborn. But Ephriam was designated, 'Not Fit' for Military service.

On Mar 4, 1786 Ephriam's name appeared on the revenue tax list. On Oct. 28, 1789, he was still living in Montgomery Co., VA with property on both sides of Saddle Creek.

He was on the Montgomery Co., VA Personal Property Tax 1787 - List 'A'.

He was on the Montgomery Co., VA Personal Property Tax 25 Oct., 1788 List 'A'.

On April 23, 1794, Ephriam Sr. was exempted from paying the county levy. (Grayson Co., VA Order Book 1-43). This is the last entry found in his name in the records. Ephriam's and Elizabeth's children: Robert, Solomon, Enoch, Jonathan, Ephriam Jr., Elender, and probably others.

My comment:

At a later date, I found that most of what Joy Adams had written was from a Book titled, 'Early Osborns and Alleys', compiled by Rita (Kennedy) Sutton and published by The Historical Society of SW VA. PJP

Ephriam Sr.'s name is on the monument listing him as soldier of Capt Enoch Ozburn's Company, located at Independence, VA.

There is a plaque on a Monument in Independence, Grayson Co., VA. It shows the names of those in the area that served in the Revolution War.

One of those names is this Ephriam Osborne.

It is the theory of Jeffery Weaver that Ephriam was the son of Ephriam Osborne and Mary Osborne (2nd cousin). As given to me in a letter from Jeff dtd. 12 May 1989. Also, Letter from Jeffery Weaver, dtd. 14 Nov.

1990. I talked to Jeff on the phone in April of 1994 and asked him if he still held the same view. His answer was an emphatic YES. In a telecon with Jeff on 28 July 1994, Jeff said that in the 1930s, Will Daniels, an attorney, hired a genealogist from Pittsburg, PA to find the parents of Ephriam. This genealogist came up with Jonathan Osborne, who married Greta Holman, which according to Jeff is definitely wrong.

Jeff Weaver in a letter dated 30 Jan. 1995, said that he is not convinced that Elizabeth was the wife of Ephriam, and certainly not convinced that Ephriam was married twice. In this letter, he also reiterates what he said in the above information.

(A) EPHRIAM OSBORNE SR b 8/23/1723 d 1786 m 1741 Elizabeth 'Betsy' Howard [I disagree with the death date] PJP

Was in the service of Christopher Gist on the Yadkin River in North Carolina, he settled North of the Yadkin in 1745. He and son Jonathan were in the Battle of Point Pleasant in 1774, Black Co VA which is now Pt. Pleasant WV (Mason Co). In 1751 he went to Snow Creek VA and to Starrson, August Co CA and was able to visit relatives and families of James Waston and George Gibson. In 1757 or 1761 he moved from Rowan Co NC to Grayson Co VA and lived there until he died. The Gist lived one mile west of now Wilkesboro NC, which was then Anson Co VA. Elizabeth: She was related to Mrs. Christopher Gist. When they wed they moved about 10 miles from the Gists north of the Yadkin River. The same year Mr. Gist brought the family of Daniel Boone to their NC home, when Daniel was about 13 years old. One record says her name may have been Elizabeth 'Betty' Hardin about 1749.

The following information is from Email exchanged within the NCNR group: [I have just copied the whole Email. 20 May 1998]

Hi, Jeff and all you other OSBORNE cousins! I really, really appreciate Jeff's public disclaimer of the Jamestown/Williamsburg OSBORNE origins and agree with his Duches Co, NY suspicions.

The CT State Library has an intriguing manuscript entitled 'The Thomas Osborne Family of East Hampton, Long Island with one of the Descendants in New Jersey & Connecticut', by Richard W. Cook (1971). There are Ephraims and Calebs and other interesting (at least to us Grayson/Ashe descendants of this clan) OSBORNE names all over the place in this book. One that intrigued me most has to be the one (on p. 42) that has caught Jeff's attention: 'Ephraim OSBORN, son of Ephraim Osborn, b. prob. ca 1690, d. after June 2, 1756, m. Oct. 1711 in New Haven Mary Osborn, dau. of Joseph Osborne #22 & Mary Bennett, b. June 18, 1696, d.---.

Descendants of Thomas OSBORN

Generation 5 (con't)

'Ephraim Osborn after his marriage lived in Newtown, Conn., then returned to New Haven. He next settled in Cheshire parish in Wallingford, later removed to Woodbury, and is last heard of in Dutchess County, N.Y. On Feb. 18, 1718/9 Joseph Osborn of Newtown conveyed land in Newtown to 'my son in law' Ephraim Osborn (Newtown Land Records 2:141). Then on Dec. 17, 1727 Ephraim Osborn of New Haven conveyed a small tract to Daniel Booth of Newtown, and on Dec. 22, 1727 Joseph and Ephraim Osborn for [lb]400 conveyed a large tract to Thomas Leavenworth of Stratford (Ibid 3:207,229).

'On Oct. 30, 1735 Samuel and Ichabod Sherman of Woodbury conveyed 43 acres in Woodbury to Ephraim Osborn of Wallingford (Woodbury Land Records 5:64). Subsequently more deeds involving Ephraim, now of Woodbury, are recorded (Ibid 5:144, 6:283, 7:292, 10:33). On June 2, 1756 Ephraim Osborn 'now of Dutchess County' for [lb]82 1/2 sold to Japhet Benham of Woodbury, 33 acres east of Eight Mile Brook, 'being part of my farm and that Part where my House was', (Ibid 10:260).

'No record of a will, or having died intestate, has been found for Ephraim Osborn in Dutchess County, or in any of the other nearby counties in New York State.'

We get so used to disregarding New England as a potential origin for our Ashe/Grayson folks because it just doesn't show up all that often. Yet we know that the PERKINS family came into Ashe from New Haven in the early 1770s. I'm just wondering if they could have heard about this area from OSBORNEs still in CT at the time.

What do all of you cousins think?

Thanks Ginger, I wondered if I was crazy, since no one else ever came up with this same idea before (or at least no one mentioned it to me. :-))

You'all ain't keeping me out of the loop are you?

There are lots of other Osborne myths on the loose, but will save those for another day. Anyone out there come across this Dutchess Co., NY stuff, or have access to Dutchess Co., NY information? Is it worth investigation?
Warm regards
Jeff

Recently I have been corresponding with Everett E. Osborne of Melbourne, FL. The subject of our correspondence has been Ephriam Osborne, son of Ephriam Osborne & Mary Osborne.

I have, with some reservations, thought that our Ephriam Osborne Sr. b. 21 Aug. 1723, who m. Elizabeth Howard, was the son of Ephriam Osborne

Descendants of Thomas OSBORN

Generation 5 (con't)

& Mary Osborne.

Everett Osborne says that is wrong, and sends enough data to make me think he is correct. Everett says that Ephriam Osborne & Mary Osborne's son, Ephriam Osborne, was b. 11 July 1731 at Cheshire, NewHaven, CT, m. in 1761, Deborah Mallory, dau. of William Mallory. They lived in VE.

Here are the References that Everett sent along with his correspondence.

1. 'The Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey', Vol. 47, No. 1, whole number 175, Jan. 1972
2. 'The Thomas Osborn Family, by Richard Cook, page 128-130.
3. 'The Families of Old Fairfield', page 735, Vol. 2, Part 2.

In addition, I went back and looked at some pages I have of 'Families of Ancient New Haven', Vol. 1, compiled by Donald Lines Jacobus. Jacobus shows the 12 children of Ephriam Osborn & Mary Osborn, and Ephriam is shown as born 11 July 1731 in Cheshire, New Haven, CT. That date and location of birth agrees with what Everett shows in his correspondence.

Families of Ancient New Haven, CT, by Donald Lines Jacobus. Pg 1323 & 1332. There are 12 children listed as those of Ephraim & Mary Osborne, 7095 & 7096. However there is no Caleb and the Ephraim does not agree with my Ephraim 6025. [So in my opinion we are back to square one] 23 June 1998

FGR from Edith Cole, Oct. 1999

I have as the parents of this Ephraim Sr., Ephraim and Mary (Osborne) Osbornes, RIN 7095 & 7096. I have removed Ephraim, because of the controversy.

Notes for John OSBORNE:

Served in Capt Osbornes company as PVT

RW pension in Ill in 1833 32423-VA $80 per year filed for pension 11/12/1832

'..entered service of the United States in Montgomery Co., Va on the first of May 1780, in a volunteer company commanded by Capt. Enoch Osborn. They marched from New River about the first of May 1780, to Whitton Station, now in Tenn., against the Shawnee and Cherokee nations, because of depredations being committed on the frontier settlements by the Indians and Tories. He served three months. In the spring of 1781, he was called for a second tour of duty in the company of Capt. Enoch Osborn. They marched from Montgomery Co., Va. through Moccasin Gap, thence to Blackmore Station, thence to Bean Station, near the Cumberland Mountain and were stationed for the purpose of defending the frontier settlements from being destroyed by the Indians. They served three or four months, being relieved by other troops, were permitted to go home for the purpose of procuring winter clothing and winter quarters. They were to be held in readiness and subject to be called into service at any time, if they were needed. This declarant volunteered on a third tour, to go against the Tories, under the command of Col. William Campbell, of Virginia. Marched from the New River, in the county of Montgomery, to North Carolina, scouting and searching for Tories. This declarant volunteered on a fourth tour against the Tories, in the company commanded by Capt. Gambrell, of the Light Dragoons, under Cleveland, a detachment amounting to about three hundred. Marched from the county of Montgomery into North Carolina, Ashe Co. They were stationed in a particular place but were employed in ranging the country, back and forth, in quest of Tories. In Fountain Co. circuit court, September Term 1833, John Osborn appeared and added to his original declaration. He was born AD 1763 in Shenandoah Co., Va. He was living in Montgomery Co., Va. when called into service. Since the War the Revolution, he had lived in Ashe Co., N. C., Barren Co., Ky., and Harrison Co., Ind. The names of some of his officers were Col. Campbell, Col. Preston, Col. Cleveland, Col. Sevier, and Gen.
Robert Lenore. My Uncle, Capt. Enoch Osborn, Had the Charge of my Papers. It was under him that I served. I cared nothing about my papers. I thought my uncle would see that all was right with me.'

In support of the application on 7/1/1833 AD in Vermillion Co., IL Robert Osborn (b1760-1770) appeared before a Justice of the Peace and made the following deposition: 'He perfectly recollected the time and place where John Osborn entered the service of the United States in the War of the Revolution. He was living in Montgomery Co., Va. when he first became acquainted with John Osborn.
He recollects at a muster of Militia of said county, at the house of the father of this deponent, John

Goss Family pages from Jean Cobb:

Jean's mother located a Gambill Bible that proved that Calvin was s/o Ann Williams Gambill. Jean found a record in the NC state archive that showed that John Gambill divorced Ann Gambill. He accused her of 'numerous infidelities.' The divorce was granted so it must have been proved true. The Bible record Jean Cobb has a copy of

Is from a bible given to Ann Gambill in 1832 by Charlotte Williams & is signed on the back page by John Goss, Baker Bowers, & George Reeves. Gives birthdates for Ann Gambill (1808) Martin Williams (1805). Jean believed that Charlotte, Ann & Martin

Williams were siblings. Bible lists 4 children: Minerva Gambill 25 June 1825; William Gambill, 31 Oct 1826; Calvin Gambill 16 Aug 1828, Jane Gambill, 26 Jan 1830.

Jean had letters that proved that Minerva was the sister of Calvin: she wrote him 'Dear Brother' and ended 'Your Loving Sister'. Jean found county records that prove that the Minerva who wrote Cal Goss was s/o Jane Gambill. She had a letter in which a descendant of William quotes William as saying that he had a half-brother, Cal Goss.

There there is the fact he called himself Cal Goss. In an account of his life, Cal wrote about 1898, that he went to TN w/ his 'fathers family' in 1843. Jean had records proving that John Goss sold out in Ashe Co. in 1843 and went to TN. Zachariah Goss, John's son, shows up in 1850 TN census. A relative of Zachariah's gave Jean's mother a letter that Cal wrote to somebody in TN in 1878 lamenting the death of his brother, Andrew Goss. Jean had copies of two letters Cal wrote to Andrew addressing him as 'Dear Brother'.

Cal's sister, Minerva, died in an asylum in NC. Didn't know what was wrong with her because her letters were completely lucid. Jean thought she might have had arthritis

And her folks put her away rather than take care of her. She was committed by her sister, Jane, who was by this time married to Wm. D. Jones, an Attorney. She says 'do I smell something here?'. Minerva was well-to-do, she thought, and the law specified that her property was to be administered by her next of kin.

Cal was educated in the Cumberland County schools, though Jean couldn't find any records of his time in TN. Some of the Goss clan went on to Missouri and Cal evidently went with them. He married Sarah Baker there, and had 3 sons, whose descendants still live there around Sheldon.

Apparently Cal couldn't get along w/ Sarah; family stories say they were both pretty brash and outspoken and adds she was spoiled by her father. One of Jean's mother's correspondents say they were a wild young couple. They were Divorced. Sarah Baker married again in 1867 to a man named Long and raised a nice family.

Cal was, according to family stories, one of the notorious 'Missouri Bushwackers' of the Civil War.

These were men who fought against the Union Army and probably every thing that rode a horse.

Jean's mother believed that Cal rode with Quantrell, but that outfit left no records.

In 1864 Cal signed the infamous 'Oath of Allegiance' and in Sept. that year joined the 11th Kansas Cavalry. Jean had copies of those papers. Her mother said Cal fought Indians in Wyoming, so he wouldn't have to fight his own folks in the South. Maybe he just wanted out of Missouri. He fought with the Kansas Cavalry until he was discharged in Sept. 1865.

Subject: Osborne -

I have been trying to figure out who this Osborne lady was - she first married a Spencer and her 'parents' are listed on the wedding license as 'Enoch & Osborn'. She is divorced and age 50 at the time of the marriage to K. C. Parks, so was born abt. 1850. Her name appears to be 'Lena' or Lina.....

She was listed as being born in NC.

K. C. was widowed & born in Grayson.

They married in Grayson Co. on 12 Dec 1900 by E. M. Thomas.

United in marriage by E. M. Thomas near Rugby, Grayson Co., Virginia.

Aunt Missouri Anderson Testerman 1899-1993, daughter of Allen Franklin Anderson 1853-1923, and Mary Ann Ward Anderson 1860-1949, should have known without problems who her grandparents were. She remembered actually seeing her grandfather John H. Ward, and naturally she knew that Evalina Hash was her grandmother.

The other Evalina Hash who married Thomas E. Ward, I thought was a daughter of Joseph M. Hash and Sydney Wyatt Hash? In my notes I have her born in 1842 and Thomas Ward circa 1836.

Over the Mountain Men, by Anne Lowry Worrell, pg 26

Hash Historian, Vol. XII, # 1, Jan-Mar 1992, lists two children differently than what I had: I had had William instead of Wilburn and Wiley instead of Riley.

Also listed were all known marriages for the children of this family. Only those that might connect to my direct lines have been listed. William's second wife's father is unknown. The only Glass family to appear in Grayson Co. census records is evidently headed by Polly's mother, Elizabeth Glass, a native of NC, who is found in 1850 with two daughters, Polly & Susan.

Miss Flora Hunt's parents refused permission for them to marry. On Jan. 5th, 1877, at five o'clock in the afternoon, she took strychnine. She then entered the room where her parents were sitting, threw the empty bottle at their feet - and expired. On Wednesday, January 31st 1877, James Bartlett Osborn shot himself through the heart. He left numerous letters to friends, of a surprisingly cool and calm nature, stating the cause of his action to be the death of Miss Hunt, to whom he was devotedly attached.

Goss Family pages from Jean Cobb:

Jean's mother located a Gambill Bible that proved that Calvin was s/oAnn Williams Gambill. Jean found a record in the NC state archivesthat showed that John Gambill divorced Ann Gambill. He accused her of 'numerous infidelities.' The divorce was granted so it must have been proved true. The Biblerecord Jean Cobb has a copy of Is from a bible given to Ann Gambill in 1832 by Charlotte Williams &is signed on the back page by John Goss, Baker Bowers, & GeorgeReeves. Gives birthdates for Ann Gambill (1808) Martin Williams(1805). Jean believed that Charlotte, Ann & Martin Williams were siblings. Bible lists 4 children: Minerva Gambill 25June 1825; William Gambill, 31 Oct 1826; Calvin Gambill 16 Aug 1828,Jane Gambill, 26 Jan 1830.

Jean had letters that proved that Minerva was the sister of Calvin:she wrote him 'Dear Brother' and ended 'Your Loving Sister'. Jeanfound county records that prove that the Minerva who wrote Cal

Descendants of Thomas OSBORN

Generation 9 (con't)

Gosswas s/o Jane Gambill. She had a letter in which a descendant of William quotes William as saying that he had a half-brother, Cal Goss.

There there is the fact he called himself Cal Goss. In an account of his life, Cal wrote about 1898, that he went to TN w/his 'fathers family' in 1843. Jean had records proving that John Goss sold out in Ashe Co. in 1843 and went to TN. Zachariah Goss, John's son, shows up in 1850 TN census. A relative of Zachariah's gave Jean's mother a letter that Cal wrote to somebody in TN in 1878 lamenting the death of his brother, Andrew Goss. Jean had copies of two letters Cal wrote to Andrew addressing him as 'Dear Brother'.

Cal's sister, Minerva, died in an asylum in NC. Didn't know what was wrong with her because her letters were completely lucid. Jean thought she might have had arthritis

And her folks put her away rather than take care of her. She was committed by her sister, Jane, who was by this time married to Wm. D. Jones, an Attorney. She says 'do I smell something here?'. Minerva was well-to-do, she thought, and the law specified that her property was to be administered by her next of kin.

Cal was educated in the Cumberland County schools, though Jean couldn't find any records of his time in TN. Some of the Goss clan went on to Missouri and Cal evidently went with them. He married Sarah Baker there, and had 3 sons, whose descendants still live there around Sheldon.

Apparently Cal couldn't get along w/Sarah; family stories say they were both pretty brash and outspoken and adds she was spoiled by her father. One of Jean's mother's correspondents say they were a wild young couple. They were divorced. Sarah Baker married again in 1867 to a man named Long and raised a nice family.

Cal was, according to family stories, one of the notorious 'Missouri Bushwackers' of the Civil War. These were men who fought against the Union Army and probably every thing that rode a horse.

Jean's mother believed that Cal rode with Quantrell, but that outfit left no records.

In 1864 Cal signed the infamous 'Oath of Allegiance' and in Sept. that year joined the 11th Kansas Cavalry. Jean had copies of those papers. Her mother said Cal fought Indians in Wyoming, so he wouldn't have to fight his own folks in the South. Maybe he just wanted out of Missouri. He fought with the Kansas Cavalry until he was discharged in Sept. 1865.

Sylvia Osborne, listed as child XIII, was the daughter of Leonidas Pettigrew Osborne and Catherine Tucker Osborne. The mother bled to death following her birth. The Osborne grandparents raised her.

Sylvia died in California. Uncle 'Petty' married the second time Sophronia Boggs. I think he fathered 20+ children by his 2 wives.

There are 7 children, including twins, buried in Haw Orchard Cemetery in graves marked with field stones. They died in a typhoid epidemic.

Wiley Osborne who married Cansada Davis left us an interesting story. At their wedding supper he looked out a window and saw his bride sitting in someone's (Farmer) lap. He got on his horse and left! The next time he was heard from he was gold mining in California. Someone in the family has the gold brooch he sent to his sister Malvina and I have both Wiley's picture and one of Lee and Malvina wearing the brooch. Even though he sold his interest in a mine for a lot of money, when he came back home he supposedly had nothing and died broke.

William's name is on the monument listing him as soldier of Capt Enoch Ozburn's Company, located at Independence, VA.

Source see Richard Johnson's letter of 23 Aug. 1990. I have disconnected Tobias Hatch RIN 7149 as the father of James, John 7151, & William 8739 per Richard's ltr. 27 Aug. 1990

The following is excerpted from the book, 'Family Portraits', by Phyllis Gale Roop of Fries, VA.--1980-1986. This is from of the section of the book, Family Portrait Hash:

'Much of the material I have on the Hash family I obtained from the Archives of the Grayson County Historical Society at Independence, VA. Some of the data in the archives is probably based on a manuscript of the late Rev. Walter Hash, outstanding Southern Baptist missionary and educator. I have also used data from the 'Hash Family Historian', also found in the Grayson archives, as well as material given to me by Mr. John Mullins, Clintwood, VA.'

'The following is a verbatim account of the Hash family in Grayson County from a manuscript in the archives:'

'John, James, and William Hashe (Hash) brothers, who were the progenitors of the Hash family of Grayson County, VA, came to the New River settlement of what is now Grayson County, then Fincastle County, some time prior to 1773. The earliest settlers of Grayson County say that the family of Dutch extraction, or as they were called, Pennsylvania Dutch. (The Pennsylvania Dutch were actually from Germany)'

'Land west of the Alleghney Mountains was not open to patent or grant to individuals prior to Dec. 15, 1773. It is evident, however, that the Hash brothers settled on New River, Bridle Creek, Fox Creek, and Chestnut Creek prior to that time, because on the very day that the Council of Virginia authorized the issuance of grants for land west of the Alleghenies--Dec. 15, 1773--William Hash received a grant on Bridle Creek of 430 acres; John Hash received a grant for land on New River at the mouth of Bridle Creek for 250 acres, and James Hash received a grant for 147 acres, 'lying on the waters of Chestnut Creek, a branch of the New River'. There is more information in the above book.

Obituary from the Primitive Baptist Assoc. Minute Obituaries, 1855-1995

Mrs. Lalura E. Eller

Mrs. Laura E. Eller, daughter of Alex. B. McMillan of Nathan's Creek, was born Aug. 16, 1861; died July 25, 1908, age 46 years, 11 months and 9 days. Was married to A. S. Eller of Ashe County about 1889, from which union was born 5 children, all of whom are living. She made profession of faith in Christ Sept. 1886 in her 22 year and joined the Primitive Baptist church under the ministry of Rev. B. E. Caudill and lived a consistent member of that church until her death. This Christian mother is a relative of the writer, who he knew when a young lady at home. She was a student at Oak Hill Academy about 1882-3 where she made many friends by her exemplary life as a pupil and in social circle. At an early age her mother died leaving her and a younger sister to look after the home, with all its perplexing domestic cares. After marriage she left her father's home, who is still living, to take up the duties of her new home relations, and did all in her power to make her home happy for husband, children and friends. She was called from labor to reward in the prime of usefulness. She had been in declining health for some time before her death, yet the future had no dark forebodings for her. Her faith in Christ did not fail her, but simply brightened and grew stronger as she neared the brink of mystic river of death. She desired to live for her husband and children's sake, that she might aid as only a Christian mother can, in rearing the children to a more mature life, and leave more fully the impress of a mother's love and care upon their young lives, but if not God's will to do this, she was willing to abide the divine will. She died as she had lived, strong in the faith and love of Christ. Beautifully admonishing all her loved ones and friends to live beautiful Christian lives that all may meet her in the bright heavenly abode to which she was going. She leaves her father now over 80 years of age a younger sister and brother. Her death makes the home sad, dark and cheerless----husband and children cannot fully estimate the loss to their lives by her absence and the long sad experience of after life ----in his mercy deal gently with all the home family and ----- such, lives in this life as to meet the loved wife and ----Heaven. F. M. Y.

William's name is on the monument listing him as soldier of Capt Enoch Ozburn's Company, located at Independence, VA.

Source see Richard Johnson's letter of 23 Aug. 1990. I have disconnected Tobias Hatch RIN 7149 as the father of James, John 7151, & William 8739 per Richard's ltr. 27 Aug. 1990

The following is excerpted from the book, 'Family Portraits', by Phyllis Gale Roop of Fries, VA.--1980-1986. This is from of the section of the book, Family Portrait Hash:

'Much of the material I have on the Hash family I obtained from the Archives of the Grayson County Historical Society at Independence, VA. Some of the data in the archives is probably based on a manuscript of the late Rev. Walter Hash, outstanding Southern Baptist missionary and educator. I have also used data from the 'Hash Family Historian', also found in the Grayson archives, as well as material given to me by Mr. John Mullins, Clintwood, VA.'

'The following is a verbatim account of the Hash family in Grayson County from a manuscript in the archives:'

'John, James, and William Hashe (Hash) brothers, who were the progenitors of the Hash family of Grayson County, VA, came to the New River settlement of what is now Grayson County, then Fincastle County, some time prior to 1773. The earliest settlers of Grayson County say that the family of Dutch extraction, or as they were called, Pennsylvania Dutch. (The Pennsylvania Dutch were actually from Germany)'

'Land west of the Alleghney Mountains was not open to patent or grant to individuals prior to Dec. 15, 1773. It is evident, however, that the Hash brothers settled on New River, Bridle Creek, Fox Creek, and Chestnut Creek prior to that time, because on the very day that the Council of Virginia authorized the issuance of grants for land west of the Alleghenies--Dec. 15, 1773--William Hash received a grant on Bridle Creek of 430 acres; John Hash received a grant for land on New River at the mouth of Bridle Creek for 250 acres, and James Hash received a grant for 147 acres, 'lying on the waters of Chestnut Creek, a branch of the New River'. There is more information in the above book.

In the 1910 census, only one Enoch Hash pulls up, even with the soundex. He's in Wilson Creek District 58, 301/301. He is 42 and no wife is listed. Among the children is a daughter age 12 whose name looks like 'Adia'. My guess is that this is your 'Ada.'

Bette,

In the 1910 census, only one Enoch Hash pulls up, even with the soundex. He's in Wilson Creek District 58, 301/301. He is 42 and no wife is listed. Among the children is a daughter age 12 whose name looks like 'Adia'. My guess is that this is your 'Ada.'

The following article was in the Ashland Daily Independent, 27 Dec1963
SOUTH SHORE, KY. Mrs. Charlotte Skeans, who came across Cumberland Gap in a covered wagon, had her early-morning words put on tape this morning, when she arose to celebrate her one-hundreth birthday.

Descendants of Thomas OSBORN

Generation 9 (con't)

Mrs. Skeans, born in North Carolina, December 27th 1863, is a daughter of Caleb and Letitia (Lewis) Osborne. She was born just after her father left the farm to join the Union Army.

In fact, his Union sympathies may have been partially responsible for his move to KY. He and a brother started to Missouri, Mrs. Skeans recalled today, but her father turned away, and stopped in Floyd Co.

The trip occurred in 1869, with later moves to Carter and Elliot Cos. Not quite 17, Little Charlotte married Elliot Skeans in Floyd Co., Oct 22, 1880.

Mrs. Skeans maneuvers well up and down stairs alone. She does not care much for television, but reads thoroughly her daily newspaper, and writes letters often.

PERKINS

Lewis W. a son of Luther and Susan Perkins was born July 12, 1824. Died Oct. 8, 1912. Age 88 yrs. 2 months and 27 days. He was married to Rachel Osborne Oct. 20 1848. Unto them were born 4 sons and 8 daughters. Seven of his children outstripped him in the lane of life and 5 are living to mourn his loss.

He professed a hope in Christ in early life and joined Three Fork Baptist Church the 4th Saturday in May 1880 and was baptized on the following Sunday by Eld. I. W. Landreth. he afterward moved his membership to Flat Grove church where he remained a faithful member till death. Weep no! dear children @ but prepare to meet him in that house not made with hands eternally in the heavens. By his Godly walks and conversation, we are made to believe he is at rest with his dear wife and children in that beautiful home above, while we are left to mourn his loss.

Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.

Letter from Tivis H. Graybeal, grandson of Andrew & Catherine (Fry)Graybeal, dtd. 5 June 1990. The IGI of the Mormon Church had Katherine Parker as Andrew's second wife. Others thought that it was a Catherine Phipps. Tivis knows it was Catherine Fry. That should settle this issue. (Maybe not; Marriage register in Ashe Co. shows Catherine Parker--Married by David Graybeal)(5 April 1991.) (Maybe Catherine was a widow and her nee was Parker or Fry)

Death certificate on file in the Ashe Co. Courthouse per information supplied by Steve Peters of Johnson City. TN in a letter dtd 21 Apr.1992

a.k.a. Benny

The following was excerpted from a letter I wrote to Steve Peters of Johnson City, TN, dtd. 8 Dec. 1991:

'Thanks for the information on Benjamin Brown. All the data you gave me agreed with what I had found out in the interim. Considering what Wade Eller did with the limited facilities he had, I for one am sure happy that he did what he did. That includes errors too.

I wrote to 3 cousins for info on Benjamin Brown. All 3 agreed that his first wife was Catherine Calhoun and his 2nd wife was Jennie Price. Marie (Elliott) Ham, my 1st cousin, who still lives on Rich Hill said she remembers Benny very well, as he lived within sight of where she lived and still lives. Minnie (Phipps) Ashley DeWease who now lives in Delta, PA said she remembers when Benjamin married Jennie, there was quite a scandle. Minnie is my double 1st cousin once removed. Her dad James Phipps married Martha Graybeal. My grandfather David Phipps (brother of James) married my grandmother, Biner Graybeal, sister to Martha. The 3rd cousin was Lottie (Roten) McCoy of Oxford, PA, she wrote that the scandle was this, Jennie was not previously married but had a number of children by different men. Jennie was still alive, when she was on a TV program that was talking to widows of Civil War veterans. As the story goes Jennie told a bunch of lies, and the grandchildren of Benjamin were really mad about the incident. ha'

Obituary:

A. L. Osborn

A. L. Osborn was born June 27, 1853 and married to Lutishey Anderson May 17, 1874. Unto this union was born 10 children 6 boys and 4 girls, 1 boy and 1 girl dead. He professed a hope in Christ at ElkCreek later on he joined the church at Mount Carmel and died a member of the same. During his sickness he talked a lot about dieing and called his little grandson to his bedside and told him to go to school and be a good boy.

On May 27, 1932 the good Lord saw fit to call him from his earthly home to a home in Heaven to meet his dear wife and friends who were waiting for him.

His stay on earth was 79 years 11 months. He was one of the best citizens of his county and always made his friends who visited him welcome in his home.

The time was sweet we spent below,

But Jesus calls and I must go,

Dear friends love your Jesus too,

While I am in Heaven waiting for you.

---Written by a friend.

Obituary

Minutes of the 30th Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association, Friday, 3 October 1924

HOPPERS

Catherine Hoppers was born June the 22, 1830. Deceased this life Nov.the 10th, 1923. Age 93 years, 4 mo. 19 days.

She was married to Zed Osborn in the year of 1849. Unto them wereborn 8 children - 4 boys and 4 girls all living to see the last of a dear mother. She professed a living hope in Christ in early life, and told some of her children that she was living on and risking the chance for a better world on that little hope.

We believe that if ever once a child of grace they will sing His praise through eternity.

So farewell till we meet again.

Written by Willie Hamm.

THOMAS HARVEY RUTHERFORD

Thomas Harvey Rutherford was born December 14, 1860, this life January 19, 1950, making his stay on earth 89 years, 1 month 5 days.

He was married to Maldora Maines. To this union were born 4 children: one son Carl, and three daughters, Mrs. Baxter Kennedy, Mrs. Walter Petty and Mrs. Willie Joines.

God saw fit to call his companion away in 1903, leaving him with 4 motherless children.

He was later married to Amy Brown. To this union were born 11 children: 7 sons and 4 daughters, Mrs. Greely Austin, Harve, Andy, Tom, Mrs. Earl Oakley, Lon, Mc. and Odell.

He received a hope in Christ Sept., 1935 and united with the Church at Mt. Olivet and was baptized in the fellowship of the same. He remained a faithful member till death.

Descendants of Thomas OSBORN

Generation 10 (con't)

He leaves to mourn his passing 9 children, 32 grandchildren 24great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.

We have heard him talk so - many times of the hope he had of going to a better home. We feel he has gone on to be with mother and brothers and sisters on the other shore:

Where we hope to meet them,
Where separation comes no more.
Dear Daddy how we miss you,
Since you passed away,
I often listen for your voice,
From day to day.

Funeral service was conducted at Mt. Olivet Church by Elders Tyra Brooks, Walter Evans, and Charlie Wooten, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery to await the resurrection. Then we hope to be reunited family to be parted no more.

Written by a daughter, Mrs. Willie Joines written letter: 'There is a man there at home by the name of Marshall Parks coming from Wythe Co. He has a grand-daughter here at County Farm. She has been here for several months. Now he came to see her last summer when she was staying with a Miss Moore (sp). But I am asking you not to allow him a furlough this summer. They tell me (from a reliable source) that this grand-child is his child by his own daughter & she has a child of 5 years said to be his child. Now a man with such a reputation should assuredly not be allowed to visit any one. The woman is feeble-minded so please keep him there.'

W. M. Parks Age 74
Jincy Parks Age 27 Granddaughter
Both born in Virginia.

William was granted admission to Robert E. Lee Camp Soldier's Home, Richmond, VA, November 11, 1923.

Upon his death, May 26, 1930, William's possessions were turned over to his son Stephen Harlow by the Soldier's home. They consisted of one watch, $64.00 and personal belongings. Also the monthly pension due William for May 1930 was paid to his son Stephen Harlow. The amount was three dollars ($3.00).

The Superintendent of the County Farm, Wythe Co., VA, W. A. Crenshaw, wrote a letter to the superintendent of the Soldier's Home, Richmond, VA. The following is a typed copy of the handwritten letter: 'There is a man there at home by the name of Marshall Parks coming from Wythe Co. He has a grand-daughter here at County Farm. She has been here for several months. Now he came to see her last summer when she was staying with a Miss Moore (sp). But I am asking you not to allow him a furlough this summer. They tell me (from a reliable source) that this grand-child is his child by his own daughter & she has a child of 5 years said to be his child. Now a man with such a reputation should assuredly not be allowed to visit any one. The woman is feeble-minded so please keep him there.'

Very Resp: W. A. Crenshaw, Supt of Co., Farm, Wytheville, VA.

Lonnie E. Carico

Lonnie E. Carico, son of Frank and Mary Gordon Carico, was born October 13, 1899, and passed away in Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, March 3, 1957, making his earthly pilgrimage 57 years, 4 months and 18 days.

On December 24, 1921, he was united in marriage to Cora Louella Nichols, daughter of Elder Hiram Nichols, a well known Baptist minister of Alleghany and Grayson counties.

Lonnie and Coara lived a happy and congenial life together for more than 35 years.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three children, as follows: Mrs. Elmo Vaughan, Pearisburg, Va.; Mrs. Ray Wilson, Baywood, Va.; and Edward Carico of Galax, Va.; four grandchildren and one step-granddaughter, also the following brothers and sisters:

Mrs. Earl Weatherman, Galax, VA; Mrs. Luther Hutchens, Yadkinville, N.C.; Mrs. Paul Rinchardson, Hesperia, Mich.; Dewey Carico and Ben Carico, Galax, Va, and Claude Carico, Roanoke, Va.

Lonnie, together with his wife, united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Baywood, September 23, 1927, was baptized by Elder C. B. Kilby, and on June 18, 1951, was ordained deacon in the church, filling this office faithfully and attentively the remainder of his days, attending both days of his last Church Meeting.

Lonnie had been afflicted for several years but bore his afflictions cheerfully and patiently until the last.

He was a good husband, a loving father, always interested in the well-being of his children and grandchildren, a useful citizen and a good neighbor. He will be missed in his church, in his home, and in his community.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls His own,
And bids them leave this world of woe
For an immortal crown.
